Gibson Home Setting for Nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Chapler are announcing the carriage of their daughter, Doris Adelle, to Dr. George M. Stasney of Eugene, which was quietly solemnized on Saturday, March 13 before members of the immediate families.

The couple exchanged their vows at the home of the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Gibson, on Orchard Heights Road. The Rev. Howard C. Stover officiated at the 3 o'clock rites before a setting of pink camellias and carnations.

For her wedding the attractive, brunette bride chose a grey suit with grey lizard accessories and a grey straw hat with white trim. Her flowers were camellias and violets. When the newlyweds departed on their honeymoon trip the bride donned a black top coat with her ensemble.

Mrs. Louis L. Schneider of Eugene was the bride's only attendant. She wore a black velvet suit with pink hat and corsage of pink camellias. Dr. Louis L. Schneider stood with the groom as best man.

A reception followed the nuptials. Mrs. Duane Gibson presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. John Jern cut the bride's cake.

After a month's wedding trip to San Francisco, Las Vegas and the Southern States, the newlyweds will be at home in Eugene at 1510 West 11th St.

Leslie Circles to Be Entertained

The two afternoon circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Leslie Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 12:30 for a luncheon at the home of Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, 833 N. Commercial with Mrs. T. O. Adams and Mrs. J. S. Murray assisting hostesses. Following the luncheon Mrs. N. F. Anderson will read a few of her original poems.

The two circles will then meet in separate rooms for business sessions and a devotional period with Mrs. Edwin Thorne leading this period for the Edna Holder Circle and Mrs. T. D. Trick for the Evelyn De Vries Circle.

The Salem Movie Club will meet for a covered dish dinner Tuesday night in the auditorium back of the Salem Memorial Hospital at 6:30 p.m. Roy and Earl Groh will show some of their 16mm movies during the evening.

Open House Will Precede Meeting

An open house preceding the regular meeting of the Garfield Mothers and Dads Club will be held Tuesday night between 7 and 8 p.m. The purpose of the open house is for parents to view the science exhibits which the children have prepared this year.

The regular meeting will be held at 8 p.m. with Dr. Ray Pinson and Dr. Elmer Dorr presenting a program on general foot health. A short film, "Chiropraxy as a Career," will be shown as background material for the presentation.

Following the meeting there will be a general food sale of cake, pie, cookies or candy in the cafeteria. All parents are asked to participate in this project and make food contributions to be sold. The second grade mothers will be hostesses with Mrs. Charles Derthick and Mrs. J. J. Ferder, room mothers, as chairmen.

Faculty Club At Schulzes

The home of Mrs. Daniel H. Schulze on Merdel Avenue will be the scene of the March meeting of the Willamette University Faculty Women's Club on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

In the absence of Mrs. Charles Johnson, president, who is out-of-town, Mrs. John Lewis, the vice-president, will preside. Those wishing transportation are asked to see Mrs. Roy Lockenour.
