

Senator Lefties Goose-Egg Yaks

Tanselli Signs; McFarlane Sharp
In Hill Stint; Second Tilt Today

Good news blossomed as prettily as an Easter lily Saturday at Waters Field.

First off, the resident Senators won a ball game, blanking the Yakima Bears 4-0. Also, Shortstop Gene Tanselli has come to terms with the Solons. Cuban Connie Perez took over left field in the lineup, Lefty Bob McFarlane, the clever little Garfield, Utah, flinger obtained from Salt Lake City jerked up an impressive seven innings against the potent Bruins and Mel Krause, the ex-U of Oregon rookie, turned in another encouraging performance both afield and at bat, this time as a third baseman.

He'll Resume Senator Role

The win brought the Salem-Yakima series to 2-1, still in favor of Lou Stringer's hirelings. It also brought to an even 3-3 the "Grapefruit" record for the Solons, and broke a Yakima winning skein of five games.

The two foes go at it again today, starting at 2 p.m. Jack Hemphill, who looked so good against the Bears at Yakima on Thursday after relieving Larry Borst, will open for the Salems in today's sortie.

What with Tanselli, Perez, Bob Kellogg and Krause now on hand, and with Pete Estrada and the two young pitchers from Sacramento due to check in today, it begins to look like the start of serious spring training for the Salems.

Not a hard-throwing southpaw, McFarlane nonetheless showed an assortment of slants along with the impression that he knows how to pitch. It was a very encouraging performance in Boss Harv Storey's opinion, for the chief is woefully shy on mound strength.

McFarlane gave only two singles in his seven innings, one to Len Noren in the fourth inning and the other to Lonnie Summers, the huge Negro catcher, in the seventh. He issued two walks and hit a batter. A double play nullified the walk in the second.

Yak Threat Dies
The youngster was in a real jam in the fourth when an error, Noren's single and a walk loaded the bases, with Summers at bat. But McFarlane was up to it, however, and got the veteran on a long, foul fly to Perez in left.

Chunky Bill Castell twirled the last two innings for Salem, giving two singles, whiffing two and walking one.

UO Trackmen Upset Huskies

EUGENE (AP) — The University of Oregon, showing unexpected strength in hurdles, distance races and field events, upset the Washington Huskies 74-57 in Saturday's Northern Division track opener here.

Bill Sorsby of Oregon was the high individual scorer with 11 points. He was first in the high hurdles and second in the high hurdles and 100-yard dash.

Bruce Springbett, Oregon, was the only double winner of the day. He took firsts in both sprints.

Denny Meyer of Washington set the only meet record, running the two-mile in 9:22.9—nearly four seconds better than the mark he established two years ago.

Oregon's Bob Faucett posted an upset victory in the high jump when he cleared 6 feet, 4 inches to defeat his teammate Emery Barnes and Washington's Darrold Skarvedt.

Caps Down Braves

KENNEWICK (AP) — Bill Franks and Bob Roberts combined Saturday to give the Vancouver Capitlanos a 6-2 victory over the Tri-City Braves in the opener of a two-game exhibition baseball series between the two Western International League teams.

Franks pitched no-hit ball in the five innings he worked. Roberts held the Braves scoreless until the ninth when they shoved over their pair of runs.

Elated Solon Skipper Welcomes Cuban Connie

When Connie Perez, a mainstay of the Salem Senators in recent seasons, finally showed up at Waters Park Saturday he was given a royal welcome by beaming Manager Harv Storey, left above. Perez once again was delayed by immigration red tape in trying to leave his native Cuba for Senator spring training duties, but did arrive earlier this season than he did last year. The popular Connie will be in the Salem lineup when the Senators close out their exhibition series with Yakima this afternoon, 2 o'clock, at Waters Park. (Statesman Sports Photo)

'Cats Defeat L-C Twice

WU's Pennant Hopes Boosted

Willamette University's baseballers took a big stride toward their second straight Northwest Conference flag Saturday as they took a pair of games from the Lewis and Clark Pioneers. Coach John Lewis' men won the tenning opener 6-5 on a clutch blow by first baseman Pete Reed and then snared the seven-inning nightcap 10-6 with the help of a six-run second inning.

The extreme oddity about the opening mix Saturday centered on Lefty Ray Hyde of the Portlanders who lost the ball game despite fanning 17 WU hitters. On top of that the Pioneers out-hit the Bearcats 10-6 and committed only two errors to the five made by Willamette. But Reed's timely blow offset all of these factors, the hit coming behind Gary Shugarts, who hit in field and stole second to get in scoring position.

