Initiation Held For Miss Miller

MILL CITY — Members of Marilyn chapter, O.E.S., driving to Scio Monday night to watch Cedar Chapter put on the initiatory work for Patricia Miller, daughter of Worthy Patron Keith Miller and Secretary Wava Miller, were Mrs. W. B. Shuey and Mrs. Charles Kelly, accompanied by Mrs. R. Roberts of Lyons, who is a member of Victoria Chapter at Turner.

The occasion was of particular interest as Lela Kelly of Mill City was courtesy candidate with Patricia. Both girls are past worthy advisors of Acacia Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, and are now students at Oregon State College. Girl from the Rainbow Assembly, headed by Worthy Advisor Karen Kelly from Jefferson, put on a degree for the new candidate.

Coeds Reveal Betrothals On Campus

Several betrothals were revealed on the Willamette University Campus the past week. The engagement of Miss Sally Jo Grimm and Bob Scheaffer was told at an Easter egg hunt at the Pi Beta Phi house Sunday evening. The wedding is set for August 23 in Vancouver, Wash., where they both live.

Miss Grimm, a junior at Willamette, is a guide at the State Capitol. She was Varsity Queen, a member of the Sigma Chi Sweetheart Court, Homecoming Sweetest, Convocations Board secretary and recording secretary of Pi Phi.

Mr. Schaeffer is a junior at the Willamette law school and is a member of Phi Delta Theta.

Wisnom-Joseph
Announced jointly at the University of Oregon and Willamette was the engagement of Miss Ruth Joseph of Burley, Idaho to David Wisnom of San Mateo, Calif.

Miss Joseph attended Willamette for two years, where she was a member of Chi Omega. She was a member of the rally squad, Beta Alpha Gamma, Alpha Lambda Delta, and secretary of her class. She is now president of her sorority at Oregon and is majoring in speech therapy.

Mr. Wisnom is a junior member of Phi Delta Theta, majoring in business administration. He also served as president of his class.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Hargreaves-Varner
Announced at the Alpha Chi Omega house Monday evening was the engagement of Miss Lela Varner of Ogden, Utah, to Hal Hargreaves of Portland.

Miss Varner is a junior transfer majoring in sociology. Mr.

Dances Will Hold Social Spotlight

Dancing is the main interest this weekend at Willamette University as three groups will sponsor their spring house dances.

"Moon Mist" is the theme of Chi Omega's annual spring formal to be held tonight from 9 to 12 o'clock at the Labor Temple. Music will be furnished by Glenn Benner's band.

A smorgasbord dinner will be featured at Beta Theta Pi's formal house dance, "Beta Chalet," to be held at the chapter house Saturday night from 7 o'clock to midnight. Dancing will be to the music of Wayne Meusey and his orchestra.

Sigma Chi members and their dates will attend the costume dance, "Pirate's Paradise," at the chapter house Saturday evening from 9 to 12 o'clock. The setting will be in a pirates' den, filled with treasures, while couples will be dressed in the garb of the days when pirates roamed the seas.

The following day the Sigs will journey to Neskowin for a beach party to complete the annual weekend.

Newly elected officers of Phi Beta Sigma, freshman men's scholastic honorary, are president, John Edmundson of Hood River; vice president, Don Agnew of Gresham; and treasurer, Hugh Armstrong of Newberg.

Salem Coed Elected
Arda Lien of Salem was elected president of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholarship honorary. Assisting her will be vice president, Sally Jones of Longview, Wash.; secretary, Lois Monk of Salem; treasurer, Shirley Ulinder of Potlatch, Idaho; and historian, Pat Gordon of San Mateo, Calif.

Pi Beta Phi will be celebrating its 88th birthday on April 20 and is planning a joint party with the two active chapters at Oregon State College and the University of Oregon.

Paul Johnson of Albany was pledged to Phi Delta Theta this week.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon members and pledges will play hosts to their parents for the second annual Parents Day Sunday. After group attendance at church, the outstanding freshman and senior awards will be presented and the Mothers' Club $100 scholarship recipient will be announced.

Dean Robert Gregg will be guest speaker at the banquet, which will follow the awards.

Hargreaves is a junior religion-philosophy major and is president of inter-faith council in Unesco. No date has been set for the wedding.

To Installation At Champogeg

A large group of members of Marion Post 661 VFW and the Auxiliary to the Post attended the installation of Champogeg VFW Post and Auxiliary at Woodburn on Wednesday night. Mrs. Roy Adamson was installed as president of the Auxiliary and Roy Thompson was installed as commander of the Post.

Duck Preview To Attract Seniors

EUGENE — "Duck Preview, 1954" is taking the spotlight this week and over 1,500 high school seniors are expected to be on campus for a preview of college life. Gloria Stoik is advertising for the variety show to be held Friday night after the future "Oregonites" have visited the many exhibits in the different departments of the University.

Held in conjunction with Duck Preview is the World Student Service Fund drive. Bob Hazel was nominated for the "Ugly Man" contestant. The semi-finalists will be named Friday and will be determined by the amount of money for the drive each contestant has collected in his name.

Duck Previewers will meet with the advisors of departments in which they are interested on Saturday morning when there is also an orientation assembly and tours of the campus. The activities of the afternoon will include a water show by the Amphibians (members of the women's swimming honorary); a baseball game between the Ducks and the Salem Senators; and a track meet with the Washington State Cougars.

A semi-formal dance Saturday night will conclude the university-planned program for the visitors, but many of the living organizations are inviting their guests to Sunday dinner.
