Flags Presented To New School

The teaching of Americanism in the public schools has been one of the main projects for American Legion Auxiliary members and it was the furthering of this project which on Thursday took Mrs. T. J. Brabec, president of Capital Unit of the auxiliary, and Mrs. Mem Pearce, secretary to the new Cummings Grade School in the Keizer district. The purpose of the meeting was presenting an American flag and its holder to each of the ten rooms in the school building.

Mrs. Carmalite Weddle, Americanism chairman of the unit and principal of the Keizer school, had planned an appropriate program for the occasion. In each room a monitor pupil led the flag and gave a proper acceptance speech. Pupils gave readings and sang patriotic songs.

Chapter Holds Initiation

The home of Mrs. Bernard Mainwaring, 2540 Skopel Ave., was the scene of the first BIL initiation ceremony of Chapter CQ, PEO Sisterhood. A covered dish dinner preceded the initiation.

Justice William C. Perry and John Muir directed the initiation ceremony with I. T. Kvali as master of ceremonies. Assisting in the initiation were C. M. Martin, G. W. Bruce and Wayne Gill.

Initiated during the ceremony were Bernard Mainwaring, Kenneth Cole, Mike Forbes, Homer Heaton and Bill Bender.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE
Q. Who should lead the procession into the dining room when a dinner is being given in honor of a man and wife?
A. The host or hostess with the wife or the husband of the honored couple; the other two next.

Q. What should a person do when he has completed introducing two persons?
A. It would be nice, if possible, to draw the new acquaintances into conversation by introducing some subject of mutual interest.

Q. Is it correct to use a fork to place jelly on bread?
A. No; the knife should be used for this purpose.

Legion Groups Entertained by Women's Post

American Legion Post 149 was host to representatives of other Legion Posts Friday night during its monthly business meeting held at the Legion Club. Posts and Auxiliaries represented were the Gold Star Post, Aumsville, Kingwood Post, Salem Post 136, Capitol Post 9 of Salem, Albert Reeves Post, Silverton, and Stayton American Legion, Stayton.

Miss Alberta Shoemaker reported on child welfare, telling of the toy library project for the School for the Blind.

Mrs. Velma Davis, community service chairman, advised the Post is registered with Red Cross for disaster relief work, and with the public health service for hours of work to be donated by volunteer members. A tree planting project, in memory to I. N. Bacon was announced.

Speakers for the evening were District 2 Commander H. B. Lichtenhaler, who presented a report on the sale of rehabilitation stamps, proceeds from such sales remaining within the state of Oregon.

District 2 Vice-Commander John Muir was the other speaker, giving a brief outline on child welfare. Entertainment was furnished by the Salem Civic Players under the direction of Miss Beulah Graham.

Refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Florence Cameron, chairman, assisted by Miss Marjorie Howard, Mrs. Harriett Belcher, Mrs. Charles Klopp, and Mrs. Velma Davis.

The next meeting will be a social at the home of Mrs. Sylvia Kraps, 550 N. Summer St. on Friday, February 5 at 8 p.m.

The Sodality dance committee of Mt. Angel will sponsor a dance Thursday night at the Mt. Angel Auditorium between 9 and 12 o'clock. Buddy Kyle's sextette orchestra has been engaged to play for the semi-formal affair. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Special map of your town. Telephone lines above and below the streets of your community are charted on special maps. When delicate instruments detect trouble, these maps help locate buried cables, conduits, manholes and the like . . . and repair crews can get on the job fast. Large cities need thousands of these maps. And they're an important part of the planning that has helped us bring you good service, reliable service, at the lowest possible cost. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.