Andy George, ace of the WU staff, went the distance in the first game as did Hyde. Andy struck out ten and walked four and would have had an easier chore but for some dismal support. In the sixth L-C scored three times with the help of three misques.

Gary Shugarts, the freshman left fielder, got the Bearcats off to a fast start with a two-run homer in the first inning over the 315-foot center field fence. WU scored three times in the fourth when Hyde dished up three walks to go with two errors and a single by George. (Contd. on Page 9)

SOCE Granted Slot in OCC

PORTLAND (AP) — The admission of Southern Oregon to the Oregon Collegiate Conference was announced Saturday by the conference president, Stephen Epler.

He said Southern Oregon's application was approved by the other four teams in the conference—Portland State, Oregon Tech, Eastern Oregon and Oregon College of Education.

Southern Oregon will begin conference play next September, meeting all members in football and basketball if schedule arrangements can be completed.

Statesman-Capitol Tourney Set . . .

Deadline Next Sunday For Doubles Pin Meet

Bowlers of Salem and the mid-Willamette Valley area are reminded that they have until Sunday, April 25 to enter the third annual Statesman-Capitol Alleys Handicap Doubles Tournament. The big tourney, boasting lots of attractive prizes plus trophies, has become one of the feature kegling events on the local calendar and includes both men's and women's divisions.

Win Notched By Determine

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — Determine, the "Grey Ghost" of California racing, sounded a stirring challenge to other Kentucky derby nominees Saturday with a smashing five-length win in his final appearance at Bay Meadows. He was timed in 1:49 1/5 for the mile and one-eighth derby.

His stablemate, Allied, raced second while Fault Free was third. Ranked second choice in the Kentucky Derby to be the only 3-year-old in the country who has packed the Kentucky Derby weight of 126 pounds this year.

Reed Splashes Tops in Meet

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — For the third straight day, Shelley Mann and the other teen-agers of the Walter Reed Hospital Swim Club of Washington, D.C., made a record-smashing sweep through the National AAU Women's Indoor Swimming and Diving Championships Saturday.

Miss Mann, a 16-year-old Arlington, Va., high school girl, ran away with the individual title on victories in three events.

The Walter Reed team scored 94 points in the 12 events. Lafayette, Ind., Swim Club was second with 42. Indianapolis A. C. third with 31 and Chicago Community Builders fourth with 24.

Multnomah Club of Portland, Ore., was far down the list with 5 points.

Andy Seminick of Cincinnati battled 279 and hit 14 home runs against southpaw pitching in 1953.

Patton Puts on Show for Ike

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Billy Joe Patton — the sensational amateur who almost won the Masters Tournament — played red hot golf with President Eisenhower Saturday, carding six birdies over 18 holes and scoring a five-under-par 31 for one nine.

They played the back nine first, starting on the 16th hole to avoid the crowd.

The 31-year-old Patton put on another show of wizardry at the Augusta National Course after the President had implored him at the outset of the match: "Now, be merciful."

Patton responded with a blazing round — firing six birdies, one on the back nine the Morgantons, N. C., lumberman picked up on the 13th hole — one of the two holes which cost him the championship in the Masters Tournament last week-end.

With a "courtesy" seven on that hole Saturday in match play, Patton carded a 37 on his first nine, which — together with his five-under-par 31 for the second — gave him a match play total of 68. Par for the course is 72. The record is held by Lloyd Mangrum, who once fired a 64.

Eisenhower, who like Patton had one pickup, had an 88. He scored a 47 on the first nine, then whittled a 41 on the second nine for a six.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — San Diego defeated Portland, 11-7, Saturday for its second straight victory over the Beavers and took a 3-2 lead in its Pacific Coast League series.

Bill Thompson, young right-hander, was the winning pitcher, although he had to have help from Lloyd Dickey and Johnny Herrera.

Portland jumped on Herrera for two runs in the first inning. Frankie Austin's triple, singles by Granville Gladstone and Walt Judnich and Don Eggert's fly did the damage.

San Diego tied the count in its half on a pair of singles, a walk and two infield outs.

Portland made it 5-2 in the third when Judnich walked, Hank Arft tripled, Eggert walked and Padre shortstop Buddy Peterson muffed Jim Gladd's roller.

The Padres shelled Dick Fiedler, Beaver starter, from the mound in their half with four runs to go ahead, 6-5. Harry Elliott's double, Earl Rapp's triple, and successive singles by Fick Faber and John Meyer's o.s. sandwiched around a walk and an error accounted for the tallies.

After Portland tied it again in the fifth, the Padres went ahead, 8-6, pushing over two runs after two were out.

Dick Wabel took the mound for Portland in the seventh and San Diego shelled him for three insurance runs in the eighth. Four singles and a long fly accounted for the tallies.

