

DR. LOUISE BATES AMES

Dr. Ames Will Speak

"Mental Locks" will be the title of the address to be given by Dr. Louise Bates Ames at General Session V, Friday at 9:00 a.m.

Dr. Ames was graduated from the University of Maine, 1930; received the degree of M.A. there in 1933; her Ph.D. from Yale, 1936. She was on the staff of the Yale Clinic of Child Development continuously from 1933 to 1948 as research secretary and personal assistant to Dr. Arnold Gesell, then as instructor and later as assistant professor. She was Curator of Yale Files of Child Development from 1944 to 1950.

She is a member of the American Psychological Association, Society for Research in Child Development, International Council of Women Psychologists (Board of Directors, 1945-1947); Society for Projective Techniques and Rorschach Institute, Inc.; charter member of the Connecticut State Psychological Society; certified psychologist, State of Connecticut, 1946; and a member of Sigma Xi.

She is collaborator or co-author of: "First Five Years," "Infant and Child in the Culture of Today," "The Child from Five to Ten," and "Child Rorschach Responses." She collaborates with Dr. Frances L. Ilg on the daily syndicated newspaper column "Child Behavior," and takes part in a weekly television broadcast "Child Behavior" on WBZ-TV in Boston. She is a member of the staff and special lecturer for Yale Summer School of Alcohol Studies.

Dr. Ames is being brought here by courtesy of the Oregon State Alcohol Education Committee.

Howard Miller Directs Music

Music for the PTA Convention has been planned by Howard F. Miller, director of music for Salem senior high school. In addition to Salem musicians, groups from other towns in this area will take part in the programs.

A group of songs will be presented by the PTA Mother singers at the Wednesday evening session of the congress.

Mrs. Betty Starr Anderson will be the soloist at General Assembly III, Thursday morning. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Schuelker.

Central High School of Monmouth and Independence will provide music at dinner I, Capitol Room, Senator Hotel. Janis Evans is the director.

Woodburn high school, in charge of Donald Jessop, director of music and Harriett Nizio, supervisor of vocal music, will take part in the program for dinner II, Gold Room, Marion Hotel.

Lebanon High School students, conducted by Lynn Sjolund, director of instrumental music at Sa school, will appear at dinner III, upper floor, Crystal Gardens, and furnishing the music for dinner IV, lower floor, Crystal Gardens, will be Salem High School musicians, Victor Palmason directing.

The Salem High School choir will sing at the session Thursday evening.

Meals Big Problem at Parley

Careful Plans Laid to Assure Food, Service

Planning group meals is a major part of any convention committee and planning for an estimated 1500 PTA delegates involves a tremendous amount of work for many people.

Food coordinator for this convention is Mrs. Emma D. Wasson, director of school lunch program for the Salem Public Schools.

Assisting her as co-chairman is Miss Emma Fischer. Scheduled as part of the convention program are eleven luncheons, five dinners, a men's breakfast and the Cherry Juice Special breakfast.

The Regional Luncheons are in charge of Mrs. Stewart Leek, chairman, and Mrs. Myron Butler, co-chairman. They will be held Friday, April 23 at 11:45 a.m.

Place for each and committee members in charge are:

Region I, delegates from Multnomah and Clackamas, Gold Room, Marion Hotel, Mrs. Kenneth Potts and Mrs. George Greig.

Region II, delegates from Hood River, Wasco and Sherman, Oak Room, Marion Hotel, Mrs. John Minifie.

Region III, delegates from Gilliam, Morrow, Umatilla and Wheeler, Capitol Room, The Spa, Mrs. P. D. Baker.

4 Counties in Region 4

Region IV, delegates from Walla, Union, Baker and Malheur, Cave Room, Senator, Mrs. Ted Bamford.

Region V, delegates from Deschutes, Crook, Jefferson, Harney and Grant, Camelia Room, Senator Hotel, Mrs. Robert Hartman.

Region VI, delegates from Klamath Lake, Chadwick Room, Senator Hotel, Mrs. W. J. Braun.

Region VII, delegates from Coos, Curry, Jackson and Josephine, Nohlgrens, Mrs. E. Emerson Teague.

