

Bearcats Defeat Pioneers Weeks Whip Cavemen 58-44

Locals Rally For 74-67 Win

Teams Slate Battle At Portland Tonight

By TOM YATES
 Statesman Sports Writer

Hustling Dave Gray led a galaxy of Willamette stars to a brilliant 74 to 67 comeback victory over the Lewis and Clark Pioneers last night in the Bearcats' gym. The Northwest Conference win established the front running 'Cats even more securely in the leader's spot with a 5-1 record.

The Pioneers led by as much as 15 points in the third period over the disorganized Methodists before Coach John Lewis found a combination that not only rolled on offense but also sparked on defense. Lewis and Clark held leads of 41 to 32 and 57 to 50 at the end of the second and third periods respectively, but the visitors could tally but 10 points in the final ten minutes to Willamette's 24.

The turning point in the tussle, which was watched by about 2,000 frenzied fans, came late in the third stanza. When Captain Dick Hoy converted a free toss with the local cause appeared hopeless. But 'twasn't so, for with four and a half minutes remaining Gray drove in for a fast break layup on a pass from Jerry McCallister to tie the count at 65-61. One minute later Jack Bishop hooked in a rebound to give the winners their first lead since the opening quarter. Gray popped in a field goal and two free throws, McCallister a gift toss, and Neal Causby a rebound goal to give Willamette a 74 to 65 lead before the Pioneers could tally their final pair of points in the last minute.

The mix, which saw the scoring come in spurts, started out slowly, had three ties and eight lead changes before Coach Eldon Fix's visiting quint grabbed the lead for what looked like permanent possession with six minutes played, 13 to 11. Lewis and Clark led at the end of the first 20 to 16.

The late starting Bearcats definitely had their share of top flight performances. Besides Gray and his great clutch play, Bishop shone as a backboard star against the rugged Pioneers, and dependable Tom Gooding kept pushing home his hook shot even when the rest of his mates were unable to do anything right.

Ken Servas, Lewis and Clark's all-time scoring champ, poured through 23 points to top the scorers. Ken tallied 12 in the third quarter. Gooding was close behind as he racked up 22, while McCallister tallied 12 and Gray 11. Gary Jackson scored 13 for the losers, 11 in the first quarter.

In the Frosh prelim Ken Hotelling led a well balanced Bearkitten attack with 14 points as the WU's won 78 to 58. The varsity performers go at it again tonight at 8:15 in the L & C gym, preceded by another frosh mix.

Quints Clash Again Tonight

Salem Win Sparked By Knapp, Domogalla

By NORM LUTHER
 Statesman Sports Writer

Coming from behind a 26-25 halftime deficit, Salem High's fired-up Vikings turned on the speed in the second half and evened to upset a highly-regarded Grants Pass outfit, 58-44, in the Vik Villa.

Two quints will play again tonight at 8:00 in the Salem High School gymnasium.

Gordy Domogalla hit true with a jump shot with about a minute played in the third period to get a 27-27 tie and give Coach Harold Hauk's charges a lead they never relinquished although they were in danger until the final buzzer.

The Vix took a quick 6-0 lead at the outset of the first quarter But the Cavemen caught fire in the second quarter and finally caught the home-town-ers at 17-11 when Don James sank a free toss. The Vix took a small lead again but Gene Barber's field loss just before halftime gave the southern Oregon crew a slim 26-25 advantage at the half.

After Domogalla gave the Sals a permanent lead at 29-27, the Vix maintained a narrow margin which ended with the count 43-29. Jim Knapp contributed 8 and Domogalla 30 to the Hauken's third canto total as they repeatedly scored on fast breaks and jump shots from their guard positions.

Cavemen's Shooting Off
 Coach Ray Davis's Cavemen, conquerors of Marshfield in one of a two-game series, hit a frigid streak in the fourth chapter as they hooped but one of 13 field tries. Still, the home clan had to wait until the last two minutes to pull away from the visitors as they, too, were on the cold side until they hit their final spear of nine markers after the Cavemen had crept up to a 49-44 deficit.

Knapp and Domogalla, the two scrappy guards, accounted for more than half of Salem's total as they pumped 22 and 17, respectively. Reserve forward Gene Barber led the Cavemen cause with 14.

The game's difference came in the shooting percentage as the Vix kicked 18 of 53 tries for a .340 mark while the visitors hit a poor .246 percentage on 15 of 61 attempts.

