Sixteen Hits in Beating OSC Rooks

By AL LIGHTNER
Statesman Sports Editor

Unloading their most potent stick work of the spring training run, the town Senators Tuesday laced out 16 blows in beating the Oregon State Rooks by a 9-4 count at Waters Field. Harv Storey's pros tallied five times in the second inning and four in the fifth in the seven-inning fray.

Battle Royal Mat Victory To Martindale

Tommy Martindale, who since turning from mat hero to heel has compiled quite a record, added more to it last night at the Army. In fact he put $200 in cash, a trophy and a match with Luther Lindsey alongside that which he has accomplished since making the switch a few weeks ago.

Tiger Tommy, as he now wishes to be called, won the battle royal main event last night, downing Pepper Gomez with body slams and a final backbreaker for the clincher in the final match.

The two had survived the opening seven-man royal, which went like this: First out was Juan Hernandez, victim of a gang-up job by the others. Next to go was Kurt von Poppenheim, also ganged. Then Johnny Henning went down, followed by Buck Weaver. Buck was eliminated by Con Bruno and Martindale. Bruno was the next to leave, which left Gomez and Martindale as the finalists.

In the prelims Poppenheim used his German cross-bow hold to gain the only fall over Henning, and Weaver emerged winner over the powerful Bruno via foul. Mr. Five-by-Five insisted on using a choke hold.

The mainer went 30 minutes before Martindale got in the winning fall, much to the dissatisfaction of the gathering, which was pro-Gomez throughout.

There are 17 players in the American League who have scored more than 500 runs during their major league careers.

Cat Freshman Breezes In

Judson Jones, Portland prep 440 champion last year and now a freshman at Willamette U, hits the finish line Tuesday in the time of 52.8 to win the quarter-mile event with ease in the WU-Oregon College meet in McCulloch Stadium. The Bearcats won the meet by a 99-32 score. Timing Jones in photo is John Gotteried.

'Cat Cindermen in 99-32 Win Over OCE; Century Mark Tied

One Willamette school mark was tied as Coach Ted Ogdahl's Bearcat cindermen Tuesday crushed the OCE Wolves by a 99-32 count in dual meet action at McCulloch Stadium. Sprinter Bill Van Horn equalled the mark held by himself and several others when he won the century in 10 flat.

The Willamette squad racked up 12 firsts in the meet, with Van Horn, Don Miller and Larry Thompson each scoring a pair of firsts. Thompson shared both of his, however, knotting with teammate Claris Poppert in the pole vault (11' 0") and tying with Merlin Schultz of Willamette in the high jump (5' 10").

Van Horn also won the 220 (22.3) and Miller got his wins in the mile (4:57) and the 880 (2:01).

Don McKenzie, OCE's top ace, won only one event Tuesday and that was the broad jump with a leap of 21' 1/2". McKenzie was second to Van Horn in the 100 and 220 and placed third in the high jump.

The other firsts for Bill McArthur's Monmouth gang were registered by Bill Arnold in the low hurdles (25.7) and Frank Grove in the javelin (158' 4"). Stan Neperud, U's ace spear thrower, didn't compete because of a leg injury.

Rollin' Along

With Jerry Stone

The one-time collegiate greats—lads who gained their biggest campus names in sports other than baseball—now are in the process of building reps with the Boston Red Sox. One's Sammy White, ex-Washington Husky basketball whizz and rated one of the most promising young catchers in the Majors. The other's Harry Aganis, former passing ace for Boston College. White has come along tremendously as a hitter as he starts his second full season for the Red Sox.

SAMMY WHITE
Going Great With Boston

Al Brightman of Seattle U did a sudden about-face after going to Moscow to look over the Idaho hoop job. And one of two things—both—caused the quick change of mind on Brightman's part. That would be salary and maybe a short-term contract. Imagine the harried Vandals by this time have sent at least one feller in the direction of Jim Torson, who resigned recently as Portland U skipper.

