Miss Lois Artz Becomes Bride Of Louis Turin at Church Rites

Yellow and ice blue were the colors selected for the beautiful spring wedding of Miss Lois Ann Artz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Artz and Louis Turin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Turin of Mt. Angel, on Saturday morning. The ceremony took place at St. Vincent dePaul Catholic Church with Father John Reedy officiating at the 9:30 o'clock nuptial mass. Baskets of yellow and blue flowers were arranged at the altar and chancel rail. Gerald Neitling was the soloist and Wayne Meusey the organist. Mass servers were Richard Artz, brother of the bride, and William Meier . . .

For her wedding the attractive blonde bride selected a lovely gown of white nylon net over satin fashioned with embroidered panels on the full skirt which terminated in a train. The embroidered nylon bodice was designed with a V neckline, and long sleeves. Her fingertip illusion veil cascaded from a coronet of lace enhanced with rhinestones and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley centered with a white orchid . . .

Three attendants and a flower girl preceded the bride to the altar. Mrs. Vincent Traeger was her sister's honor matron and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Peter Ruedel, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Pauline Turin of Portland, the groom's sister. The attendant wore ice blue net over taffeta and the bridesmaids wore pale yellow. Their waltz length dresses were made with tiered skirts and short jackets with turn up collars. They wore matching shoes and carried bouquets of carnations the color of their dresses. Their headbands were also of matching carnations . . .

Sheri Renee Boehmer, daughter of the Neil Boehmers, was the flower girl. She wore an ice blue net frock over taffeta and carried a basket of yellow flowers . . .

Vincent Traeger stood with the groom as best man. The groomsmen were Willfred Epping of Seattle and John Ellariago of Portland and ushers included Peter Ruef, Glen Clark and Thomas Stapleton . . .

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Artz chose a navy blue dress with white trim, white hat and navy and white accessories. Her flowers were red roses and stepanotis. Mrs. Turin attended her son's marriage in a navy dress, with pink trim and navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses and stephanotis . . .

Breakfast and Reception A wedding breakfast at the Senator Hotel followed the ceremony and in the afternoon the newlyweds were feted at a reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Pouring were Mrs. George Bauer and Mrs. Fred Bennett, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Glen Clark, the groom's sister, cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. James Collieran, Miss Donna Lenniger, Mrs. Robert White, and Karen Artz, sister of the bride, passed the guest book . . .

When the couple left on their wedding trip to California the new Mrs. Turin donned a petal pink suit with white collar and cuffs, and navy and white hat accessories. After June 1 the newlyweds will be at home in Woodburn . . .

Mrs. H. G. Carl will be hostess to the Etokta Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon at a 1:15 dessert luncheon at her home, 965 E Street. There will be a plant exchange during the afternoon. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. W. E. Hanson, Mrs. E. M. McKee and Mrs. Clifton Ross . . .

United Spanish War Veterans and auxiliary will meet at the Salem Woman's club Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. The past presidents of the auxiliary will be entertained Friday at the home of Mrs. Charles O. Wilson, 701 N. Cottage St., at a 1:15 dessert luncheon . . .

United Commercial Travelers auxiliary will be entertained at a 1 o'clock salad luncheon Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. E. Hicks, 1740 N. 23rd street . . .

Don't Look Now . . .

but . . . have you heard the singing commercial for a certain state politician? Following his short statement, comes the sultry voice singing something like this to the tune of Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet "Get on the Dum-dee-dum bandwagon And keep prosperity from draggin' Poets and politics, we'd say, don't mix. Chickle, chuckle . . . Wherever else could you get so much fun out of living? Every time our city engineering department closes up Glen Greek Road and detours us to Rosemont, they close up Rosemont. And we were afraid they'd forgotten us this year, but after three weeks of detouring, sure enough, this morning the street department was gaily cutting down a tree in the street at West Salem City park and around the block we went. Last time they took the opportunity to dig a ditch across the street. But they'll never . . . let us down, we know. There's probably just as much fun out your way if you look for it. Walkie talkie . . . Postman, they say, spend their leisure time walking, sailors like to row and now we realize that telephone men love to telephone. Never have we known a repairman to leave without calling up someone and chatting. Water water . . . It is ironic that almost in the same breath that we are told about preparations for a possible flood of the high rivers, we are warned of forest fire danger. Old Lady Nature keeps herself in the headlines . . . Maxine Buren
