By JERYME ENGLISH

AN OUTSTANDING . . . success the Salem General Hospital Auxiliary benefit tea Thursday afternoon . . . The newly built wing . . . the locale for the affair . . . a steady stream of guests calling all afternoon and evening . . . some even arriving before the doors opened at 2:30 . . . A special treat in store for the guests, who had the first opportunity of viewing the new, modern wing with the latest in furnishings and equipment . . . Nearly five hundred attended during the afternoon hours and we are sure by the closing hours the number neared a thousand . . . noticeable the many men guests . . . and all proceeds to be used to purchase additional needed equipment for the wing . . . Auxiliary members did a splendid job of showing guests about the various rooms on the three floors . . . assisted by nurses who explained the technical and medical equipment . . . A treat to see the beautiful rooms . . . a lovely pastel color scheme used throughout with pinks and greens predominating . . . all the furniture in the rooms attractive, yet sturdy and durable . . . handsome tiles and flooring . . . The wallpapers most attractive, especially in the doctors' lounge and fathers' room just off the main lobby . . .

Many ohs and ahs . . . for the modern equipment, just about every device one ever heard of . . . the curved and spacious hallways a delight . . . the sound proof walls and floors will be ideal for patients . . . the nurses chart rooms in the center of the halls to minimize the hundreds of steps nurses take in a day . . . A joy for the young pediatric patients will be the play room at the far end of the third floor looking south . . . gay and cheerful wallpaper, floor covering, and furnishings . . . the $10,000 room given in memory of Helen Yockey by the Salem Zonta Club of which she was a long and active member . . . during the tea hours Zonta Club members assisting in the room . . .

The decor . . . Beautiful bouquets and baskets of Oregon Grape, laurel and ivy combined with acacia and daffodils arranged in the main lobby and in the tea room, which will be used as a lecture room by the medical staff of the hospital . . . The long tea table in the center and covered with an exquisite Italian cutwork cloth bordered in lace and over turquoise satin . . . A stunning centerpiece of white and yellow snapdragons and red anthurium flanked by large, handsome silver candelabras holding yellow tapers . . . The fresh flowers for the bouquets compliments of all the Salem florists . . . the white napkins adorned with tiny gold seals of baby footprints . . . And bouquets . . . to Mrs. Earl C. Latourette and Mrs. William C. Perry, who headed the directorate for the successful affair . . . Mrs. Latourette wearing an oxford grey wool costume suit embellished with moleskin and Mrs. Perry donning a good-looking red crepe gown . . . The receiving line in the foyer against a setting of planters on black wrought iron standards and floral bouquets . . . Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Rex Kimell and Mrs. George S. Hoffman receiving with Miss Lillian McDonald, the hospital superintendent, to whom much of the credit goes for the beautiful new wing . . . she has burned the midnight oil many a night working over the plans for the hospital . . . as well as being

Acacia Chapter to Install Monday

JEFFERSON — New officers of Euclid Chapter, OES presided at the first regular meeting Tuesday night in the Masonic Hall. Heading the chapter are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Swartz, worthy patron and worthy matron, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Borst, associate worthy patron and worthy matron. Introduced Tuesday night were the past worthy matron and patron, Mrs. Mildred Thurston and Irvine Wright.

Plans were announced for the school of instruction here Thursday with Mrs. Louise Irving of Madras, associate grand matron, presiding. A 6:30 o'clock dinner prepared by women of the Past Martons Club, preceded the meeting.

Pre-Ski Party at Coffel's Barn

Co-Ree Club will swing into its winter activities tonight at 8 p.m. with a pre-ski party at Coffel's barn, 635 Glen Creek Drive. All single people from 18 to 35 years of age are invited whether or not they ski. The dress will be general sports wear or ski clothes. Games and dancing will comprise the evening's entertainment.

The ski trip planned for January 23 and 24 to Mt. Hood will be discussed, as will the dance, on Jan. 22 at the Mayflower Hall, featuring a large dance band.

Those who wish to eat a home-cooked dinner should be at the Y. W. C. A. at 6:30 p. m. Transportation to the barn will be furnished.

Hospital Staff Presents Gifts To Home

The Methodist Home was the scene of an informal tea Thursday afternoon when gifts, given to the home by the medical staff and employees of the Oregon State Hospital, were formally presented and dedicated in memory of the late Stella G. Bates (Mrs. Charles E.). Mrs. Bates was a member of the Methodist Home board for several years.

Dr. Dean K. Brooks gave an informal talk in presenting the gifts in behalf of the hospital staff and employees. The gifts, which have been engraved in memory of Mrs. Bates, include a five piece silver tea and coffee service with tray, Westminster floor chimes, a brass planter and candlesticks and a floor lamp.

Mrs. Charles E. Sawyer presented a group of violin selections, accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Goulder. Presiding at the tea urns were Mrs. Willard Cole, superintendent of the Methodist Home, and Mrs. J. H. Klinger, president of the board.

Attending the presentation ceremony and tea were residents of the home, board members and members and friends of the Bates family.

Father and Son Banquet Planned

The DeMolay Mothers Club met at the Masonic Temple Thursday for a noon luncheon and business session. Mrs. E. H. Anderson was chairman of the committee, assisted by Mrs. Paul Baker and Mrs. Ross Harris. Thirty mothers were present for the luncheon meeting.

Plans were discussed for a father and son banquet, the date to be announced later. Mrs. Morse Stewart will serve as general chairman of the banquet. Her committees include Mrs. Emery Wood, publicity; Mrs. R. N. Payne, Mrs. Herman Feitelson, dining room; Mrs. Wood and Mrs. B. A. Martin, tables; Mrs. Francis Colgan and Mrs. Ross Harris, menu; Mrs. Warren Baker, serving; Mrs. Harvey Gibbens, program; Mrs. Dale Jeffries and Mrs. Cecil Hunsaker, decorations.