Statesman Meet Fitting Climax to Season

The annual Statesman-Capitol Doubles tourney, which comes near the end of each pin season, is a fitting climax to the bowlers' year. The third in the series is now in its first stages and as with the other two, offers participants many opportunities for prize money. As being a handicap affair, the low average boys and girls have as good a chance (some think better) as the elite rollers. So come on, you guys and dolls. Sign up!

More and more sages of the baseball scene believe that the Milwaukee Braves' "Wonder Kid," Eddie Mathews, has a good chance of topping Babe Ruth's 60-homer mark of these seasons. Eddie socked 47 homers last year at the age of 22. But slugged his 60 in 1927 at the age of 32. So the Braves better have plenty of time—and he is still improving. Tom Meany, in an article in Colliers, points out that one of the big items in Mathews' favor is that he likely won't have to worry about military servitude interruptions at prime of his career. Much of the steam was taken out of Ted Williams' chances for a possible homer mark by those two stretches with the marines.

If Harry Mathews should defeat Don Cockell in that coming London scrap what would be the next logical move for the Seattle "Kid"? Well, why not a bout with the Canadian heavy king, Earl Walls? More and more people of Cauliflower Row are taking an interest in the Canuck slugger, though Walls hasn't met any of the top bracket heavies other than for Alex Lane. Earl flattened Rex twice.

Chance Seen to Get Landy, Santee Together

We haven't heard whether Australia's mile whizz, John Landy, is going to take part in the approaching British Empire Games at Vancouver, B. C. If Landy is to participate, what a fine chance to get the Aussie and Wes Santee, the Kansas flyer, together for a crack at that minute mile—a mark that somehow seems as far distant as Mars. Santee, of course, won't be running in the Empire Games, but if officials had any imagination they'd arrange a special exhibition. With two gents who have done the mile under 4:03 going at it in the same race, no telling what would happen.

Primo Carnera, the one-time heavyweight "champion" who's been raking in big earnings in the razzing game of late, is supplementing his mat wages with filmland bits. Da Freeman, all 6' 2, 260 pounds of him, appear in the current Bob Hope movie—and the big guy may not be an Academy Award prospect, but he doesn't do badly. Even speaks a few lines without a slip-up.

Bob Funk, coach at Salem Academy, proudly reports that the west-side school now has a new quarter-mile cinder track ready and on top of that turf is coming along nicely on the football field and new lights will be added shortly. Funk reports that heart-warming response in the drive of a few months ago made possible installation of the arc lamps. So the Crusaders will have a fine home field of their own to romp on next fall after being forced to use borrowed grids last season.

Bevos, Sactos Divide In Day-Night Openers

PORTLAND (AP)—The Portland Beavers opened their Pacific Coast League home season Tuesday, dividing a day-night double-header with Sacramento before a total turnout of 21,351 fans. Frankie Austin cracked out a two-run homer in the ninth inning of the afternoon game to give Portland a 5-4 victory before 12,256.

Sacramento exploded for four runs in the eighth inning of the night game and won 6-4 as 9,095 watched.

Bob Dillinger singled to open Sacramento's big eighth inning in the night tilt. Then Hank Schenz and Ed Bockman collected singles, scoring Dillinger, off Portland starter Dick Waibel, who was replaced by Dewey Adkins.

Adkins gave up a single to Joe Brovia, which scored Schenz. With Bockman out, Brovia went to third and Nippy Jones to second on a wild pitch. Len Attyd singled to score Brovia and Richie Myers singled to score Bud Sheely who had walked and advanced when Jones was thrown out at the plate.

Schenz homered for Sacramento's final run in the ninth. Portland scored one run in the third inning and added three more in the fifth on two walks and singles by Austin, Dino Restelli and Walt Judnich.

In the afternoon game, the bases were loaded and two were out when Austin lined one of Ken Kimball's pitches to right field.

Kimball had come in to try to stop the Portland uprising against Chet Johnson, who had limited the home team to six hits until the final inning. Then the first two men to face Johnson in the ninth got singles.

