

Doris Helen Spaulding Tells Troth at Holiday Open House

Taking the romantic spotlight this morning is Miss Doris Helen Spaulding, whose betrothal to Robert Morris III of Portland was announced at a beautiful Christmas open house for which the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, were hosts on Sunday at their Dunthorpe residence on S.W. Greenwood Road.

Miss Hilton's Engagement is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Keller are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Connie Jean Hilton, to William E. Bauer, son of Mrs. Charles E. Bauer. The wedding will take place next summer.

Both young people attended Salem schools. Miss Hilton attended University of Oregon and is now employed in the State Highway Department. Mr. Bauer is employed at the Pittsburgh Paint Company.

To Spend Holidays Out of State

SILVERTON—Mrs. John Tweed has gone to Detroit, Mich., to spend the holidays with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Perlmutter. Dr. Perlmutter is taking specialized work in surgery at the University Hospital in Detroit.

Mrs. George Hubbs has gone to Seattle to spend the holidays with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chalton and family. Prior to leaving, Mrs. Hubbs was a guest of her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, the Frank Hubbs at dinner.

Also spending the holidays in Seattle is Mrs. Edward Ekman, formerly of Silverton but more recently of Eugene. Mrs. Ekman and Mrs. Hubbs are sisters-in-law also. Mrs. Ekman will spend the holidays with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Treadgold, who moved to Seattle in October, after selling their lumber business in Eugene.

The Treadgold's son, Donald, is now language teacher at the University of Washington. The elder Mrs. Treadgold is the former Miss Mina Hubbs, who taught in Salem and Silverton schools for a number of years.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hubbs Saturday night were Mr. Hubbs' nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hubbs of Minnesota, who are spending the winter in the west, headquarters in Eugene. Additional dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brown of Silverton.

Miss Althea Meyer entertained at dinner at China City Sunday night on the occasion of her brother's birthday anniversary. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Meyer, Miss Karen

Spaulding family were invited to the announcement party between 3 and 8 o'clock at their beautiful home, which was decorated throughout in the holiday motif.

Miss Spaulding, who made her home in Salem until two years ago, attended Salem schools and was a popular member of the younger contingent. She is now a sophomore at the University of Oregon and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Her fiancé, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris Jr. of Portland, will graduate in June from the University of Oregon. He is a member of Chi Psi fraternity. He expects to enter the U.S. Air Force following his graduation. The young duo plan a mid-summer wedding.

Miss Jean Spaulding, sister of the hostess, passed out blue and silver tulle angels, bearing the names of the couple, revealing the engagement news. The attractive bride-elect and her fiancé and their parents received their guests informally in the drawing room.

The serving table in the dining room was covered with a red net cloth over gold lace with a centerpiece of large red candles and white holly. A red cloth covered the punch table. The entrance hall and stairway were festooned with fir boughs tied with red silk cord and in the library was a white tree adorned with glittery snowball ornaments tied with blue and silver tulle bows.

Woman's Club at Winn Home
