Idaho Defense Proves Too Tough for UOs

MOSCOW, Idaho (#) - Idaho's Vandals, scoring when they needed to, put an airtight net around the Oregon Ducks to regain some of their Northern Division prestige with a 68-54 basketball victory Friday night.

The Vandals showed superb ball handling as they built up a 16-8 first quarter lead over the Ducks who had been tied for the Pacific Coast Conference Northern Division lead.

The Webfoots managed but one field goal during the first quarter, and their shooting average for the game was probably their worst of the season. Although usually hitting on about 40 per cent of their tries from the field, the Ducks
