Club Events, Parties are Calendared

By B. NORBERG
DALLAS — Due home Friday from a flying trip to Mississippi was Bruce Cooley, Dallas, Glen Martin, McCoy, and Verville Jones, McMinnville. The men, hereford cattlemen of this area, left on Monday for the south to be on hand at a Purebred Hereford sale.

The Dallas Garden club will go on a trip to the southwest and Mexico via film, with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell of Perrydale at the March 18 meeting in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. The Mitchells recently returned from their trip and took many pictures.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rempel are observing their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, March 14. During the afternoon friends and relatives are bidden to call on the silverweds at their home near Perrydale. The Rempels were married in Dallas and have lived in this area ever since.

Jaycees Hold Dance
An evening of dancing was enjoyed by 25 Jaycees and their wives Friday night at the VFW hall. This was the first function on the busy social calendar planned for Jaycee-Jaycette activity.

"County Affairs" will be the instructive topic at the meeting of Business and Professional Women in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Monday evening. Mrs. Lillian Bilyeu will act as moderator. Guests appearing on the program will be Judge Jack Hayes and County Commissioners G. V. Rempel and C. L. Burbank. A question and answer period will be held for the benefit of the group.

National Pi Phi President Will Be Honored

Mrs. Robert S. Wild of Washington, D.C., grand president of Pi Beta Phi will be the honor guest at a tea this afternoon when members of Oregon Gamma Chapter, Pi Beta Phi at Willamette University entertain at the State Street chapter house. Calling hours are from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Wild is arriving in the capital today for a three-day visit with the Willamette chapter and the alumnae. She has been visiting the active chapters at Oregon State and the University of Oregon.

Bidden to greet Mrs. Wild are Pi Phi alumnae and mothers of Salem and Portland, Willamette University faculty wives and Panhellenic presidents on the campus and Panhellenic alumnae presidents in Salem.

Mrs. George Juba will introduce the guests to the receiving line, which will include Miss Barbara Jackson, house president, Mrs. Merle Kaufman, house mother, Mrs. Wild and Mrs. Kenneth Potts, president of the Nancy Black Wallace Alumnae club.

Presiding at the tea urns will be Mrs. James T. Brand, Dean Regina Ewall, Mrs. Cornelius Bateson and Mrs. Marion Mulkey. The Pi Phi coeds will assist in the serving and mingle with the guests about the rooms.

During the afternoon there will be background piano music by Miss Jane Gray and Miss D'Anne Manor. Miss Julie Mellor is general chairman of the tea.

Tuesday Mrs. Wild will be entertained by the Pi Phi alumnae at a no-host luncheon at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Potts in Morrisingside between 11 and 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Wild will be in Portland Tuesday night and Wednesday as guests of the Portland alumnae. The Salem alumnae are invited to attend both affairs in her honor, an evening meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. E. C. Sammons, S. E. Holman St., and to the tea on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Redding, 2785 S.W. Fairview, between 2 and 4 o'clock.

Girl Scouts of the Santiam Area Council have started their annual cookie sale, which also observes the 42nd anniversary of Girl Scouting in the United States. Left to right are Mrs. Kenneth Morris, a leader, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, president of the Santiam Area Council, and Beverly Klinger and Connie Collins, Girl Scouts, who will assist in selling at booths during the sale. (Statesman Photo).

Committees For Benefit Announced

Committees have been appointed for the benefit fashion show to be sponsored by the City Council of Beta Sigma Phi on Friday, April 2 in the Gold Room of the Marion Hotel.