In the evening's prelim, Coach Lee Gustafson's Salem JV's downed the Englewood E. U. B. team of the YMCA Church League, 60-47. Jim Young of E. U. B. led scorers with 17. Ken Carl was high for the JV's with 11.

Wolves Down Portland State Crew, 62-57

MONMOUTH (Special) - The Oregon College of Education Wolves moved into a percentage point hold on second place in the Oregon Collegiate Conference with a 62 to 57 league win over Portland State here Friday night.

A torrid third period scoring burst by Bobby Frantz overcame a 37 to 28 PSC halftime lead, and put the Wolves up 44 to 43. OCE tallied 18 points in that third stanza to Portland's six, and Frantz got 14 of them.

Big factor in the Oregon College second half comeback was the rugged backboard play of Frank Grove, who took command of the rebounds in the third and fourth quarters. In the total point column, the two centers dominated the statistics. Don Porter, 65 Viking pivot man, poured through 32 tallies to continue his rugged pace for any league members who might feel they can outscore him.

Frantz topped OCE with a terrific 29. Portland outgunned the Wolves from the floor 22 to 19, but the winners racked up 24 free throws to 11 for the Vikings. Same teams meet again tonight.

Cascade Licks SBA Cavemen

CASCADE HIGH SCHOOL (Special) - The Cascade Cougars moved one game above 500 percentage with a 61 to 47 Capital League win over the Salem Bible Academy here last night. The Cougars, who have won four of seven league games, led all the way. The scores at the rest stops were, 13-8, 27-20, and 42-35.

Ed Sproul of Cascade was the game's leading scorer with 15 tallies. Teammate Bill Brown racked up 13. Harold Allister and Virgil Fadenrecht each had 10 for the Crusaders. The JV prelim was won by SBA, 33 to 25.

Trojans Snap Bears' String

BERKELEY, Calif. (Special) - The University of Southern California Trojans knocked the California Bears out of the undefeated class in the Southern Division Pacific Coast Conference basketball game, 53-49, Friday night.

The Trojans, in command practically all the way, held a 32-21 halftime lead.

LOS ANGELES (Special) - UCLA staged a driving second half rally and swamped the Stanford Indians in a free scoring basketball game Friday night, 92-73.

Jefferson Slaps Pirates 60-46
 GATES (Special) - The Jefferson Lions held onto at least a tie for third spot in the Marion B League race with a 60 to 46 victory over Gates' Pirates here Friday night. The Pirates were right in the thick of things up to the final quarter when they were forced to try to run with the Jeffs in order to overcome a 44 to 40 third period deficit. The Lions held two point leads at the first two stops, 12-10 and 26-24.

Claude Meyers was red hot for the winners as he poured in 27 points to lead the scorers. Herb Romey topped Gates with 17. There was no JV game.

Sci0 Decisions Detroit, 61-43

DETROIT (Special) - The Sci0 Loggers posted their ninth win of the Marion County B League case class Friday night as Gordy O'Reilly tossed in 24 points to lead them to a 61-43 verdict over the Detroit Cougars. A big second half win for the Loggers after the Sci0 crew held a 16-10 margin at the end of a low-scoring first half.

Gerald Vickers topped the Detroit pointmaking with 13. Sci0 also won the JV encounter 52-33.

Sacred Heart Capitol Pacer

STAYTON (Special) - Leo GrayJacques' Sacred Heart Cardinals broke into undisputed possession of the lead in the Capitol League basketball race Friday night as they topped Joe Boyle's Stayton Eagles 56-51 in a close contest. It was the sixth loop win in seven tries for the Cardinals and the loss dropped the Eagles from a share of the top spot.

Guard Vince Matt was the big scoring gun for Sacred Heart with a 21-point evening and Forward Jim Moriarty helped with 12 markers. Stayton led 15-13 at the end of the first period, but the Cardinals jumped ahead 29-25 at the half and held a 42-33 margin at the close of the third quarter. Darrell Gohl's 15 points and Dave Neitling's 13 were top for Stayton. The JV game was won by Stayton 39-31.

3 Men Share Phoenix Links Tournery Lead

PHOENIX, Ariz. (Special) - Australian Peter Thomson, Canada's Stan Leonard and Cary Middlecoff of Tennessee led another assault on par and tied for the lead at 133 strokes Friday at the end of the second round of the $10,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament.