Kimball came in at that point, and almost turned the trick. He retired two men and gave up an intentional walk before Austin hit his winning blow.

Dino Restelli and Don Kolloway hit bases-empty home runs to account for two of Portland's runs. Portland also scored in the first inning on a double by Restelli and an infield single by Walt Judnich.

Seattle's Rainiers nipped San Diego 2-1 in 11 innings of night action to gain a split in an opening split program at Seattle. San Diego won the afternoon mix 4-2. The total turnout for the two games was 17,000. Oakland committed two costly errors as San Francisco collected nine unearned runs for a 9-5 victory and at Hollywood the Stars knocked Los Angeles out of first place with a 7-1 win behind Bob Hall's three-hit pitching.

Gal Tops Men's Duckpin Action

If rollers in Men's City Duckpin League action at B and B Bowling Courts were red around the ears Tuesday night it is easily explained. Top series during the evening was fired by a woman, Alma Penny, who totaled a 504 for Dyer Insurance. A man got the high game, though, when Keith Kay fired a 209 for Kay Radio.

Results included: Davis Oil 3, Les Newman's 1; Willamette Art Tile 3, Woodruff's San Flor 1; Kay Radio 4, Dr. Pepper 0; Modern Woodmen 3, Olson's Florist 1; Dyer Insurance 3, Quality Used Cars.

Single in 8th Deprives A's Ace of No-No; Phils Top Bums

NEW YORK (AP)—Alex Kellner of the Philadelphia Athletics Tuesday night pitched the American League's second one-hit game in two days.

He gave up only a two-out single in the eighth to Wayne Terwilliger in whipping the Washington Senators, 7-0. Monday Jim McDonald of the New York Yankees beat the Boston Red Sox on one hit, also a single.

The loss knocked the Senators out of first place and pushed Detroit and Chicago to the top. Only a single game separates the first and last place teams.

A two-run homer by Del Ennis helped the Philadelphia Phillies to a 6-3 decision over the Brooklyn Dodgers as Murry Dickson posted his second straight victory. Ennis' blow in the fifth pinned the loss on the veteran Preacher Roe, who was making his first appearance of the season. Gil Hodges and Pee Wee Reese homered for the Dodgers.

Cincinnati's power-packed Redlegs kept pace with the Phils by battering St. Louis pitching for a 12-6 victory. Eddie Stanky threw in five pitchers in a futile effort to stop the Reds, whose 16 hit attack included homers by Wally Post, Andy Semnick and Gus Bell.

Antonielli Winner Milwaukee at Chicago was rained out. In the only daylight games the Chicago White Sox ran their winning streak to four and Johnny Antonelli pitched his first victory since being traded to the New York Giants.

Virgil Trucks pitched the White Sox to a 7-2 decision over the Detroit Tigers who now have lost two in a row at home after winning three straight on the road.

The 34-year-old former Tiger star scattered six hits. Nellie Fox led the Chicago 12-hit attack with three safeties and Minnie Minoso hit his second homer of the season. The loser was lefty Ted Gray, who lost his first nine games last season.

The Giants whipped Pittsburgh 6-2, as Antonelli settled down after a shaky start. He walked six men.

Waltons Slate Meeting Tonight

The Salem Izaak Walton chapter will hold a regular business meeting tonight, 8 o'clock, at the organization's clubhouse. The chief entertainment will be a movie, "Salt for Big Game," supplied by the State Board of Aeronautics. The film will show salt "licks" being dropped from airplanes on the big game ranges of Oregon and Idaho.

The Walton ladies auxiliary will provide refreshments for the meeting.

The Rockets sewed up the game in the third with a four-run outburst. Leslie 014 000 0-5 7 1
W-Salem 000 100 0-1 4 0
Blaco and Merk, Hazel (6); Johnson and Goertzen, Thomas (6).

The first race at the Churchill Downs spring meeting in 1899 was appropriately named "Opening Scramble."
