By BROWNIE VALDEZ

Six of the prettiest feminine bowlers in the state of California Puerto Rican Invitation tennis tourput in an appearance here last week and showed also that they're averages attest to talented gals at rolling the big balls. The girls

Woods 190, Doris (Lover Girl) Porter 189, Peggy (Southpaw) Farley 189, Alice (Smiley) Mrak 184 and Chiyo (Tiger) Tashima

The gals gave a terrific exhibition as they always do and the double elimination tourney in while on the trip north also bowled their way into the number one spot in the All-Coast Tourney at Albany

They also made shambles of was the Tiger herself, Chiyo Tashima with a 575. Doris Porter with 560 rests in the number two spot .Gaining fifth spot was Esther Woods and her 548. Lefty Farley with 537 was more than below par . . .

FRANK EVANS In Money at Seattle

Switching to Capitol Lanes and the Mixed Doubles Tourney we find the duo of Peggy Farley and partner Jim Sharp with 1272 resting in first place. Second place is held by the team of Chiyo Fools Day Tourney last week, Tashima and Jim "Shifty" Sheldon with 1250. I might add that the 600 series Shifty rolled was his first one ever, but what a time to fashion by number of big-score cut loose. Peggy Farley and Jim Blaine rest in the third spot payoff. Chiyo Tashima with a small amount of help from partner Chico Valdez hold down the fourth spot. Chiyo rolled a 613 scratch in slight movement in one arm. The that series and Chico carried a 48 pin handicap, all of which he needed to beat his capable partner . . .

One thing for sure, if these gals don't stop humbling our local was Mrs. Robert Cannon with dandies by so great a margin, they might have trouble finding

Hans Nichols won in Class C with Salem Rollers Show Well at Seattle

Notes from the A. B. C. Seattle: Salem bowlers can well be proud of the scores posted by local rollers so far in the big show. Leading the Salem brigade with a huge 1838 all-events total is the round man, Chubby Evans. Frank rolled scores of 608-610 and 620. Tony Prudente with 1802 in the all-events list, is another gent who deserves an etxra pat on the back. Tony had totals of 586-582-634. Other local rollers who had their fling with the pins were Squee Kitchen-607 in team event, Choke Strap-621 in team and 632 in doubles. I don't believe he rolled his last game in the singles event. John Riches rolled the high game from Salem with 257-609 series.

Salem rollers who rest high on the payoff list are Gerlinger Carrier with a 2872 in team event. Dick Phipps-Frank Evans-1230, Cliff Maison-Tony Prudente-1198, Dean Henderson-Brownie Valdez-1181 and John Glodt-Pinky Hartwell-1149 in the doubles list. Frank Evans-620 and Walt Cline Jr .- 613 are high in the singles event. Frank Evans-1838, Tony Prudente-1802 and Knot

Gersbach-Gilson Duo on Top

Topping the Jackpot tournament (Doubles) at U-Bowl is the team of Don Gersbach and Dick Gilson with a solid 1315 score. In gaining this score Dick rolled his first 600 series, a 607, mainly on the strength of his new high game of 264. Pretty fair rolling for a 155 average. Second place is held by Earl Phipps-Ray Gunn-1310. Third place, Lee Morris-Tony Prudente-1302. Fourth-Ed Talbot-Chet Boyce-1291 and fifth place Chet Boyce and Pappy Gardner with 1282. . . .

In the Sunday night Mixed Doubles at Capitol it was Jean and Chet Boyce with 1257 copping first place money. Second slot was taken by Marie Bradley and partner Jake Hopfinger with 1192. Third spot loot went to the duo of Edna Hopfinger and Earl Brad-
