

'Community Vision' Thursday

Jack Wright to Give Address; Noted Commentators Are Scheduled

DOROTHEA LENSCH

DR. LLOYD MILLHOLLEN

LILLIAN VAN LOAN

General PTA Session III, Thursday, 9:30 a.m. will feature an address on "Community Vision" by Jack E. Wright of Seattle, director of the Bureau of Community Development.

Wright was graduated from the University of Washington and had five years service during the war as a combat officer in the Corps of Engineers. He was awarded three battle stars and the Presidential Unit Citation in the European theater.

Following this he was for five years a staff member of the Division of Adult Education in the University of Washington. For two years he was connected with the Bureau of Community Development as consultant, previous to his appointment as director.

Following Wright's speech will be three commentators: Lloyd Millhollen, Lillian Van Loan and Dorothea Lensch.

Dr. Lloyd F. Millhollen Jr., is the director of education for secondary schools in Eugene and assistant professor of education at the University of Oregon. Following his graduation from Oregon State College, he received his M.S. and D.Ed. degrees at the University of Oregon. He taught school at Hood River and Corvallis. Following army service from 1941 to 1944, he was principal at University High School in Eugene from 1948 to 1952.

Lillian Van Loan, Corvallis, was born in Portland. Following her graduation from Jefferson High School she attended Oregon College of Education at Monmouth where she received her BS degree in 1924. She was supervisor of elementary schools in Salem during 1928 and 1929. After two years as principal of a private school in Medford she was married to Wendell L. Van Loan, now superintendent of Corvallis public schools. She received her master's degree at Oregon State College in 1932, and is now an instructor there in the school of education, and teacher of child development in the school of Home Economics. She has served as vice president of the State chapter of PEO, president of the Congregational Women's Fellowship, vice president of the Corvallis Women's Club, and is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, Pi Lambda Theta, Kappa Delta Pi and Phi Kappa Phi.

Miss Dorothea Lensch is chairman of recreation for the National Congress of Parents and Teachers and is director of the Portland Park Bureau's recreation division. She is a graduate of Wellesley College, with further study at the University of Oregon and George Washington University. Her special education includes four years of Russian ballet; modern dance under Harald Kreutzberg; summer session in Dresden, Germany; and work with Doris Humphreys, Martha Graham and Evelyn Davis.

She was a member of the faculty at Rockford College and George Washington University, and has been director of public recreation in Portland since June, 1937. She is a member of Mortar Board, Phi Beta Kappa, Pi Lambda Theta, Phi Beta, Orchestras, American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Miss Lensch was selected as Woman of the Year for 1953 by the Portland Woman's forum in recognition of her civic and professional activities and two years ago she was named one of Oregon's five "women of achievement" by Portland alumnae chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, national journalish honorary.
