Portland Club Still Sliding

Chandler, Hiller Too Effective for Bevos

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The San Francisco Seals won both ends of a Pacific Coast League doubleheader here Sunday, defeating the Portland Beavers 6-3 and 2-1. The Seals won the series here 7-1.

Gordon Brunswick led the San Francisco hitting attack in the first game with a homer, a double and two singles.

The home run in the fifth inning with one aboard put the Seals ahead 3-1 and the Portlanders never caught up.

San Francisco pitcher Ed Chandler allowed only five hits in the opener. But two of those were home runs—by Walt Judnich in the sixth inning and by Don Eggert in the ninth.

Ted Beard doubled and scored on an infield out in the fourth inning to open the Seals' scoring. They added two more in the eighth when Brunswick doubled off Glenn Elliott, advanced to third on a fly and scored when Bob DiPietro tripled DiPietro scored on Mike Baxes' sacrifice fly.

In the second game, Beard homered in the second inning. The Seals scored their final run in the sixth when Jim Moran walked, Reno Chesco sacrificed, Brunswick walked and Beard doubled to score Moran.

A double by Frank Austin, Hank Arif's single and a sacrifice fly by Dino Restelli accounted for the Beavers' lone run.

Frank Hiller, who went the route for San Francisco in the second game, allowed only three hits. The Hollywood Stars widened their top place margin to 3 1/2 games with a pair of wins over Sacramento 4-1 and 3-0. Milt Smith slammed three home runs as San Diego jumped into second place with two wins over Oakland 7-3 in 11 innings and 7-2. Seattle's Rainiers also two-timed the Los Angeles Angels 7-6 and 1-0.

NEW! "JIM BO"

INTRODUCING
JIM BO—the most sensational invention in the history of fishing—the artificial swimmer that swims. No more live bait to buy. This is the lure sensation of the 20th century.

IT SWIMS—no springs, uses no fuel; it swims as long as you leave it in the water. Swims by unique process of balance and gravity. Fish any desired depth—no stream left. Any fish that will strike a minnow will strike JIM BO. This is no game-fish. Looks and swims like a live minnow.

This is the lure of all lures—beautifully finished plastic. Buy one for your friends also. Satisfaction guaranteed. Send $1.00 only, for each lure. Same check or cash. We pay postage.

Toski Captures Eastern Open, Moves to Front in Money Race

BALTIMORE (AP)—Bob Toski coasted to his third major golf victory of the year, winning the $20,000 Eastern Open Sunday with an even-par 72 in the final round and a 72-hole total of 277.

The $4,000 top slice of the prize melon enabled the 127-pound Toski to vault into first place among golf's leading money winners, displacing Julius Boros of Mid-Pines, N.C.

Failing to shave par for the first time in four days over Baltimore's rugged 6,895-yard Mt. Pleasant Municipal Course, the little young-

Cavarretta Slates Huddle With Boss of White Sox

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Phil Cavarretta said Sunday night he was flying to Chicago Monday morning to talk with White Sox General Manager Frank Lane and "see if we can't get together on something."

Cavarretta said nothing specific had been agreed upon. "You know I've contacted the majority of the big league clubs about a job," the big ex-Chicago Cub manager said. "I've talked to Frank a couple of times and we're going to get together to see about something."

"I feel pretty good," Cavarretta said. "I've been working out. I'd like to be a player-coach. I think I could make some team a good utility first baseman and help some of the younger players."

Asked how long he thought it would be before he figured he could step back into the lineup, Cavarretta said, "Well, I'll need some extra hitting practice. But it wouldn't be too long."
