

Candidates Grilled for Voter Service

Interviewing of political candidates by the League of Women Voters got underway Thursday when aspirants for state legislative posts appeared before a committee of women to answer a series of nine questions. Shown above during Cecil J. Farnes' interview in the fireside room of the public library are from left to right

IDAHO TOWNS
BOISE, Ida (INS) — Travelers in Idaho might easily adopt the airs of international tourists—if they take seriously the names of the cities and towns they pass through. Without leaving the state of Idaho, a traveler may boast that he has been to Naples, Moscow, Troy, Cambridge, Ontario, Amsterdam, Bern, Paris and Geneva.

LOVE MESSAGE COSTLY
LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — A "bashful beau" here scratched "I love you honey" on the trunk lid of the girl. The lass didn't think so much of it. Police set the damage at $10.

Stewart Reappointed to State Fair Commission
Reappointment of Dr. E. B. Stewart, Roseburg, as a member of the Oregon State Fair Commission, was announced by Gov. Paul L. Patterson Thursday. Dr. Stewart originally was appointed by ex-Governor Douglas McKay.

Salmon Catch Pleases Men

ASTORIA (AP) — Packers and fishermen said Thursday they were pleased with the ocean troll salmon season so far.

Vessels, fishing only for Chinook in an area north of the Columbia River to Grays Harbor, have made catches as high as 3,000 pounds a boat since the March 15 opening. Packers believe the catches may indicate a good run of salmon is on the way to the Columbia.

Salem GI Due in U. S. Aboard Troopship

SEATTLE (AP) — A3C Kelly R. Conover, 2196 State St., Salem, and 2nd Lt. Edward D. Geer, Corvallis, are among military passengers from the Far East aboard the transport Gen. Simon B. Buckner, due here Friday.

