Wealthy Man Gets Pay Cut

BOMBAY, India (AP)—The Nizam of Hyderabad, popularly considered one of the world's richest men has agreed to a $526,000 a year cut in pay from the Indian government.

The finance minister of Hyderabad announced that from April 1 the Nizam has "voluntarily" approved a cut of that amount—just half—in the compensation he receives for the crown lands he surrendered to the government four years ago.

There will be no cut however, in the $2,104,000 a year privy purse paid to him. Nor will there be any interference with the reputed two billion dollar hoard of gold, jewels and cash the Nizam has stashed away in banks here.