The high flying Oakland Oaks again smashed Hollywood 14-5 Saturday to go into a three-way tie with Portland and Sacramento. The Acorns belted 21 hits off Sacramento pitcher Hank Schenz, including two out in the tenth inning to give Sacramento a 3-2 decision over Seattle. It was the sixth win in a row for the Solons. San Francisco's Seals edged the Los Angeles Angels 6-5 in ten innings.

Glove-Carrying Rule to Apply In WIL's Ranks

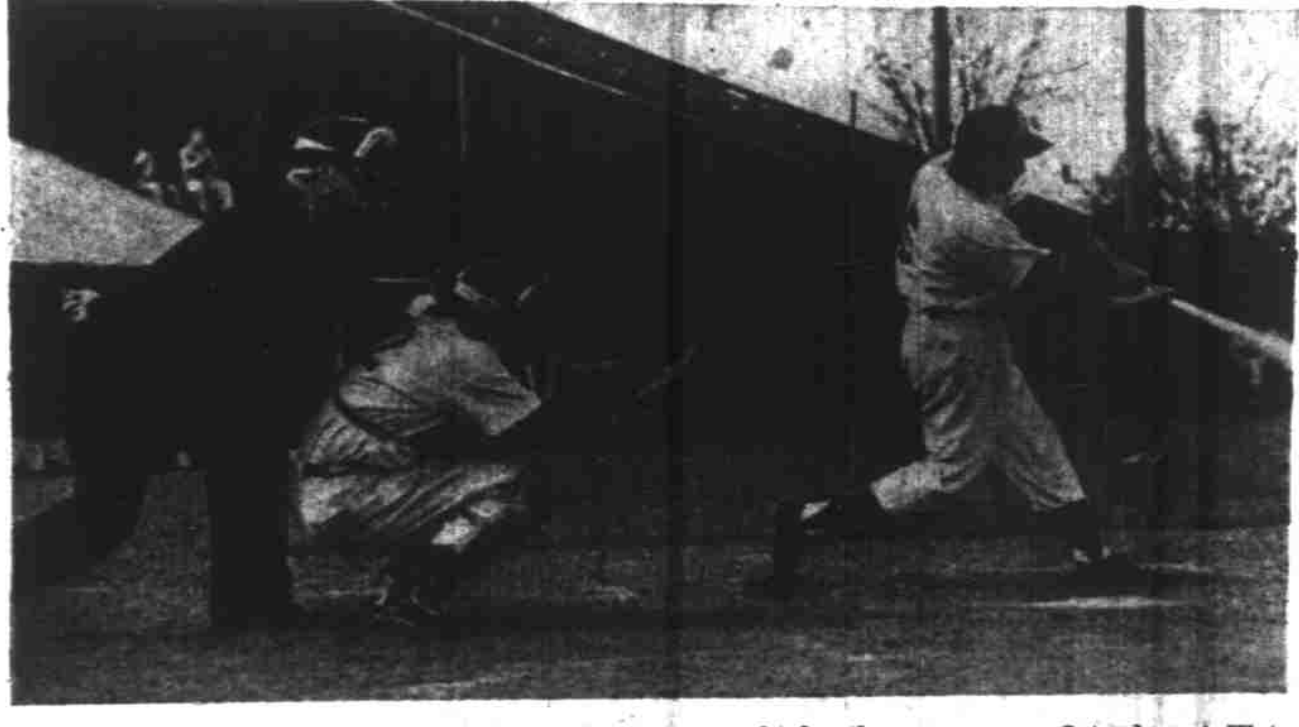

KENNEWICK (AP) — The Western International League is going to have to abide by the new baseball rule requiring all players to carry their gloves off the field every time their team is at bat.

Robert Abel of Tacoma, WIL president, had told the 10 clubs of the Class A league they would not be required to observe the rule unless instructed to do so by George Trautman, boss of the minor leagues.

Trautman laid down the law this week, and Abel sent an accompanying letter to all WIL clubs to carry out his instructions. The Tri-City Braves received their copy here Saturday.

The rule was ordered so the playing fields will be kept clear of all obstructions at all times.

Senator Rookie Slashes Out Long Triple

Mel Krause, impressive Salem Senators rookie was caught by the cameraman Saturday at Waters Field as he cracked out a long triple to right-center in the seventh inning to drive in a run. Krause later scored on a wild pitch, helping the Solons blank Yakima 4-0. Catcher in the photo is Lonnie Summers, regular with San Diego last season and now with Yakima. Ump is Ollie Williams. Yakima and Salem play here again today at 2 p.m. (Tommy Wright Photo)