Leonard, 38-year-old veteran from Vancouver, B. C., tied the competitive course record at the Phoenix Country Club with a 63, eight under par for the 36-35-71 test.

Thomson, 24, former Australian Open champion and runner-up to Ben Hogan for the British Open title last summer, shot 69 in a round that produced a 100-yard wedge shot for an eagle two.

Middlecoff, 32-year-old Memphis player, came in with a 65 late in the day to bring on the three-way tie.

Manan Close
 One stroke behind the leaders was a happy young man from Tulsa, Okla., Bob Inman. The 136-pounder, wielding a red-hot putter on a course where he broke in as a caddy 12 years ago, shot a 65 for 134.

Jack Harden of El Paso, Tex., the first round co-leader with Thomson, fell back with a par 71 to tie at 135 with Johnny Weitzel of Hershey, Pa., who shot a 69.

Players with scores of 145 and under qualified for the final two rounds.

Some of the pre-tournament favorites failed to gain ground. Twentieth winner Lloyd Mangrum of Niles, Ill., with a 71, barely qualified with 144.

Another two-time winner, Jimmy Demaret of Klamath Lake, N. Y., after his second 72, indicated he might withdraw Saturday.

Chisox Boast 'Fastest Outfield' After Trade

NEW YORK (Special) - The Baltimore Orioles and Chicago White Sox pulled a four-man baseball trade Friday.

Baltimore gave up centerfielder Johnny Groh and utility infielder Johnny Ligon to the White Sox for infielder Neal Berry and outfielder Sam Mele.

General Manager Art Ehlers of the Orioles said it was a straight swap with no cash involved. General Manager Frank Lane of Chicago said it gives the Sox the "fastest outfield in the American League."

The day's major signings were Andy Paiko, Milwaukee outfielder who went to the Braves from Brooklyn last year, and Billy Cox, flashy Brooklyn third baseman.

Both got raises. Paiko signed for a reported $30,000. Cox is said to have received a $2,000 raise with a $19,000 contract.

Rival Stopped By Giardello

NEW YORK (Special) - Joey Giardello, never known as a great puncher, dropped Walter Cartier three times in the first round Friday night to win on an automatic technical knockout in 2-48 of their middleweight bout at Madison Square Garden.

Giardello weighed 157½, Cartier 161 pounds.

Referre Harry Kessler stopped the fight after the third knockdown in the round. Under New York State rules he had no choice.

Halbrook Hits 31 for State

OSC Near Top Spot; Second Mix Tonight

CORVALLIS, Ore. (Special) - The Oregon State Beavers led all the way as they easily defeated Washington State 65-41 in a slow Northern Division basketball game Friday night.

Oregon State's Wade "Swede" Halbrook, who at 7-foot-3 is the nation's tallest college player, led the scoring with 31 points.

The Washington State Cougars had trouble with their shooting and made only one field goal in 17 tries during the first quarter. Oregon State scored five points in the first three minutes before WSC hit the scoreboard on a free throw by Bill Rehder.

Sinking eight of 19 attempted field goals, Oregon State had a 20-6 lead as the first quarter ended.

The second quarter saw the Cougars hold their own for the only time in the game. They outscored the Beavers 11-10. But Oregon State was ahead 30-17 when the period ended. Rehder and his companion forward Ron Bennick led the WSC attack. Bennick made nine points in the first half and finished the game with 18, high for his team. Rehder's total was 14.

First Five Busy
 OSC Coach Slats Gill played his starting lineup of Tex Whiteman, Jay Dean, Halbrook, Reggie Halligan and John Jarboe most of the game. Whiteman had 14 points and Dean got seven. Both turned in good backboard games.

Howard McCants, the 6-foot-9 Cougar center, did not get a field goal until late in the third quarter. He finished with a total of only seven points.

Oregon State's longest lead in the first half was 17 points. Throughout the last half, OSC led more than 20 points all the way.

In the final period Gill cleared the bench, using every player except Ron Fundingsland who injured his knee a week ago. Fundingsland is expected to be ready to play when the two teams complete their series here Saturday night.

Cameron Signs With Steelers

LOS ANGELES (Special) - Paul Cameron, the UCLA all-America half-back, Friday signed a contract with the National Football League Pittsburgh Steelers.

He and another all-American, Notre Dame's Johnny Lattner, came into the Steelers' fold Thursday.

Cameron declined to discuss contract salary, saying he'd leave that to the Steelers.
