

Valley Christmas Observances

SILVERTON—Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services will be observed in a number of Silvertown churches this year in addition to the Christmas services which were held Sunday and which will be held next Sunday.

Two churches which have announced Christmas Eve services are First Christian and Silvertown Methodist. At the First Christian there will be a choral program and pageant under the direction of Mrs. John Bronson, choir director. This program has been set for 11 a.m. Thursday.

At the Silvertown Methodist there will be a regular church service at 10:45 Thursday night with a brief sermon and special music.

Churches holding Christmas Day services in addition to St. Paul's Catholic Church, are the three Lutheran Churches, Trinity, Immanuel and Calvary, all at 10:30 a.m. Special choir music has been arranged for each of the three services.

HAZEL GREEN—Christmas in many lands will be portrayed in the Christmas program at Hazel Green School Wednesday night. Special instrumental music will be played by the Darling brothers and Richard Aker.

There will be school Thursday morning after which the school will be dismissed for the vacation.

FRUITLAND—The wearing of original Christmas hats was the feature of the meeting of the Fruitland Mother's Club recently. Mrs. Willie Fritz was judged the prettiest and Mrs. P. L. Cleary, the most appropriate.

Christmas treats were packed for the school program.

The next Mother's Club meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Anthol Riney, with an exchange student of Willamette as guest speaker.

TURNER—The music department of the Cascade Union High School will present a program in the high school gymnasium at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

The music will be presented by 50 select voices from the mixed glee and the girls' glee forming a special mixed choir for the Christmas program. The band will also play several numbers and will accompany the audience in singing Christmas carols.

A baritone horn solo by Camilla Stair is on the band program.

FRUITLAND—The Woman's Circle held its Christmas party at the church annex recently. Mrs. M. J. Langen and Mrs. Russell Thomas decorated the room and tables. Mrs. William Anderson and Mrs. L. K. Bruce were in charge of arrangements.

HUBBARD—"Come to Worship" will be presented by the Hubbard grade school at the Christmas program in the gym Tuesday night. The pageant of the Nativity, with choral readings and Christmas carols will be presented by the entire grade school under the direction of Mrs. C. K. McNary and Mrs. George Waddington.

The grade school band, under the direction of Tom Brumbaugh, will perform and the program will be followed by a visit from Santa Claus with treats for the children.

SILVERTON—It took a Portland slogger to win the prize offered for the best Silvertown Centennial slogan.

The slogan was "Silvertown Centennial Calls—Fun, Flowers and Waterfalls." The winner was Flora E. Breck.

Runner-up in the slogan contest sponsored by the Silvertown Centennial Association of which Lowell E. Brown is chairman, was written by Mrs. Stella Blackberry of Salem: "A Great Past—A Greater Future." Mrs. Blackberry's late husband, Pearl Blackberry, was a member of one of Silvertown's pioneer families.

AMITY—The Three Links Club of Industry Rebekah Lodge held its Christmas party Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Lahley. Mrs. H. J. Richter was co-hostess.

All business was postponed until the January meeting when election of officers and drawing of names for secret pals will be on the agenda.

Darlene Wood read the story of Christmas trees in other lands, and the story of the Wise Men. Johnnie and Chrissie Lahley helped distribute the gifts to secret pals whose names were revealed.

MONMOUTH—A group of 57 people attended the annual pre-Christmas dinner arranged for city officials and employees and their families, the night of Dec. 15, at the city hall's social rooms.

Turkey and all Christmas fare was served, with a brief program following, in which the children starred. A gift exchange and the singing of Christmas carols concluded the affair. O. A. Macy, councilman, was master of ceremonies.

CENTRAL HOWELL—Mrs. D. L. Wolfard and Mrs. Stewart McClure, teachers, will present their pupils in the school Christmas program Wednesday night.

Valley Births

Conservation Dinner Jan. 6

SILVERTON—The sixth annual Silvertown Soil Conservation District dinner meeting will be held Wednesday, Jan. 6, in the Waldo Hills Community Club house. A turkey dinner is to be served at 6 o'clock by the Home Economics Club of Waldo Hills Grange, followed by the annual business meeting and program.

Mt. Angel Co-op Sets Annual Meet

MT. ANGEL—The annual Patron's Day for the Mt. Angel Co-operative creamery will be held Tuesday, Dec. 29, starting at 10:30 a. m., in St. Mary's school auditorium.

The traditional free sausage dinner will be served in the school dining hall at noon.

The governor has been invited and there will be speakers from Oregon State College and the State Department of Agriculture to round out a full and interesting program.
