House Dances To Highlight Weekend

By ANNE FORRISTEL
Statesman Correspondent

CORVALLIS — An exciting weekend is in store for Oregon Staters, with many house dances on the agenda. . . . Friday evening will see Patsy Snider and Virginia Lively at the Kappa Alpha Theta formal dance. Presenting leis to their dates at the Phi Phi "Aloha" dance will be Clarice and Claudia Waters, and Jody Ricketts. . . . Going in costume to the Delta Gamma dance will be Janet McDonald, Leonore Phillipi, Charlen Woods, and Edna Manning.

Saturday night the boys have done the inviting for their various house dances. . . . The Miami Triad, which includes the Betas, Sigma Chi, and Phi Deltis, will include many Salem boys. John Clayton, Larry Paulus, Jack Beckey, and Gary Jones. . . . Attending the Sigma Phi Epsilon "Fireman's Ball" will be Don Davis, Steve Merchant, and Fred Buchanan.

Leading the Sigma Alpha Epsilons to first place in the Interfraternity sing, held last Friday evening, was Dick Meyer of Salem. The two winning songs which Dick led were the "S.A.E. Marching Song," and "Down the Oregon Trail." Jim Todd, also of Salem, led the Sigma Phi Epsilons to third place. Second place was awarded to the Kappa Sigma.

Spring Term Brings Pinnings
Announced last week at the Delta Delta Delta house was the pinning of Nan Steele to Ted Romanoff, Phi Delta. Nancy Moorfield also announced her pinning to Hjalmar Davis, Phi Sigma Kappa, to her Delta Delta Delta sister. Sue Carnahan, Delta Gamma, announced her pinning to Bob Jones, Kappa Delta Rho, last week.

An O.S.C. tradition from 1916 to 1937 was revived last week with the placing of a four-by-eight foot "senior carving table" on the Memorial Union patio. Space is available for all members of the senior class to carve initials or names. All of the tables made in the earlier years will soon be placed in the corridors of the coliseum. . . . Among their names on the table are Mary Feike, John Enger, Beverly Folsom.

Mrs. Ward Will Present Students

Mrs. Franklin Ward will present her piano students in recital at the Stone Piano Co Saturday night at 8 o'clock. Each pupil will be featured in solo and ensemble playing, duet and duo-piano. . . . Susan Geibel will greet the guests and distribute the programs. A reception will follow with Mrs. Grover L. Bellingier presiding at the punch bowl. Mrs. Ward.

Students Take Part in Junior Weekend

By MARCIA WEBB
Statesman Correspondent

EUGENE — The "Freshmen Frolic" in Fenton Pool, Thursday, started Junior Weekend off with a splash. Tradition violators Gloria Stolk and Pat Deeney were forcibly "cooled off" by Order-of-the-O members and a crowd of brave spectators soon followed suit.

A demand bid for Chuck Huggins and Ann Ritchey, as well as many other violators or "O" acquaintances, kept the campus deserted by all "land lubbers". However, many, in "true Duck fashion" took to the water.

Vivienne Brown, Pat Deeney and Sally Jo Greig were among the many tired students at the Terrace Dance following the All-Campus Clean-up. The Junior Weekend Court was introduced and included Nancy Murrow, Spokane, Janet Miller, Oregon City, Dorothy Kopp, Eugene, and Alma Owens and Janet Wick of Portland.

The Freshmen-Sophomore Tug-of-War stopped mill race workers on the floats for the parade Friday afternoon due to locational hazards. Sophomore men, including Jim Matheson, outnumbered by the freshmen, 3 to 1, took the first swim of the afternoon, but the mill race accepted everyone present before the spectators and victors could run for dry safety.

At the Junior Prom, "Tradition Review," Friday night, Janet Wick was crowned Junior Weekend Queen. Julie Miller headed the program committee for the most important dance of the year and Phil Ringle, Roger Middleton and Pat Deeney were among the many enjoying the music of Ernie Fields.

Mothers' Weekend officially began Saturday morning with the Mothers' Breakfast but many enjoyed Friday's entertainment. Gloria Stolk and Sally Jo Greig were publicity co-chairmen of the weekend "for Mom".

Tapped to Honorary
Mrs. Urlin Page saw her son, Scott, tapped by Asklepiads, pre-medical honorary, at the All Campus luncheon. Three other honoraries also marched among students and their mothers, tapping prospective members.

Salon Elects New Officers
Marion County Salon 412 of 8 et al 40 was entertained Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Walter Miller in Woodburn. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. W. O. Green and Mrs. Helen McLeod. Mrs. A. J. Cleveland presided at the meeting.

Election of officers was held for the coming year and include Mrs. Walter Miller, president; Mrs. Austin H. Wilson Sr., first vice-president; Mrs. Theodore Ullakko, second vice-president; Mrs. H. H. Henry, historian; Miss Loretta Dahler, Mt. Angel, sergeant-at-arms. Mrs. Miller appointed Mrs. W. O. Green as secretary-treasurer.

