SILVERTON—Silverton Junior Women's club members have gathered more than 10,000 stamps of special issues for permanently disabled veterans. Recently another club, gathering less than 3,000, received national recognition. The young women report they are fortunate in receiving a gift from Rholin Cooley of Cooley Iris Gardens, his covers which contain hundreds of stamps of the commemorative type as well as from many foreign countries. Four of the club members are seen here assorting these stamps. Left to right are Mrs. Milton Baum, Mrs. Eugene Durschmidt, Mrs. Ronald Syron and Mrs. Charles Piroulek. Miss Taylor, Mr. Gritton Married

At a nuptial mass at St. Vincent's dePaul Catholic Church Saturday morning Miss Rosemary Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Helen B. Taylor, became the bride of Robert Ward Gritton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gritton. The Rev. John Reedy officiated at the 10:30 o'clock service. Wayne Meusey was the soloist and played the wedding music. Pink snapdragons and potted hyacinths decorated the altar.

James Taylor gave his hister in marriage. For her wedding she wore a gown of nylon net with wide lace edging the skirt and train. The bodice was of lace with high neckline and long sleeves. A tiara of seed pearls held in place her fingertip veil. She carried a rosary, a gift of the bride-groom, and a white satin Bible topped with an orchid.

Mrs. Melvin Marker, the bride's sister, was the honor matron. She wore a pink taffeta dress with pink hat and hoed and carried a colonial nosegay of pink carnations and roses. Bridesmaids were Mrs. D. E. Otjen, the groom's sister, and Mrs. James Taylor, who wore pink taffeta dresses with matching hats and shoes. They also carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations and roses.

Richard Kirchmayer of Portland, uncle of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Harold Hill and Melvin Marker. Ushers were Larry Thompson and David Garret.

Breakfast, Reception Follow
Mrs. Taylor wore a violet afternoon dress with pink accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Gritton wore a black dress and pink accessories with corsage of pink roses.

The newlyweds were feted at a wedding breakfast in the Camellia Room of the Senator Hotel. Reception was held in the afternoon in the Capital Room of the hotel. Mrs. Walter Moore, the groom's aunt, cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Harold Hill and Mrs. Richard Kirchmayer. Assisting were Mrs. D. E. Otjen and Mrs. James Taylor.

The couple are driving south on their wedding trip and will attend the Mardi Gras in New Orleans. For traveling the new Mrs. Gritton donned a two-piece pink dress with white topper and navy blue accessories. After April 1 the couple will be at home in Salem at 2387 Laurel St.

Miss Seeber Tells Plans For Rites

Miss Barbara Seeber, who will be married to Roy Van Horn on Sunday, March 7, has announced plans for their wedding. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Hasbrook and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Van Horn of Canyonville. The ceremony will take place at St. Mark's Lutheran Church with the Rev. Mark A. Getzendaner officiating at the 3 o'clock rites. The bride-elect's uncle and aunt, Duane Ertsgaard and Mrs. Lyle Ertsgaard, will be the soloists. Prof. Maurice Brennen will be the organist. Lighting the candles will be Miss Seeber's cousins, John and Richard Dahlager.

Miss Marcia Seeber will be her sister's honor maid and the bridesmaids include Mrs. Robert Brandt and Mrs. Bill Van Horn. Susan Ertsgaard will be the flower girl and Paul Ertsgaard the ring bearer.

Bill Van Horn will serve as his brother's best man. Seating the guests will be David Burks and Milan Foster.

A reception will follow in the church parlors.