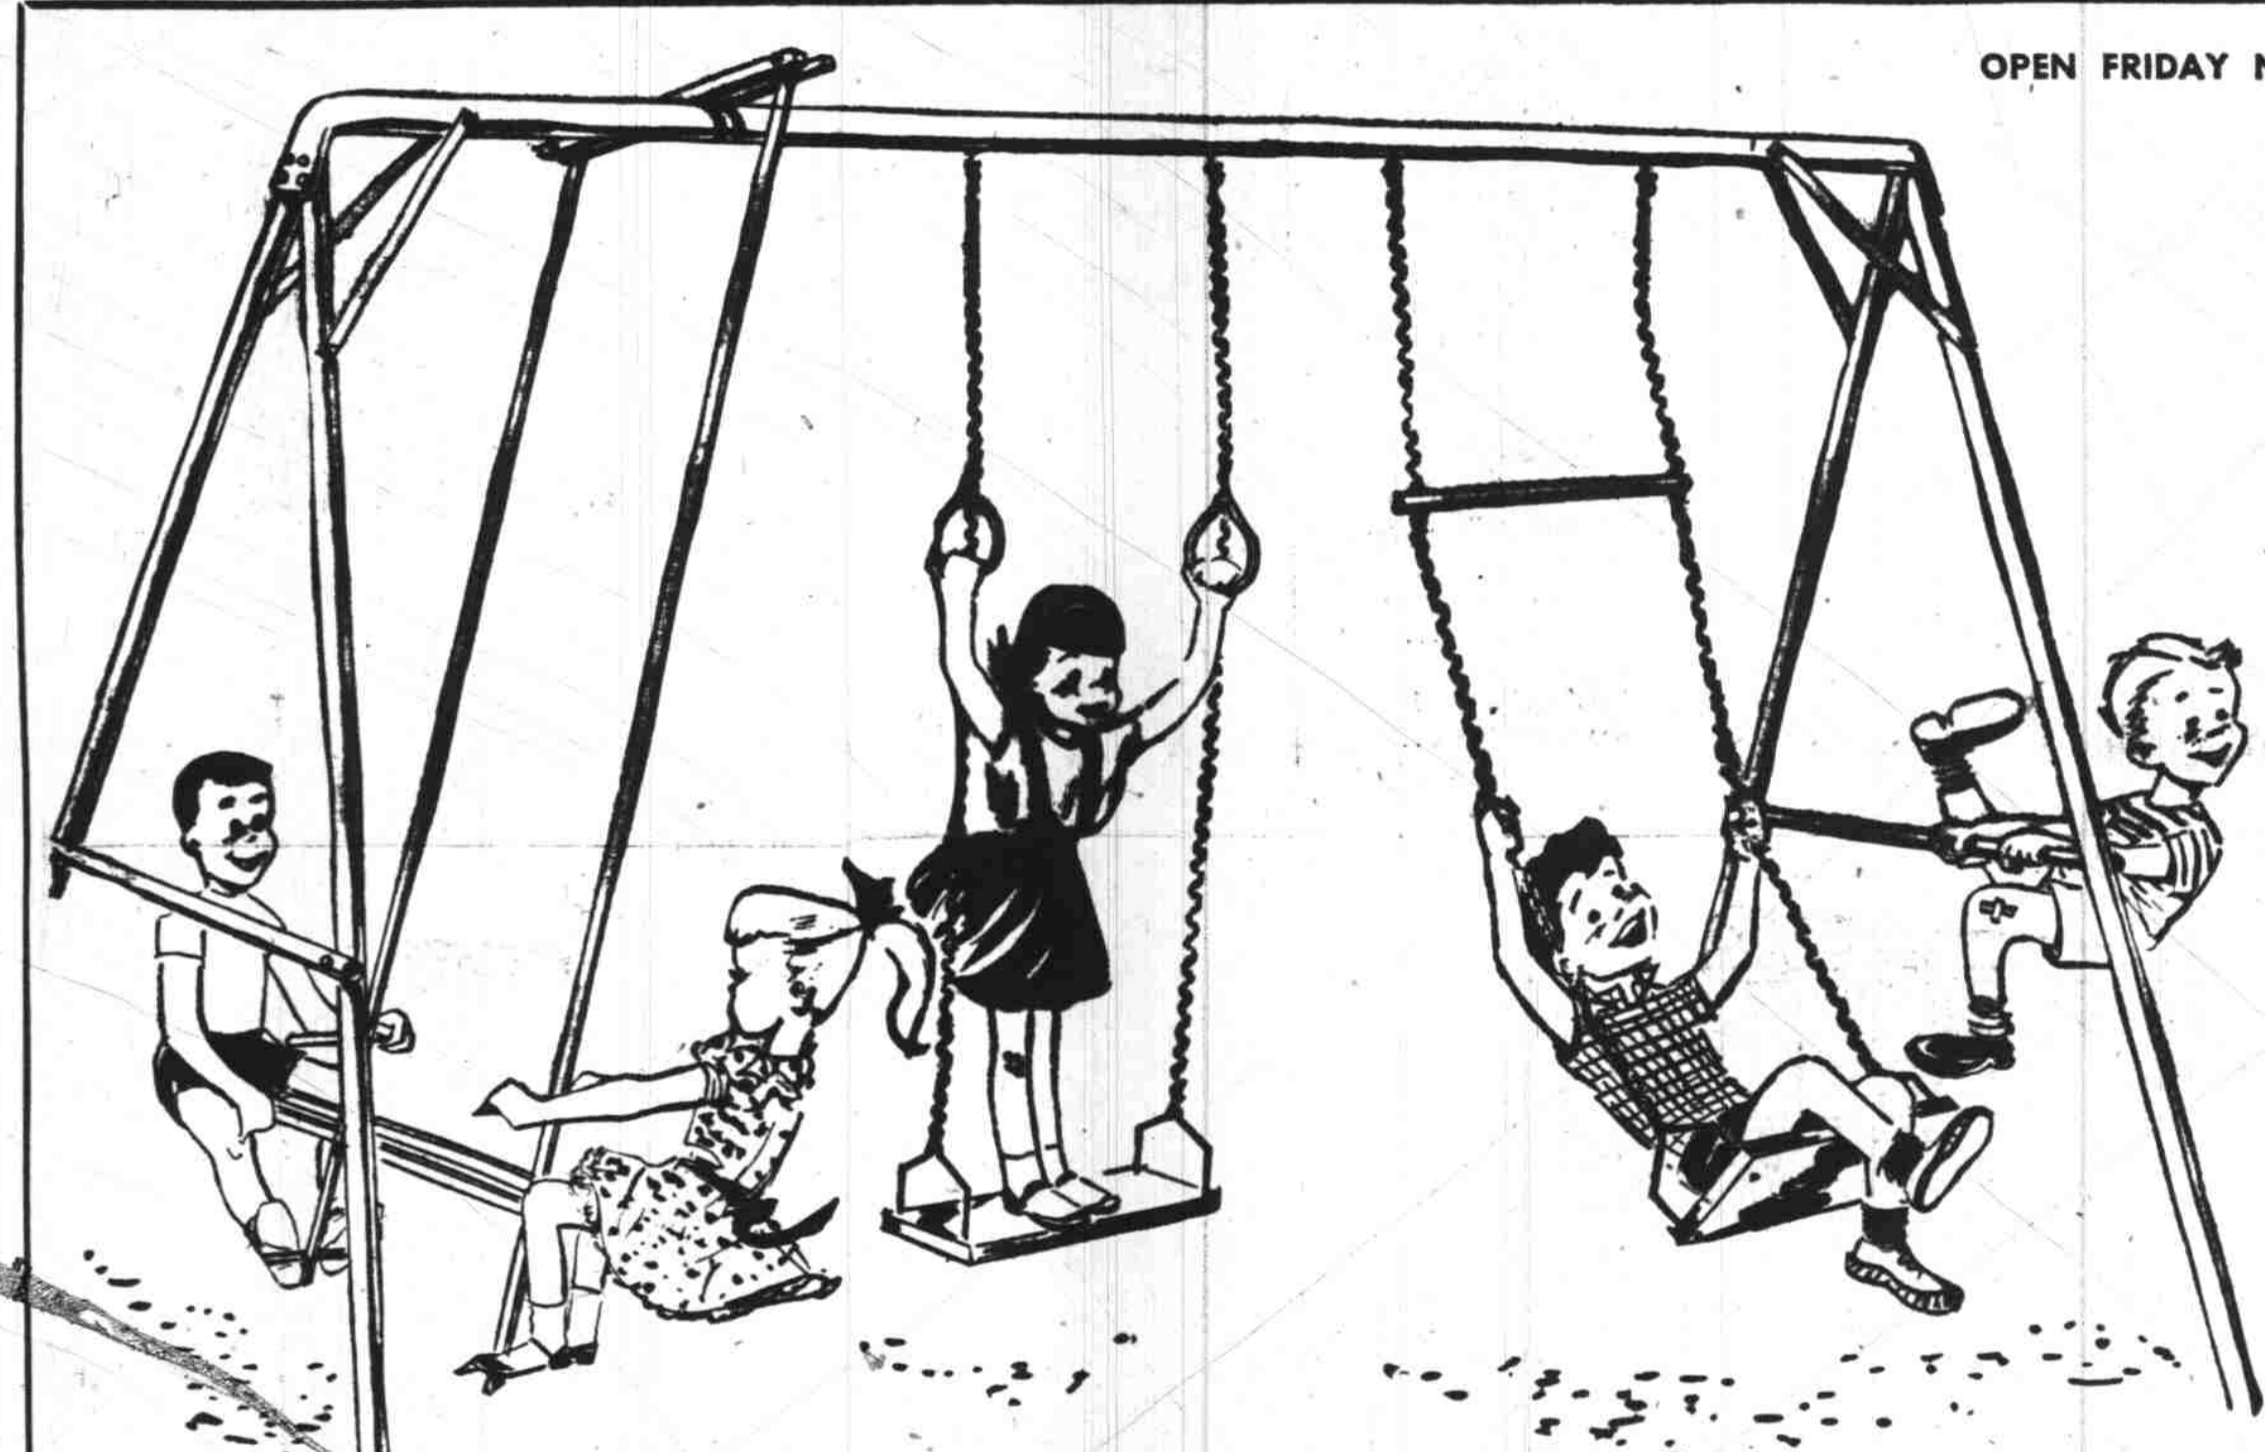

A common toad can eat as many as 10,000 garden pests a year according to some estimates.
