Push-Button Age Comes to Famous Notre Dame Belfry

PARIS (INS)-The push-button age has come to the historical belfry of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris.

Instead of human brawn, electric power is now being used to toll all the bells lodged in the REGISTERED male Labrador Re-classical Gothic towers flanking triever. Black, 4 years old. Well triever, black, 4 years old. Well the famed landmark in the the famed landmark in the French capital.

Last to bow to the march of progress was "Emmanuel" the huge, deep-toned bell that was east in 1686.

Measuring more than eight feet in diameter, the 14-ton bell required eight men to work it. Now, two synchronized electric motors activate its 916-pound clapper.

"Emmanuel" was the sole fixture of Notre Dame to survive the storm of French Revolution. Other smaller bells were removed to be melted and turned into

Removed in 1794, the huge bell was restored to the Notre Dame belfry at Easter in 1802 when France and the Holy See signed a "concordat."

ZOO TEAS

LONDON (INS)-Princess Margaret has a new name for the teas which inevitably follow official ceremonies. "Zoo teas," the Princess calls them, "because I eat, the others watch."
