To Honor Miss Johnson
Miss Evelyn Johnson, popular June bride-elect of Richard J. Page of San Francisco, will be the honor guest at a pre-nuptial luncheon for which Mrs. Herbert L. Stiff, Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny and Mrs. Daniel J. McLellan will be hostesses on Tuesday afternoon.

The affair will be held at the home of Mrs. Stiff on North Winter Street. Covers will be placed for sixteen friends of the guest of honor.

Two Dances Calendars
The Wisteria and Carousel Dancing Clubs will hold their last dances of the season this coming weekend. Wisteria club members will have a sports dance Friday night at the VFW Hall. Dancing will be from 9 to 12 o'clock with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar V. Amo as chairman of the committee. Election of officers will also be held during the dance.

Carousel Dance club will also hold a sports dance Saturday night at the Izaak Walton Clubhouse. Urs Wolfer and his orchestra will play for dancing. New officers for the ensuing year will be elected during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. James Welch head the directorate and assisting are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cave, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Croft, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tibbutt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hutchins and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Croghan.

Cirque Club Formal
The Cirque Club is announcing its spring formal dinner dance for Saturday night, May 22 at the American Legion Club. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sommer will head the committee for the affair.

Mary Nopp to Be Married

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Nopp are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Randall Hartleben, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hartleben Jr. of Hankinson, North Dakota. The couple plan a fall wedding. The bride-elect is a student nurse at Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland and will graduate on May 21. Her fiancé, who was recently released from the U. S. Army, plans to make his home in Oregon.

Mrs. Marvin J. McKee, the former Joan Marie Langford before her marriage Saturday afternoon at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fogle and the groom is the son of the L. H. McKees. (Hester Miller Studio.)

St. Joseph's Nuptials Setting

Baskets of white and pink gladioluses and white snapdragons formed the setting for the marriage of Miss Joan Marie Langford, niece of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fogle, and Marvin J. McKee, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McKee of Perrydale, on Saturday afternoon at St. Joseph's Catholic church.

The four o'clock ceremony was performed by Father Joseph Vanderbeck. Soloists were Miss Lorraine Nelke and Gerald Neitling. Mrs. Raymond Barton was the organist.

Of nylon tulle and imported Chantilly lace was the bridal gown, fashioned with a portrait neckline with a fitted, petal-scalloped bodice. The bouffant skirt was designed with tiers edged in lace applique and terminating in a court train. A cap of lace and sequins held in place her fingertip French illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley centered with a white orchid. Louis Foltz gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Dolores Dornbusch was the maid of honor and Miss Harriett Guild, Mrs. Gordon McKee, Miss Lavon Brannon and Miss Joan Travis, the bridesmaids. They all wore identical frocks of coral nylon net with a side cascade to the hemline of the floor length skirt. The gowns were made with short jackets, a calli collar and three-quarter length sleeves. They wore matching picture hats of lace and nylon net and carried basket bouquets of white and blue painted daisies and sweet peas.

Mary Beth Dornbusch, sister of the maid of honor, was the flower girl and also wore a coral net frock.

Brother Is Best Man
Gordon McKee stood with his brother as best man and ushers were David Foltz, the bride's brother, Edward Hemann and George Hemann, Jr., cousins of the bride, William McKee, the groom's cousin, and Rodney Ault.

Mrs. Elwood Nelson attended her daughter's wedding in a white and green dress with green accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Fogle chose a champagne lace gown with pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds for her niece's marriage. The groom's mother wore a black and white costume suit with white accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Reception at Woman's Club
The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception at the Salem Woman's club. Pouring were Mrs. John Albrich and Mrs. Francis T. Albrich and cutting the cake were Mrs. George Hemann and Mrs. Lawrence Alley, all aunts of the bride. Assisting were Mrs. John Godlove, Mrs. Willis E. Vincent, Jr., Mrs. Vernon Tracy, Miss Audra Garbarino, Miss Rita O'Brien, Miss Dorothy Kessel and Miss Georgeann Burghart.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to California and Nevada, the new Mrs. McKee donned a dusty rose suit with matching stole and black accessories. The newlyweds will be at home at Perrydale after May 20.

Miss Beverly Mott Tells Betrothal

Taking the romantic spotlight today is Miss Beverly Mott, youngest daughter of Mrs. James W. Mott and the late Congressman Mott, whose engagement to Gary Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Jones, is being revealed. The wedding of the duo is planned for next winter.

The bride-elect told a group of her intimate friends of her betrothal Saturday afternoon at an informal coffee at the country home of her mother at Zena.

Miss Mott attended Mt. Angel Academy and is a graduate of Salem High School. She attended Oregon State College and is a member of Alpha Phi. She left college spring term to accompany her mother to Washington, D.C., where she represented the Young Republicans at the national Republican Women's convention. She is now employed at the Secretary of State's office.

Mr. Jones is a graduate of Salem schools and is a sophomore at Oregon State College. He is a member of Sigma Chi.

Guests at the coffee first learned of the engagement news when two small kittens were let out of a paper bag. Tied around the neck of each were the names of the engaged duo, "Bev and Gary."

An all white decorative scheme was used throughout the house with bouquets of spring blossoms, dogwood and lilacs. On the dining room table was a centerpiece of forget-me-nots and lily-of-the-valley, the Alpha Phi flowers, flanked by white tapers.

Attending the announcement party were the mothers of the couple, Mrs. James W. Mott and Mrs. Gail Jones, Misses Justine Lewis, Anita Tanning, Barbara Franzwa, Carol Svinth, Patricia Healy, Donna Vogt, Sharon Larson, Diane Bulman, Joan Juul, and Noreen Nelson.
