YWP review

By MRS. WALLACE R. COWEN
President of the Salem Junior Woman's Club

The major project of the Salem Junior Woman's Club this year has been the decorating of the Y-Teen room in the new YWCA building.

For several months a committee of members from the club, who include Mrs. Donald Rasmussen, Mrs. Sam Campbell, Mrs. Bill Claibough, Mrs. T. N. Morris and Mrs. Ted Jenny, spent many long hours in planning the type of furniture best suitable to the room. This room is the meeting place of all the Y-Teen clubs and Tri-Y clubs, so furnishings had to be simple and functional which would stand up under the exuberance all teen-agers seem to have.

Furniture of the latest design was chosen. The materials for the 2 sectional sofas are made out of Saran in a toast colored tone. This new material is a plastic weave and will resist pencil marks, stains, scuff marks, mildew and rays of the sun. The occasional chairs are in red Saran and the "3 passenger" sofa is done in a green-tinted color. Both are made of a new wonder fabric.

The president's table, coffee table and sectional table are out of Blackstone plastic tops in a natural walnut colored finish. This finish is practically mar proof and will hold the weight of many a gavel. All the furniture is constructed of black tubular steel legs trimmed with brass. The legs have a ball-bearing glider which molds the furniture to the floor.

To Complete Decor of Room
In addition to the furniture, the Juniors also undertook the cost of linoleum tile which is done in a beige tone, the painting of the room, which carries out a color scheme of blue, yellow and red. Suitable window covering is also being chosen. It is hoped that additional accessories may be purchased in the near future.

Besides the decorating of this room, many members of the club are active in the YWCA. Four members are Tri-Y advisers, a number of women are working on the current membership drive, and several Juniors are represented on YWCA committees.

Miss McCall, Mr. Novick Wed Sunday

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. McCall of Salem and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Novick of Stroudsburg, Pa. The Novicks were unable to come west for their son's wedding.

The Rev. Wayne Greene performed the 4 o'clock rite before a setting of pink snapdragons, stock and carnations. The wrought iron candelabras were entwined with ivy and pink carnations. Peter Larson was the soloist and Mrs. J. M. Cracroft was the organist.

For her wedding the bride chose a heather costume suit fashioned with short jacket and cut-away Peter Pan collar. Her lavender satin hat was adorned with fresh flowers of violets, pink Elf roses and stephanotis. She carried a semi-cord arrangement of violets, stephanotis and pink Elf roses.

Miss Charlene Churchill was the bride's only attendant. She wore a beige suit with pink hat and carried a nosegay of roses, violets and stephanotis.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the fireplace room. Mrs. James V. Shantz and Mrs. M. Dean Bunnell poured and Mrs. Robert F. King cut the cake. Assisting were Miss Shirley Karsten, Miss Beverly Beakey, Miss Diane Perry and Miss Marjorie Becke.
