Demo Shelters GOP Stray

BEVERLY, Mass. (AP) — Political party barriers evaporate when a lost dog is involved.

Tuesday, Mrs. George Lodge notified Beverly police her husband, son of Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., U.S. ambassador to the United Nations and a staunch Republican, had lost their handsome Irish setter in Washington.

Wednesday police received a telegram from Sen. John F. Kennedy (D—Mass.), who won his Senate seat from the ambassador, stating he had found and was sheltering the Republican stray, identified by its license tag.
