

Mighty Hunter With His Moose

The big Canadian moose is included among the numerous big game animals the famous hunter Jim Bond has bagged, as the above photo illustrates. Bond is to appear at the Salem High Auditorium both Monday and Tuesday nights, and will show colored movies along with his narrations. (See story below.)

Bond Opens Two-Night Show At Salem High Auditorium

Jim Bond, the famous big game hunter who has put on his wild-life show over 900 times in various parts of the United States, including 40 in New York City and 55 in Los Angeles, tonight opens the outdoor program at the Salem High School Auditorium.

Bond will appear both tonight and Tuesday night, with the shows starting at eight o'clock. Three colored moving pictures of fishing and hunting in Canada and Alaska are to be shown during the program, which is being sponsored by the Salem Chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America.

Many big game animals will be featured in the films, including the huge Canadian moose, a beast with which the outdoorsman-photographer has had numerous tussles.

"In the fall of the year the mad bull moose is the worst animal that ever walked on four feet," tells Bond. "I have seen them tear up trees just to show themselves how mighty they are; I have seen them fight each other until they could not stand on their feet, all ripped and torn. There are over 50 different and authentic accounts of

Rollin' Along With Jerry Stone

Quite a stunt by Utah State's cagers as they didn't miss a single free throw in a game against Brigham Young the past week. Local fan Bob Claussen chanced on the feat while fooling around with his radio dial. . . We can't recall any other instance of 100 per cent gift shot hitting. Anyhow, quite a rare thing. . .

Ezzard Charles stopped Bob Satterfield with what was called one of the hardest left hooks of E's checked career. From all reports a clean and convincing knockout. . .

EZZARD CHARLES Rocky Can Take It

Longest name in the pro ranks of filling out basketball box forms belongs to a lad named Vanaudenhagen, of the Verboort team. . .

Remember Bill Bowes, Salem's most decorated skier and the lad who missed by a hair of landing on the 1952 Olympic team? Bill's now a geologist in Utah and hasn't much time for skiing anymore. . .

There have been some great revelations this weekend about Oregon State's soaring Halbrook. Firstly, maybe life may put the hex on Swede with that spread in the current issue. . .

The new Serra Catholic school, soon to arise here, may one day take the place of Sacred Heart in the Capitol League. That could come about if Sacred Heart, as reported, reverts back to an all-girl status in a few years. . .

Meanwhile the Cardinals of Sacred Heart will strive to fashion some athletic glory in their numbered days. It's sad to contemplate their eventual departure from the picture, for Cardinals teams have always been highly respected in this valley area. . .

Eastern Stars Top Wests 20-9 in Pro Bowl Contest

Unbeaten List Sliced in College Cage Ranks

Eight Boast Clean Records

Kentucky, Duquesne Still Riding High

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK (AP) — The list of the nation's unbeaten college basketball teams was down to eight Sunday with two of them, Kentucky and Duquesne, still swinging along at the top of the parade and no storm signals in sight.

In addition to Kentucky (11-0), the nation's No. 1 ranking team in the latest Associated Press poll, and Duquesne (15-0), rated second, the undefeated group includes Western Kentucky (16-0), No. 5, and unranked Connecticut (14-0) among the major court outfits.

The select company is completed by Lawrence Tech (13-0), Norwich, Vt. (11-0), Erskine (9-0) and Eastern Carolina (7-0).

Holy Cross and George Washington slipped from the unbeaten group last week with the Crusaders losing to Notre Dame by a lopsided margin and the Colonials dropping a seven-pointer to Maryland.

Holy Cross currently is ranked sixth and George Washington a notch lower.

There was nothing in Saturday's results that would indicate any trouble for the other top 10 teams in this week's poll. It is possible, however, that Duquesne's towering Dukes will move in closer on Adolph Rupp's Kentucky boys.

The Dukes beat 13th ranked Niagara 61-53 in one of their toughest assignments of the campaign while Kentucky was humbling Tulane 94-43 in a Southeastern Conference affair on Saturday.

Indiana's third-ranked Hoosiers (11-1), defending NCAA titlists, continued to set a hot pace in the Big Ten Conference with a 90-74 victory over Wisconsin. The victory gave Indiana a 5-0 conference record.

Fourth-ranked Oklahoma Aggies, with only a one-point defeat by Minnesota to spoil a 17-game campaign, hung up their second Missouri Valley Conference victory with a 46-40 victory over Tulsa.

Western Kentucky (16-0) more than justified its fifth place ranking with a team record 122-78 victory over the Hilltoppers' arch rivals, Eastern Kentucky.

Crusaders Bounce Back
Holy Cross (12-1), bounced back into the victory column with a 103-63 win over the touring Belmont Abbey team of North Carolina. George Washington (11-1) was idle but Oklahoma City, No. 8 and also 11-1, easily whipped Murray State of Kentucky 72-43.

Duke (11-4), No. 9 and Minnesota (9-2), No. 10, both won in rounding out the performances of the top 10. Duke beat the McCrary Eagles, an independent team, 69-61, but under NCAA rules the game will not go into the records. Minnesota nosed out Iowa, 59-55.

