Polk County Lamb Show Dated May 29

DALLAS—Tentative date for this year's Polk County fat lamb show has been set for May 29, announces Don Rowland of Rickreall, president of the sponsoring Polk County Livestock Association.

The show, which will be held at the new county fairgrounds south of Rickreall, is being reactivated with the aid of the 20-40 club after a lapse of several years.

The show is designed to encourage the production of higher quality market lambs that are placed on the market at an early date with the goal of bringing higher prices to sheep producers. Polk County merchants will provide awards for the lamb show.

Fire Destroys Farm House Near Pedee

PEDEE—The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe O'Neal, five miles west of Pedee, was destroyed by fire that started about 6:30 p.m. Monday.

Sparks from a fire in a wood heater in the kitchen are believed to have ignited the roof.

No fire department was summoned since the property is not in a fire protection district. Neighbors kept the fire from spreading to another dwelling on the property in which Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neal live.

Most of the downstairs furniture was saved from the story-and-a-half house but all bedroom furniture was destroyed. It was reported that the house was insured but the furnishings were not.

The O'Neal's son had started a fire in the heater when he came home from school. The fire broke out while he and his father had gone for a load of wood.

Friends and neighbors are planning a shower for the burned-out family.
