

One of these five pretty freshman coeds at Willamette University will be chosen queen of the Willamette Letterman's Club annual varsity ball on March 26. Left to right on the davenport are Patricia Halseth, Salem, Barbara Anderson, Salem and Peggy Buckley, Portland. Seated in front are Helen Piazza, Portland, and Sylvia Morrow, Portland. The ball will be held in the university gymnasium with the queen's identity kept a secret until intermission. (Photo by John Ericksen, Statesman photographer.)

The Easter Parade is the theme of the Spinsters annual benefit fashion luncheon to be an event of Saturday, March 27 at the Marion Hotel. Full skirted cotons, so popular this season, will be a feature of the show. Models wearing a few of the gowns to be shown are pictured above. Reading from the bottom to the top of the stairway are Mrs. Richard L. Cooley, Mrs. Lloyd F. Ramey, Mrs. John P. Maulding and Mrs. William R. Shinn.

Willamette University coeds will assist the City Panhellenic in the annual Easter Lily sale to be held March 26 and 27. Coeds sorting the lilies above are left to right, Carol Hewitt, Nadine Florence, Joyce Schmitz, Nancy Holcomb and Nan Lagen. The coeds will sell lilies at the state house and shopping center on Friday and down town on Saturday. The lilies are sold each year for the Oregon Society of Crippled Children. (Kennell-Ellis Studio.)

Spring print ensembles with matching coats lined in the same material as the dress are popular this year. At the left are two of the Spinsters, Miss Antoinette Kuzmich, standing, and Miss Janet Kirk, who will model at the benefit fashion luncheon on Saturday. Proceeds from the event will augment the philanthropic group's project this year, the State School for the Blind. The interested public is invited to attend and reservations may be made with Mrs. John Maulding. (Photos by John Ericksen, Statesman staff photographer.)

Salem Woman's Club members have planned an interesting program for their annual benefit card party and dessert luncheon Friday, March 26 at the clubhouse. Mrs. Mary Thomas, interior decorator, will give a talk on "Shades of Spring" and is showing two of the club members, Mrs. Clay Cochran and Mrs. John W. Carr, samples of new fabrics she will use to illustrate her talk. (Kennell-Ellis Studio.)