

Reed Nelson Takes Bride In Portland

Of interest to the bridegroom's many Salem friends is the marriage of Miss Catherine Vanita Sutherland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Buren Sutherland of Portland, to Reed Harrin Nelson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Nelson of Salem, which took place Saturday night in Portland.

The couple exchanged their vows at an 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony at the Northwest Hoyt Street home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Neville Blunt officiated at the nuptials before a setting of pink snapdragons, white stock and pink plum blossoms. Mrs. Gerald H. Switzer played the wedding music.

For her wedding the brunette bride wore an ankle length gown of white lace over bluish pink satin fashioned with a deep, rounded neckline outlined in scalloped lace applique and long sleeves. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught to a small lace cap. She carried a bouquet of pale pink roses and white freesias.

Mrs. Holt W. Cookingham Jr. was the bride's only attendant. She wore an ankle length gown of mist blue antique taffeta and carried deep pink roses.

Thomas B. Kay of Salem stood with his longtime friend as best man.

A Reception Follows
Mrs. Sutherland selected a gown of dusty rose crepe with a corsage of orchids for her daughter's nuptials.

A reception followed at the Sutherland home. Mrs. Donald M. Sutherland of Salem, the bride's sister-in-law, presided at the coffee urn and Miss Juanita Matlock cut the cake.

When the newlyweds left on their wedding trip the new Mrs. Nelson donned a grey wool suit with a pink hat. The couple will be at home in Seattle after April 1, where Mr. Nelson is taking graduate work at the University of Washington.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Ean (Janice Nelson) of Seattle, the groom's aunt, Mrs. A. F. Galgano of Kirkland, Wash., and the bride's brother, William M. Sutherland of Palo Alto, Calif.

Miss Alvis Miller is Bride of Elmer Porter at Church Rites

The First Methodist Church was the scene of a lovely spring wedding Saturday afternoon when Miss Alvis Lucile Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Miller, became the bride of Elmer Glynne Porter of Bend, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Porter of Corvallis.

It was at 4 o'clock that Dr. Brooks Moore officiated at the ceremony before a setting of green and white flowers flanked by white tapers. On the altar were twin vases of red roses. Betty Starr Anderson was the soloist and Alice Rose Jones the organist. The bride's cousins, Sharon Mattson of Portland and Robin Miller of Eugene, lighted the candles.

Of white lace over white satin was the bridal gown, fashioned with a court train and a fitted bodice with long sleeves. Her train length tulle veil cascaded from a seed pearl halo headpiece. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible with a shower of hyacinths.

Attendants Wear Green
Three attendants and a flower girl preceded the bride to the altar. Miss Luella Richardson of Pendleton was the maid of honor and she wore a deep green taffeta ballerina frock with pale green net overskirt. Miss Janet Sande of Portland and Miss Priscilla Doble of Newberg, the bridesmaids, wore taffeta ballerina frocks in shades of lighter green with pale green overskirts. They all wore halo headpieces caught with flowers to match their dresses and carried old fashioned nosegays of yellow carnations and narcissuses. Doris Mattson of Portland was the flower girl and she wore a pale green frock designed like the bridesmaids.

Victor McArthur of Phoenix stood with his brother-in-law as best man. Seating the guests were Joseph Spiruda of Albany, James Jolley of Molalla, Albert Pitzer of Vancouver, Wash., and Everett Wilcox of Salem.

Mrs. Miller chose a dusty rose lace gown with corsage of pink orchids for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Porter attended her son's marriage in a blue lace gown to which she pinned a corsage of cream orchids.

Reception in Carrier Room
The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the Carrier Room. Mrs. Richard Wolfe of Forest Grove, Mrs. Byron Miller of Eugene and Mrs. Victor McArthur presided at the coffee urns. Mrs. Chester Goodman cut the wedding cake. Assisting were a group of the bride's Delta Gamma sorority sisters at Oregon State College. They included Misses Lenore Phillippe, Edna Manning, Charlen Woods and Mrs. O. O. Gildow, all of Salem, Dagny Pederson of Astoria, Mary Webber of Albany, Carolynn Dent of Newberg, Lois Archibald of Salem, Kathryn Knowlton of Corvallis and Priscilla Russell of Gardiner.

The couple left immediately after the reception for San Francisco. On return from their wedding trip they will be at home in Bend, where the bridegroom is in business. For travelling the new Mrs. Porter wore a white suit with red accessories.

Mrs. C. W. Parker will be hostess to members of Chapter BC, PEO Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. at her home, 505 Rose Street. Mrs. George H. Swift will be the assisting hostess. Mrs. W. S. Ankney will give the program.

Annual Tea to Fete Mothers, Daughters

The Oregon State College Mothers' Club will entertain with its annual mother-daughter tea on Thursday afternoon, March 25 at the Candalaria home of Mrs. Elton T. Thompson, 620 Ben Vista Drive.

Calling hours are from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock. The affair especially honors the daughters who are home from college during the spring vacation. All mothers of Oregon State College students and alumni are invited to attend the affair. High school seniors, who are interested in attending Oregon State in the fall, and their mothers are also invited to the informal tea.

Receiving informally will be Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Carl Wendt, president of the Salem Oregon State Mothers. Mrs. Kenneth Waters and Mrs. L. V. Benson are co-chairmen of the tea.

Invited to preside at the tea urns are Mrs. Emmett Rogers, Mrs. Elmore Hill, Mrs. Deral Jones and Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson, a past state president. Mrs. Hill is arranging the tea table.

Assisting about the rooms and serving will be Mesdames Walter Snyder, George Rhoten, Karl W. Heinlein, Edward Majek, Edwin A. Johnsen, Stanley Baker, Roy T. Todd, John Wood, Richard A. Meyer, Robert Sears, Robert Radcliff, Walter Nelson and Roland Nohlgren.

Blue Bird Groups Entertained

SALEM HEIGHTS - The Busy Blue Birds of the fourth grade of the Salem Heights School were hostesses to the fourth grade Blue Birds of Washington School Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Kurth on W. Browning Ave.

The "Okim" Camp Fire group of the seventh grade of Leslie Junior High School put on a ceremonial for the two Blue Bird groups who will fly-up to Camp Fires at the Grand Council fire slated for later this spring.

The Camp Fire groups leader, Mrs. Robert Fenix led the wobble call, and the professional chant by the girls. The lighting ceremony was by Bonnie Jean Kurth, Claudia Weaver, and Patty Fenix. Handsign and presentation of service symbols and honor beads was given by Mrs. Fenix. Extinguishing ceremony was given by Janet Davenport, Andrie Diekman, and Sue Brasher. Others taking part were Nancy Baker and Sally Osko. Mrs. Lloyd Davenport was a guest.
