Sanders is heading the hostess committee, assisted by Mrs. Phillip W. Allison, Mrs. Lynn F. Cronmiller, Mrs. Wayne W. Gordon, Mrs. R. D. Paris and Miss Virginia Nowlen.

Miss Gammon Becomes Bride Of Robert Purdy on Saturday

Exchanging their vows at an 8 o'clock ceremony Saturday night at the First Baptist Church were Miss Lavurne Gammon, daughter of Mrs. Carl Gammon, and Robert E. Purdy, son of Mrs. J. Edgar Purdy. Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson officiated at the nuptials before a setting of all white flowers and candles.

Miss Cecelia Freeby was the soloist and Gerard C. Brown the violinist with Mrs. John Schmidt Jr., the organist.

For her wedding the attractive brunette bride chose a gown of French imported lace combined with white faille. The full lace skirt was fashioned with a scalloped redingote with a faille inset of sunburst pleats. The stand-up collar and neckline were also scalloped and the sleeves were long. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught to a half crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of staphanotis centered with an orchid. Carl Kliever of Medford gave his sister-in-law in marriage.

Walk Before the Bride

Four attendants preceded the bride to the altar. Mrs. Evelyn Bartlett, the honor matron, wore a rose pink faille taffeta frock designed with a scalloped redingote style skirt with inset of sunburst pleats. The bodice was made with a V neckline and short sleeves. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Polales, Miss Darlene Engdahl and Miss Phyllis Ahalt, wore identically styled frocks only of American Beauty faille taffeta. They all carried nosegays of nylon net and carnations in shades of pink and American Beauty.

James T. Purdy of Seattle stood with his brother as best man. Ushers were Pete Reding, Wayne Rawlings, John Perkins, Ray Davis and Robert Messing.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gammon chose a slate blue crepe gown with pink accessories and corsage of pink camellias combined with soft pearl loops. Mrs. Purdy attended her son's marriage in a navy blue lace gown with corsage of pink carnations.

Reception Follows

The newlyweds greeted the guests at a reception in the fireplace room. Pouring were two sisters of the bride, Mrs. Gerard C. Brown and Mrs. Carl Kliever of Medford. Cutting the cake were Mrs. George Purdy of Portland, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Lester Knipps of Lakeside, aunt of the bride. Assisting were the Misses Carolyn Mishler, Christine Harada, Jo Ann and Marcia Smith, Florabelle Gordon, Sophia Polales, Bonnie Bishop and Mrs. Ellis Sanders. A string quartet played throughout the reception.

After a honeymoon trip to Southern California the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 2142 N. Commercial St. For traveling the new Mrs. Purdy donned a navy blue and white suit with navy accessories and a pink coat.

St. Helena's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will meet in the fireplace room of the church Tuesday night at 8 p. m. The hostess committee includes Mrs. Donald E. Ratliff, Mrs. John A. Dyke, Mrs. Francis W. Bealey and Mrs. J. H. Solomon.
