160 Christian Pupils Sign In For Meet Here

(Picture on Page 1)
Over 160 students from six Christian high schools in Oregon, Washington and Canada had registered Thursday evening for the music festival and track meet at Salem Academy.

Highlighting today's activities will be the Grand Festival program at 7:30 p.m. in the academy gymnasium featuring the massed choirs and bands of the participating schools.

Also on the program will be outstanding soloists and group singers selected by school officials during rehearsals this afternoon.

Sponsored by the Northwest Fellowship and Christian Schools, headed by J. H. Turnidge, president of Salem Academy, the festival may become an annual affair, according to E. J. Schroeder, principal of Salem Academy.

The athletic part of the meet will start at 4 o'clock this afternoon when Salem Academy's baseball team meets Sacred Heart Academy, also of Salem, Saturday morning from 9:30 to noon a track meet is scheduled at Salem Academy.

Schools represented at the festival are Western Mennonite School, located west of Salem; King's Garden High School, Seattle; King's College Christian High School, Vancouver, B. C.; Portland Christian School; Bend Christian High School; and Seattle Christian High School. Expected to arrive today are delegates from Spokane's Northwest Christian High School.

Salem Schools

SALEM HIGH SCHOOL
Helen Lewis has been elected president of Girls' League at Salem High School for the coming school year. She defeated Jan McAlpine in the elected yesterday.

Other Girls' League officers elected were Carol Werner, vice president; Jan Gillespie, secretary; and Judith Byers, treasurer.

Sawmill Fire Calls Aurora Volunteers

Statesman News Service
AURORA—The Aurora Rural Volunteer Fire Department was called to a fire Thursday evening at the Robert Hurst sawmill, located one mile southwest of town. Loss was estimated at about $100.

Firemen attributed the fire to sparks flying off the sawdust pile onto the conveyor.

When potassium vapor is burned it produces a violet flame.

Control Board Cancels Next Week's Meet

Next week's meeting of the state Board of Control, originally set for Tuesday, has been cancelled, Roy Mills, Board of Control secretary, said Thursday.

Gov. Paul L. Patterson will be in Washington, D. C., attending a meeting of governors called by President Eisenhower while Secretary of State Earl T. Newbry will be in Sun Valley, Idaho.

Discussion at the Washington conference will center largely on power development. Governor Patterson is slated to leave for the national capitol by airplane Saturday morning. He will return here the following Thursday.

3 Business Names Filed With County

Three certificates of assumed business names were filed Thursday with the Marion County Clerk's office.

Charles G. Kopald registered the names of Construction Men—United and Foreign Opportunities with both addresses in room 305 of the Oregon Building. Purpose of the first is assisting construction men in locating work in this country and overseas. Nature of the second firm was listed as advertising.

The business name of Fischer's Landing at Detroit, was filed by Jesse A. and Ethel Moses, both of Detroit. Nature of the new firm was listed as a retail sporting goods store and boat rentals.

Dairy Board Receives New Regulations

The Dairy Industry Relations Advisory Committee to the State Agricultural Department Thursday was given a preview of proposed new regulations under the 1953 Dairy Products Plant Act.

This clears the way for a public hearing to be held sometime next month. O. K. Beals, chief of the department's division of foods and dairies, said.

The advisory committee is composed of representatives of the three statewide dairy groups, Oregon Dairy Industries, Oregon Dairymen Association, and the Northwest Association of Retail Ice Cream Manufacturers.

Members, appointed by presidents of the respective associations, include H. S. Dixon, Tillamook; Fred Klaus, and Gordon Hofstetter, Salem; Marvin Davidson and L. W. Hammack, Portland; Milton Rider, Oregon City; Fred Knox, Gaston; John Pugh, Sheed; Otto Schild, Tillamook, and Dick Hess, Dayton.

Department officials invited dairy leaders at the State College to attend Thursday's meeting. Besides an entire new set of milk products plant regulations, some attention was given to a review of the fluid milk regulations.

Mrs. Kader's Case Decision Due in Court

Reports here Thursday indicated that the State Supreme Court probably will hand down a decision early next week in the case of Mrs. Jada Z. Kader, Portland, under 15 years penitentiary sentence for manslaughter.

She was convicted in the Multnomah County Circuit Court of slaying her youngest daughter, Sherrie Ellen, 3, by asphyxiation, and placing her body in a dump.

Mrs. Kader first told police her daughter was kidnapped but later told officers to the dump where the body was recovered.

Appeal to the supreme court was based on alleged errors of the trial court and that she was convicted solely on circumstantial evidence.

Mrs. Kader is now in the state penitentiary pending decision on her appeal.

The crime occurred Jan. 23, 1952, and she was convicted on June 27 of the same year. The jury was composed of five men and seven women.
