NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball blushed and admitted Thursday that it's not unusual for a major league club to put watchdogs on the after-game habits of some of its players.

While second baseman Granny Hamner of the Philadelphia Phillies angrily charged owner Bob Carpenter with "Gestapo tactics," Commissioner Ford Frick issued the following statement: "It is my understanding that all major league baseball clubs, at one time or another, have had their players' habits investigated. It used to be quite a common practice, but I think it has largely discontinued."

"It is no violation of baseball law." The case of the baseball "spies" long an open secret in the sport, came to public attention this week when Carpenter disclosed he had hired a private detective to check into the social activities of some of his hirings. Hamner, a $25,000-a-year infielder from Richmond, Va., complained to police that a man had been following him. Police arrested Charles Leland, who turned out to be an investigator who Carpenter said was hired by him. Carpenter said this was general baseball practice. Baseball men said, well, yes and no.

Philly Chief Makes Apology

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Owner Bob Carpenter of the Philadelphia Phillies apologized Thursday for public embarrassment caused second baseman Granny Hamner by a private detective the club hired to see whether players were observing the curfew rules. The club owner told a press luncheon he didn't blame Hamner for being angry after the player caught a private investigator trailing him home from the ball park. Tuesday night after Hamner reported to police he was being followed.

Preps Have Some Tall Marks to Shoot at in State Meet

By AL LIGHTNER
Statesman Sports Editor
The state's top prep track and fielders will be off and running today at Corvallis as the two-day state cinder meet gets started with preliminary events at noon. The finals commence at 1 p. m. on Saturday. The big show is to take place on old Bell Field on the Oregon State College campus. If the striving athletes are to notch any new records in the Class A division of the meet, they have some tall chores to accomplish. Some of the marks have stood for years and one, the 880, has not been bettered since 1912.

when Vere Windnagle of Washington High did the two laps in 1:56.8. Other Class A records are as follows:
100: Bob Grayson, Jefferson (32) and Bob Lesley, Klamath Falls (34) in 9.9. 220 (curve): Reg Brady, Washington (32) in 21.8; (straightaway): Geoff Griffin, Pendleton (39) in 22.3. (OSC track has curve.) 440: Ray Johnson, Medford (40) in 49.5. Mile: George Fullerton, Ashland (46) in 4:24. High hurdles: Frank Morris, Medford (51) in 14.4. Low hurdles: Morris in 19.3. Shot: Jack Moak, Medford (53) at 57' 8 1/2". Discus: Jerry Langer, Ashland (51) at 156' 9". Javelin: Chuck Missfeldt, Milwaukie (48) at 211' 1". High jump: Ken Elliott, Adrian (45) at 6' 3". Pole vault: George Rasmussen, Bend (48) at 12' 9". Relay: Medford team of 1948, in 1:31.2.
Going into the meet with best possibilities of wrecking a record or two are Woodburn High's Gene Fick in the 220 and Albany's Bob Amble in the discus. Fick tied the 21.8 mark in his district meet here, and Amble topped the discus record during his district finals.
The Class B records are as follows: 100: Earl Covey, Phoenix (51) in 10.4. 220: Merlin Rodman, Madras (48) in 23.2. 440: Dean Workman, Creswell (52) in 2:04. 880: J. Micka, Malin (51) in 2:03.8. Mile: Gene Cutlip, Knappa (53) in 4:39.1. High hurdles: Noel Bergman, Pleasant Hill (51) in 15.0. Low hurdles: Ken Aldrich, Union (52) in 21.0. Shot: Dale McCormick, Pleasant Hill (52) at 49' 6 1/4". Discus: Ralph Pennell, Mapleton (48) at 129' 4 1/4". Javelin: Jeff Henderson, Drain (53) at 171' 3 1/4". High jump: Jim Boulter, Rogue River (52) at 5' 10 1/4". Pole vault: Ken Hickenbottom, Pleasant Hill (51) at 11' 9". Broad jump: John McCall, Gervais (52) at 21' 7 1/4". Relay: Pilot Rock team of 1951 in 1:34.5.

Salem's Vikings, with 15 entries, leads the field in the Class A division today. But the Vikings aren't the favorites. That role goes again to Medford which has won the Class A meet five of the last six years and is again heavily represented in 14 events. Medford is defending champ also.
Yoncola is the defending Class B champion.
There will be 521 athletes in all for the week-end meet, with 361 from 77 schools in the Class A division and 160 from 49 schools in the "B."

Letters Given Vik Athletes

Salem High baseball and tennis players were awarded letters by Coaches Harold Hauk, Hank Juran and Del Ramsdell.
