Students Head For Home This Weekend

By ANNE FORRISTEL
Statesman Correspondent

CORVALLIS — Only one more day of finals and then a well-deserved eight day vacation will be enjoyed by Oregon State students . . . Seen comparing notes after the freshman English final were Janet MacDonald, Virginia Liveley, Joan Bale, and Betty Zahara.

Winter term has been a busy one for Salem students, not only in studies, but in activities, such as Fathers Weekend, the Blood Drive, and the many house and all school dances . . . Salem students have also been active in their church groups, speech contests, and acting has hosts to the many conferences held on the campus.

Spring Term Rated Best

Spring term, as usual, promises to be an exciting one with many activities scheduled, and we hope lots of warm weather for outdoor sports, trips to the beach and last, but not least, studying. A few of the activities for spring term will include Mothers Weekend, Senior Weekend, the Junior Senior Prom, and many house dances . . .

Enjoying themselves at the Sigma Chi, Pi Phi exchange desert last week were many Salem students. Viewing the Sigma Chi new television set were Gary Jones, Jack Beakey, Jody Ricketts, and Marcia Maple . . . Talking over old times at Salem Hi were Clarice and Claudia Waters, Dennis Feike, and Whitney Benson . . .

MARQUAM — Oscar Kilborn of Scotts Mills and Mrs. Clara Nicholson were married at a quiet service held in Eureka, Calif., on March 9. They are now at home on a ranch near Marquam. A large group of friends and neighbors gave them a surprise party Thursday evening.

90th Birthday for Mrs. Carmack

MONMOUTH—The 90th birthday of Mrs. Mary Carmack was observed at her home here Wednesday afternoon. Neighbors and friends brought in a birthday cake and gifts. Mary Sansevere was born March 10, 1864 at Edmonton, Canada, the daughter of French Canadian parents in a family of 11 children. They moved a few years later to Montana where her early life was spent.

In 1889 she was married to Samuel Carmack, and in 1907 they moved to a farm in this area. Since 1921 the family home has been in Monmouth. Mr. Carmack died about 20 years ago.

Mrs. Carmack has enjoyed an active life until very recent years, her chief interest being in home-making and the growing of flowers. Her general health is good, and she has good vision. She now spends most of her time piecing quilts. She has two daughters, Mrs. Veri Frederickson of Heppner, and Mrs. Elmer Chapin, Monmouth, 6 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. Brothers and

Mrs. Keeney Honored

The Ford Street Birthday Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. John Minifie on Thursday. The honor guest was Mrs. Henry Keeney, who was celebrating her birthday. Others attending were Mrs. James Johnson, Mrs. Roy Loyne Sr., Mrs. Bob Trussell, Mrs. George Minifie, Mrs. Wilbur Clark, Mrs. Melvin Lyons, Mrs. John Justis, Mrs. Grace Maring, Mrs. Nora Taylor, Mrs. Ira Ralston, Mrs. Hobart Dixon. The St. Patrick motif was used in the decorations.

SILVERTON — The Willard Woman's Club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Melvin Kaser, with Mrs. Emmanuel Kelerhals Jr., assisting during the no-host noon luncheon. Mrs. Dan Hillman will preside during the business session.

sisters include Mrs. Margaret Anderson, Hysham, Montana; Mrs. Flora Anderson, Callispell, Montana; Mrs. Eva Winkler, Boyd, Montana; Alex Sansevere, Sandpoint, Idaho, and Jack Sansevere, Everett, Wash.

Miss Gores to Be Married

MT. ANGEI — Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Gores are announcing the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Katherine Eileen, to Captain Charles G. Swain Jr., USAF, Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, Texas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Swain Sr., of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

The wedding is planned for Sunday, May 2, in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Mt. Angei.

The bride-elect enlisted in the nursing division of the USAF as a first lieutenant in the fall of 1952.

She took her indoctrination course at Gunther Air Force Base at Montgomery, Alabama, later being transferred to Carswell Air Force Base at Fort Worth. She is a graduate of the local school and Mt. Angei Academy. After her graduation in August 1946 from the University of Washington, Harborview Division School of Nursing, she spent two years at Seaside City Hospital, Seaside, Oregon as a nurse, and five years as a nurse and part of the time as a supervisor at the Cowlitz General Hospital, Longview, Washington.

Pearsall-Kaye Rites Read

Exchanging their vows at a quiet ceremony on March 11 at the First Methodist Church were Miss Dorothy E. Kaye of Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hilton of Scotts Mills, and Edwin M. Pearsall, son of Mrs. Gerald Pearsall of Wenatchee, Wash. The Rev. Brooks Moore officiated at the 3 o'clock nuptials.

For her wedding the bride chose a navy blue dress with matching hat and red accessories and a corsage of roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Chapin attended the couple.

After a wedding trip along the Oregon coast the couple will be at home in Wenatchee, Wash., where Mr. Pearsall is a pilot for B and B Flying Service.

HEIDER'S ANNOUNCES

The PREMIER SHOWING of TRAV-LER STEREOTONE HI FIDELITY

GENERAL SPECIFICATIONS

AMPLIFIER

AMPLIFIER has four (4) tubes plus selenium rectifier. Full power using two (2) 50L6 type tubes in Push-Pull amplification. Has one (1) 6C4 Pre-amplifier and one (1) 12AX7 phase inverter tube. Modulation distortion is minimized through use of a negative feedback in the audio circuit.

PICK UP

PICKUP is specially matched to the amplifier and speakers for full 50 to 15,000 CPS tone reproduction. Has special weatherproof ceramic (flip-over) cartridge with two of the latest type sapphire needles—one for playing 33 1/3 and 45 RPM and the other for 78 RPM records.

3 SPEAKERS

THREE SPEAKERS are blended to cover the entire frequency range. A uniform response of from 50 to 15,000 cycles gives coverage over the entire audio range. Will fill the entire room with sound without distortion. Used two (2) large extended range Speakers and one (1) small "tweeter" Speaker for the higher notes.

* Once in a great while an outstanding value in record equipment reaches the market. I sincerely feel that TRAV-LER Stereotone Hi Fi is the best value on the market today.
