Q. When a husband and wife have a single male guest at dinner, should he be served first, or should the hostess?

A. The hostess, as the only woman present, should be served first. If there were another woman present, she would, of course, be served first.

Q. Is it required that a woman wear a hat when she goes to a restaurant during the day?

A. If she wishes to be proper, she wears a hat.

Q. If a man is standing on crowded bus talking with his fiancee who is seated, and the seat next to her is vacated, is it all right for him to seat himself next to her, or should he allow one of the standing women to take the