This was the annual fun night and initiation was held for Mrs. Jerome Hansen and Mrs. Ida Hofer, Mt. Angel. Delegates and alternates were elected to the annual parade to be held in Klamath Falls July 19-20. Delegates-at-large include Mrs. Stanley Krueger, Independence, and Mrs. Albert C. Graag, Ellen. Delegates elected include Mrs. A. J. Cleveland, Mrs. Walter Miller, Mrs. Earl Andersen, Mrs. Austin Wilson and Mrs. John Woods. Alternates include Mrs. Jerome Hansen, Mrs. Earl Richardson of Dallas, Mrs. Harry Humphreys of Stayton, Mrs. Lue Lucas and Mrs. O. E. Palmateer.

This was the last meeting for the season with a picnic scheduled for July and installation in September.

The Golden Age Club will meet this afternoon at the YWCA building at 1:30 p.m. This club, composed of men and women 65 years and older, is inviting to all interested people to join the group. The program today will consist of proverbs, music, games and refreshments.

Hunt Clark and Mrs. Douglas Yeater will assist. Appearing on the program are Susan Ramsdell, Bobby Rieck, Juli Frazier, Joyce Yeater, Colene and Candis Clark, Jeanie and Lawrence Bellingier, Diane and Dean Hulbert, Carolyn and Jim King, Lawrence and Ellen Ward.

Plans Completed For Annual Sale

Plans for the annual poppy sale to be held May 27 and 28 were completed at the meeting of Capital Unit 9, American Legion Auxiliary Monday night at the Salem Woman's Clubhouse.

Mrs. Glenn Holman, unit chairman for the sale, will entertain her poppy sale workers at a coffee this morning at her Schurman Road home between 10 and 1 o'clock. Mrs. Neil Witting, corresponding secretary, will also entertain the workers at coffee this afternoon at her South High Street home between 2 and 5 p.m.

Mrs. Leon Brown gave a report on Girls' State to be held in June on the Willamette campus. At the June 7 meeting of the unit there will be election of officers and election of delegates to the department convention to be held in Coos Bay in July.

Bridal Shower for Miss Freeby

Mrs. Raymond Randall entertained at a bridal shower Tuesday for the pleasure of Miss Cecelia Freeby, June bride-elect of Waldo Willecke.

Honoring Miss Freeby were Mrs. Mavis Rickert, Mrs. J. Earl Cook, Mrs. Raymond Myers, Mrs. Silas Olson, Mrs. Robert Clausen, Mrs. John C. Mann, Mrs. Clarke C. Brown, Mrs. Arthur Holscher, Mrs. Lawrence Buhler and Mrs. Lynn F. Woods.

Heading the all-campus sing of Saturday evening was Ann Gerlinger of Dallas. Mrs. Earl Heider and Sharon, Mrs. James Walton and Jeff, and Sharon Brown with her parents, the Keith Browns, heard Campbell Club and Carson Hall take top honors.

Members of Kwama
Mrs. William Deeney was in the audience when her daughter, Pat, was tapped for Kwama, sophomore Women's honorary, along with Sally Jo Greig and Mary Gerlinger.

Ann Ritchey was one of 20 outstanding sophomore women tapped by Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's service honorary, Monday evening.

Sunday morning completed the status change of freshmen to sophomores, sophomores to juniors, and juniors to seniors. With less than 20 study-days before final week, however, few students will take the time to use and abuse their newly acquired privileges.

Kay Perrin Is Bride of Mr. Elliott

Miss Kay M. Perrin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Perrin, and John A. Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Elliott, Klamath Falls, exchanged their marriage vows at an 8 o'clock ceremony May 15 at the Knight Memorial Congregational Church.

The Rev. Louis E. White officiated and Richard Smart was the soloist. Mrs. Lewis Mitchell was the organist. Lighting the tapers were Miss Vivian Chance and Miss Doreen Cavender, who wore pink organdy frocks.

The bridal gown was of Chantilly lace with a net over satin skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught to a satin bandeau with braided illusion and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink Rapture roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Walter H. Reeve was the honor matron and she wore a green frocked organdy dress and carried a fan bouquet of pink Elfe roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Trisha Perrin was her sister's bridesmaid and wore a dress identical to the honor attendants and carried a fan of the same flowers.

Attend the Groom
Edward Halberg was best man and Stanley Gottschalk the groomsmen. Ushers were Barney Holland, John Whitty and Fred Turner.

Mrs. Perrin wore a rose lace gown with navy accessories and corsage of roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Elliott chose a grey suit with white accessories and corsage of pink roses.

A reception followed in the fireplace room with Mrs. J. S. Matthews cutting the cake. Pouring were Mrs. C. G. Abbott and Mrs. Gil Ogden.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the new Mrs. Elliott wore a pink and aqua print dress with black patent leather accessories, and pink top coat. The newlyweds will live in Salem.
