Appeal Due on Coast County Seat Election

The State Supreme Court Wednesday will hear arguments in the suit brought by John D. Kosydar attacking the election which resulted in transferring the Lincoln County seat from Toledo to Newport.

Plaintiff contends the election was not called by the County Court as required by law. Members of the County Court are listed as defendants in the suit. The suit previously was dismissed by the Lincoln County Circuit Court and plaintiff appealed to the Supreme Court.

Kosydar filed the suit in the role of a taxpayer.

Also to be heard Wednesday is the case of the State ex rel State Dental Association, against members of the State Board of Higher Education, involving the management of the State Dental School in Portland.

The Dental Association contends the school is a separate and distinct department of the higher educational system, to be administered directly under supervision of the Higher Education Board. Defendants contend the dental school should be an appendage of the University of Oregon.

Marion County Circuit Judge Rex Kimmel held for the dental association.