Two of the second 10 met defeat and two others, Rice, No. 15, and Idaho, No. 20, were idle.

Wichita and Kansas, heading the second division, came through unscathed. Wichita won from Detroit, 91-61, and Kansas edged Kansas State 65-62.

Niagara, No. 13, lost to Duquesne, Seattle, No. 14, beat St. Mary's twice, 73-60 and 103-71. Louisiana State No. 16, downed Tennessee 75-62; Dayton, No. 17, dropped an 82-58 decision to LaSalle; Colorado A & M, No. 18, topped New Mexico 67-60, and Illinois, No. 19, beat Ohio State 82-78.

Gonzales Beats Aussie Netman

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Dick (Pancho) Gonzales, the rangy Californian with the jet serve, defeated Frank Sedgman, 11-9, Sunday for his fourth straight tournament victory of the touring Jack Kramer tennis troupe.

Gonzales ran his string of winning matches to eight and extended his margin over Sedgman on the tour to 5-2.

The matches were played under "Kramer rules," each set consisting of eight games instead of the regulation six.

The Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Monday, Jan. 18, 1954

Viks to Host Lebanon . . . More Hot Cage Action Slated for This Week

Highlighted by the inauguration of the new Dallas High Gym on Monday night, the valley's prep basketballers add another full assortment of games to their schedules early this week.

Dallas Opens Gym Tonight; Woodburn Foe

DALLAS (Special) — Although the 2,000 capacity premises may not be filled for the occasion, a large crowd is nonetheless expected for the opening of Dallas High's new basketball gym here Monday night.

Coach Gordy Kunke's Dallas Dragons are to play the Woodburn Bulldogs in the opening game. But Coach Ken Jacobsen's Bee team will have the honor of playing the first game in the gym, against Woodburn's Bees in the preliminary at 6:45 o'clock. The varsity clash follows.

The game will be a counting Willamette Valley League mix. Originally Kunke's Dragons were scheduled against Mentor Marshall Barbour's Woodburns on Tuesday night. But another local civic occasion on Tuesday brought about the shift to the Monday opener.

Duck Coaches To Talk Here

This morning's meeting of the Salem Breakfast Club will have a Duckish flavor as two members of the University of Oregon coaching staff fill the role of speakers.

Bill Borchert, whose Webfoots currently share the lead in the Northern Division race, will discuss the UO cage situation and Track Mentor Bill Bowerman also is to make some remarks.

Borchert also will show a basketball film.

Malayan, American Win In Badminton Tourney

TORONTO (AP) — A Malayan law student and an American physical education instructor Sunday won the major trophies of the Stratgowan 10th annual International Invitation badminton tournament.

Eddie Choong of Penang, Malaya, acclaimed one of the world's top players, defeated Canadian champion Don Smythe of Toronto, 15-11, 15-4, to capture the men's seeded singles trophy.

Peg Varner, Mount Holyoke, Mass., physical ed instructor, downed Marjorie Shedd, Canadian champion, 11-8, 11-6 for the women's title.

CANNOLI REINSTATED

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — Nick Cannuli, suspended from baseball after taking unceremonious leave from Lewiston of the Western International League last June, has been reinstated, minor league's president George Trautman informed Lewiston Saturday.

When Intent won the San Juan Capistrano Handicap last spring it was his second straight victory in the race.

Spring Can't Be Far Away

CHICAGO—Fourteen American League umpires directed by league president Will Harridge and Cal Hubbard, umpire supervisor, indulge in a "refresher course" as two-day meeting opened.

Front row, kneeling (left to right), Ed Hurley, American League publicist Earl Hilligan, Cal Hubbard and Bill Summers. Second row, (left to right), Will Harridge, Joe Paparella, Bill McGowan and John Stevens. Back row (left to right), Charley Berry, Bill Grieve, Jim Honochick, Bill McKinley, Ed Rommel, Larry Napp, Grover Froese, (partly hidden), Hank Soar and John Flaherty. (AP Wirephoto to The Statesman).

Olson to Meet Rindone In Non-Title Contest

NEW YORK (AP) — Middleweight champion Bobo Olson, idle since he won the title by drubbing Randy Turpin, Oct. 21, meets Joe Rindone Saturday at San Francisco in a non-title bout.

The appearance on the Saturday night fight (ABC-TV) marks the first step in Olson's early preparations for his defense against welter champ Kid Gavilan in Chicago, April 2.

Test Due

BOBO OLSON Date With Rindone

Cal Unbeaten In South Race

LOS ANGELES (AP) — UCLA's Bruins finally won a game in the Pacific Coast Conference Southwestern Division basketball race, while the California Bears have failed to lose one in four starts.

The Bruins pre-season favorites and nationally ranked until conference play started, nabbed their first game in four outings Saturday night, 81-63, from the Southern California Trojans. Previously UCLA had been dumped twice by California and once by Troy.

California remained unbeaten in league play by smacking Stanford twice in as many nights, winning 55-50 Saturday night after a hot second half.

Wreck Injures Hoop Players

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — Seven members of Arkansas Tech's unbeaten basketball squad and two others were injured near Morrilton, Ark., Sunday when the station wagon in which they were riding overturned after two rear tires blew out.