Region VIII, delegates from Linn, Lane and Douglas, Capitol Room, Senator Hotel, Mrs. L. D. Clup.

Region IX, delegates from Benton, Marion, Polk and Lincoln, Golden Pheasant, Mrs. Lawrence Fitzgerald.

Region X, delegates from Clatsop, Columbia, Tillamook, Washington and Yamhill, Marine Room, Marion Hotel, Mrs. Francis Colman.

The luncheon for the board of managers Tuesday was held at the Cave Room, Senator Hotel, and was in charge of Mrs. S. V. Leek and Mrs. Myron Butler.

The Men's Breakfast is scheduled for Thursday, April 22, from 7:30 to 9:00 at the Cave Room, Senator Hotel. Arrangements were made by George Sirnio and Dick Sorick.

Locations Chosen

Mrs. H. A. Weddle, chairman of the major dinners being held Thursday at 8:30 p.m., has planned them for the following locations, supervised by her committee members:

Dinner I, first floor of Crystal Gardens, Mrs. Lloyd Oberson.

Dinner II, Capitol Room, Senator Hotel, Mrs. John Coomler.

Dinner III, second floor of Crystal Gardens, Mrs. Marshall Barrett.

Dinner IV, Gold Room of the Marion Hotel, Mrs. Hugh Adams.

Mrs. Shirley Shotts assisted Mrs. Weddle with the dinner for the board of managers Tuesday evening at China City.

Delegates will see the new YW building at the Cherry Juice Special breakfast Friday morning.

Folk songs and ballads will be sung by Dr. John Curtin, principal of Henry School, Independence.

Mrs. Carl Greider, chairman, and Mrs. Glen Weaver, co-chairman, have been assisted in the arrangements by Mrs. Philip Brandt and Mrs. Ted Jenny.

Potential arrangements for non-convention meals at various restaurants and hotels were investigated by Mrs. L. E. McLaughlin and Mrs. Charles Ladd.

DR. JOHN SCHULZ

Dr. J. Schulz To Lead Panel

Miss Loraine Fletcher of Portland, Mrs. Norton Peck of Beaverton, Gardner Knapp of the Salem School Board and two Salem High School students will comprise the panel which will discuss "Together We Build—Home and School" at General Session V, Thursday at 8:00. Moderator will be Dr. John Schulz of Eugene.

Miss Fletcher is a teacher, Mrs. Peck a parent.

Dr. Schulz is associate professor of psychology and field representative of the Department of Statewide Services for the University of Oregon. He received his AB at Reed College, MEd at the University of Oregon, DEd at University of Southern California.

School Buses Available for Special Tours

In order that PTA delegates may have the opportunity of seeing some of the points of interest in Oregon's Capital City, the Salem School District has provided 10 buses for conducted tours.

These tours are scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m.

A Salem PTA member will go in each bus to point out various landmarks.

These announcers are: Mrs. Wayne Fetters, Mrs. Russell Millet, Mrs. Fred Remington, Mrs. Joseph Worden, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Keith Moses, Mrs. D. D. Ray, Mrs. Robert Brady, Mrs. Charles Musser, Mrs. Fred Scheidegger and Mrs. Frank Buzzell. Ray Cates and Fred Remington are chairmen of the tours committee.

The buses will leave the Marion County Court House and proceed to Center Street for a view of the Capitol Mall, then through the State Hospital grounds, past the Forestry Department and Penitentiary. From there they will drive to the Cottage Farm, tuberculosis Hospital, Penitentiary, Annex, Hillcrest School and the Fairview Home. Visitors will be conducted through the new Morningside Grade School and from there be taken to Candalaria Heights for a view of the valley and the mountains.

The buses will then return to the Capitol building for a tour of the building.

Dr. W. C. Jones To Be Speaker

Dr. William C. Jones, who will speak at one of the four dinner meetings Thursday, is executive director of the Western Interstate Commission for higher education. Previous to this he was dean of administration at the University of Oregon, which included a term as acting president of the institution. He is a former president of Whittier College, head of the Department of Political Science at Eugene, and professor of public administration and business at Willamette.
