Camp Fire Girls everywhere are observing the organization's 44th "birthday" this week and this East Salem trio appears to be pretty happy about the idea. Left to right are Sara Beth Anderson and Dianna Judson, (holding tote bags they have made for summer camping trips) and Janice Caspell, who appears to have found some choice reading in the Camp Fire Girls magazine. All of the girls attend Hoover School. (Statesman Photo.)

Mrs. Campbell New Chairman Gray Ladies

Mrs. Sam Campbell has been appointed the new chairman of the Marion County Red Cross Gray Ladies, according to Mrs. William Perry, chairman of Service Groups for the local chapter. Mrs. Campbell has been a Gray Lady since 1951, has served as a volunteer at Salem Memorial Hospital, at the visits of the Red Cross Bloodmobile and is now an active worker with the Gray Ladies at the Oregon State Hospital. She succeeds Mrs. Harold Olinger, who recently resigned.

On Wednesday the Gray Ladies who serve at the Oregon State Hospital held a tentative training meeting at the home of Mrs. Clifford Robinson, 561 Rose St. Mrs. Campbell assisted in the capping of the new class of seven Gray Ladies, who recently completed their probationary training at the state hospital. Cecil Lamkin of the hospital staff spoke on the work of the new outpatient clinic at the hospital. Mr. Lamkin, the psychiatric social worker at the outpatient clinic, came to the institution from Army service. Prior to this he was with the California Mental Hygiene Association.

At Willamette Varsity Queen Finalists are Announced

By JULIE MELLOR
Statesman Correspondent
Five freshman women have been selected for the Willamette University Varsity Ball court. The Varsity Queen, who will be chosen from the court, will preside over the ball next Friday evening, March 26 from 9 to 12 o'clock in the school gymnasium.

Candidates for queen are Barbara Anderson and Pat Halseh, both of Salem; and Peggy Buckley, Helen Piazza and Sylvia Morrow, all of Portland.

Freshman Glee, the main event of the year on campus, will be held Saturday evening in the gym at 8 o'clock.

In this all-campus song contest between the respective classes, the favored ones are the seniors, who have three straight wins, and are aiming at a perfect score. But, the other classes sound good, also, so the final outcome is anyone's guess.

Blue Monday, with all the hazing that goes with it, will be held on March 22, beginning at 10 a. m. in the gym with a performance by the losing class, who will then proceed to take their traditional dunking in the Mill stream. Coeds to Be Pictured Willamette's beauty has been noticed and photographed by the Oregonian, as a feature in their new pictorial section "Northwest News." Local lovelies for the "Beauty on the Campus" article are Carol Svith of Salem; Carolyn Crane and Catherine Schwerin, both of Portland; Sally Jo Grimm of Vancouver, Wash.; Margaret Huson of Medford, and Rebecca Hang of Singapore, Malaya.

Besides being chosen for beauty, each coed has a high grade point and list of activities. Publication date for Willamette's beauty has not been announced. Barbara Young of Alberta, Canada, will be heard in his senior recital Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Waller Hall.

Camp Fire Girls To Board Train

Camp Fire Girls from the fifth grade at McKinley School, led by Mrs. Kermit Ward, will board the Shasta Daylight this morning for a field trip to Albany and Corvallis. It will be the first train ride for many of the girls.

They will be greeted by Camp Fire Girls at both cities. Albany girls will escort them to the bus depot for their ride to Corvallis where they will visit a museum. Mrs. W. J. Linfoot also will accompany the girls on the trip, which is an observance of Camp Fire Girls Birthday Week.

FOUR CORNERS — The Missionary group of the Baptist church held its March meeting on Tuesday evening in the Fire-place room of the church. Mrs. Ben Haytrack read the devotional and Mrs. Victor Loucks presented the lesson on Portugal. The White Cross group will hold an all day no-host meeting with Mrs. Ella Carsten on Tuesday, March 23.

Parties at McLains

AUBURN — On Tuesday Mrs. Arlo McLain was hostess to the Jolly Eight Club for a 12 o'clock luncheon and pinocle. Mrs. C. R. Osborn was the honor birthday guest. Other girthdays observed were Mrs. Margaret Willis, Mrs. George Rowden and Mrs. Sadie Morrison. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Arlo McLain opened their home for a no-host dinner with pinocle following. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. R. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kasson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. George Rowden, Mrs. Mary Noll, Mrs. Margaret Willis, and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Prentice.

Amity — Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Bell of Amity and Warm Springs are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Delores, to Laurence Russel Taylor, U. S. Air Force, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Taylor, Amity. The bride-elect and her fiancé are graduates of Amity Union High School. An early spring wedding is planned.

Dahls Together 45 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Anton J. Dahl celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary at an open house on Wednesday, March 17, at their residence between 2 and 5 o'clock. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Everett Mehner, Mrs. Clarence Olson and Mrs. Peter Olson.

Mrs. A. J. Olson, a sister of Mrs. Dahl, presided at the coffee urn. Coming from out-of-town for the event were a son, Percy Dahl, and granddaughters, Carol and Susan Dahl, of Portland, Mrs. James Hollingworth and Mrs. Gerhard Olson of Silverton.

The Dahls were married on March 17, 1909 at Redwing, Minn. They have resided in Salem for five years. They formerly resided in Osnabrock, N. D. The couple has four children, Mrs. Emil Rivard of Phoenix, Mrs. Roger Fuchsgrubner of Cando, N. D., Clifford Dahl of Crookston, Minn., and Percy Dahl of Portland. There are 10 grandchildren.