Coach Sam Hindsman said Billy E. Baker, 19, forward, Pottsville, is in critical condition with a brain injury. Three others suffered fractures.

Russians Take Skating Title

SAPPORO, Japan (AP) — Flashy Boris Shilkov, the kingpin of a team of crack Russian skaters, won the world speed skating championship Sunday over competitors from six nations.

The distance race was the wind-up of a two-day four-race grind that saw the six-man Russian team take the first three places in the 19-skater field. The United States did not compete.

Veteran Harrison Ekes Win in Crosby Tournament

By RUSS NEWLAND
PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Drawing "Dutch" Harrison, a grizzled veteran of the fairways, grazed a two over par seven on the final hole Sunday but still won the $10,000 Bing Crosby pro-amateur golf championship tournament with a 54 hole total of 210.

He had rounds of 71-68-71. The win was worth $2,000 to him.

Harrison, known as the Arkansas Traveler and now playing professional at Ardmore, Okla., beat out Jimmy Demaret by a single stroke. Demaret had taken the lead earlier with a 211, from rounds of 73-68-70. His second place finish was good for $1,250.

Harrison opened the firing Sunday with a two stroke lead, and day with a two stroke lead. He was trading blows with hardy a worry when the 540 yard finishing hole of the famed Pebble Beach links turned his peaceful progress into turmoil.

Denver Slatmen Win

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Denver University's ski team grabbed an early lead, then swept away all challengers Sunday to win a regional intercollegiate ski meet with 1,538.52 points.

Colorado University was runner-up with 1,447.84 points. Third was Wyoming, 1,389.70 points; Western State, fourth with 1,300.90; Utah 1,295.85 points; Colorado Mines 1,260.29; and Colorado A & M 1,202.04.

Defense Big Item in Tilt

Groza's Toe Clicks; Bednarik Standout

By BOB MYERS
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Defensive giants of the Eastern All Stars crashed the Western squad of the National Football League Sunday and rolled on to a 20 to 9 victory in the fourth annual Pro Bowl game.

Place-kicking artist Lou Groza of Cleveland's Browns turned two enemy fumbles into a pair of field goals after intercepting a 230-pound Philadelphia linebacker, intercepted a pass and charged 24 yards for a touchdown that cinched the game of the Easterners.

The triumph was the first for Cleveland's master coach, Paul Brown, in eight cracks at Buddy Parker of the league champion Detroit Lions.

Lou the Toe's field goals, booted from 11 and 25 yards out, followed fumbles in the first and third periods by fullback Joe Perry of the San Francisco 49ers. In each case Perry surrendered the ball immediately on impact with the giant Eastern linemen.

The field goals put the East into a 6-2 lead and Bednarik's mighty roar after intercepting a Bobby Layne pass made it 13-2.

The West pulled up to 13-9 on a 16-yard run by Perry, with the challenge ended soon after when Cleveland's Ray Renfro ran 25 yards to ice the game.

44,214 Watch
A crowd of 44,214 fans gathered under leaden skies for the nationally televised charity game.

Coach Parker used Layne, his own quarterback, and Norman Van Brocklin of the Los Angeles Rams exclusively until just before the end of the third quarter.

The crowd began to howl for the West's third quarterback, Y. A. Tittle of the San Francisco 49ers. The chant developed into a roar when Layne was smeared 10 yards in two plays back to his own 10 and then threw the pass that fell into Bednarik's eager arms.

Tittle was then sent into the game and the West began to wake up. It was a 49er group which accounted for the lone Western touchdown.

Halfback Hugh McElhenry led off in the fourth quarter with a 36-yard burst to the East's 27. Tittle hit end Gordy Soltau for 11, and then Perry swept the right end for the touchdown.

Tittle stayed in until the game ended, but the West's hopes were completely sunk when Renfro went on his scoring dash.

The West's two points came as Cleveland quarterback Otto Graham was tackled in the end zone by Don Kindt of the Chicago Bears. The East had just stopped a touchdown drive on its own goal line.

Bednarik Gets Trophy
Bednarik was voted the game's outstanding player and will receive the George Halas trophy.

Graham played all the first half and alternated with Bobby Thomson of the Philadelphia Eagles during the second. Each team was able to muster only 114 yards running and passing during the first two quarters. The West made 141 yards to 86 on the ground and 161 to 140 in the air for the entire game.

Graham completed nine of 16 pass attempts for 97 yards and Thomson four of six for 43. Tittle completed seven out of 14 for 77 yards. Van Brocklin eight of 11 for 57, and Layne four of eight for 29.

The East won the inaugural Pro Bowl game in 1951 but lost the next two.

West scoring—Touchdown, Perry; Conversion Walker; Safety (Graham tackled in end zone by Kindt).

East scoring—Touchdowns, Bednarik, Renfro; Field goals, Groza 2; Conversions, Groza 2.

Interwoven Sox

FOR ALEX JONES 121 N. High
ARROW TIES AND SHIRTS
Shryock's Men's Wear
CAPITOL SHOPPING CENTER