Senators Sweep Sunday Pair With Broncs Big Deal Sends Kell to White Sox Rampaging Indians Run String to 11 in Row

Briggs Hurls 4-1 Sparkler

Series Speared 3-1; Club Moves to T-City

BENGAL FIELD, Lewiston (Special) - The Salem Senators swept both ends of Sunday's Western Internationl League doubleheader with the Lewiston Brones, producing three-run rallies in the ninth inning of each game for 11-8 and 4-1 decisions. Salem copped the four-game series 3-1

Twenty-year-old Johnny Briggs of the Senators hooked up in a terrific pitching duel in the night game with veteran Al Yaylian, recently secured from the Sacramento Solons who released him. Briggs went the route, fanned 12 Brones, won his second game of the season and would have had a shutout were it not for a pinchhit home run by Artie Wilson with two out in the ninth inning.

Salem scored in the first inning on Carl Bellotti's single and Manager Harv Storey's double, his first of two for the game. That was all the scoring until the ninth when the Senators knocked Yaylian out with a walk, an error, Pete Estrada's single, another single by Bob Kellogg and Harry Warner's sacrifice

Briggs was in few jams. The worst was in the fourth when an error and Larry Barton's double put runners aboard with nobody out. But the fireballing youngster got the next three batters out on two infield dribblers and

In the first game the Senators broke an 8-8 tie in the ninth with three runs off Don Tisnerat. Kellogg's first homer of the season started the outbreak, and then Warner and Floyd Ogden both singled, Jose Rayle walked and Jack Bukowatz drilled a tworun single past third

That burst brought Rayle the victory, as he had relieved Starter Jack Hemphill in the third and held the Brones to two runs on five hits for seven innings.

Kellogg's homer wasn't the only one for Salem Warner inning off Stan McWilliams, and Gene Tanselli rapped out his third in the fifth, with one on. Salem had 15 hits, three each by Bukowatz and Manager Storev. Lou Scrivens, now playing regularly in the outfield, Warner and Ogden each had two safeties. Lewiston had 11 hits, knocking Hemphill out with six of them, including Mel Wasley's fourth homer in the second in-

The Senators now move to Tri-City for the opening of a fourgame series Monday night. Salem plays Tri-City at Salem in the start of a big Memorial Day weekend series May 28, Friday.

Kids Display Whopping Mill Race Catch

Now it doesn't take seven boys to catch one fish, even if it is a 2712-inch steelhead beauty like this, but all of these seven figured somehow in a fish story Saturday. Kenneth Albert Tracy Jr. and Charles Dabler, triumphantly holding the fish, were trying their luck in the Mill Race Saturday morning when the fish took Tracy's hook, line, pole and all. A couple of hours later they spotted the fish downstream and that's where the others figured in the act. Proud anglers all are (kneeling) John B. Woods III and Drew Link (standing l. to r.) Dodgers, Milwaukee Share National Lead

NEW YORK IM - The Cleveland ndians boosted their American League lead to two and a half games Sunday while Brooklyn and Milwaukee swept past St. Louis to share the lead in the National League

The Indians captured both ends of a doubleheader from Baltimore 14-3 and 2-1 in 12 innings for their 10th and 11th straight. The Dodgers knocked off the lowly Pittsburgh Firates twice 5-4 and 6-2 and Milwaukee whipped the Chicago Cubs 9-3 after taking the opener 4-2 in 10 innings.

Brooklyn and Milwaukee each has 20 victories and 14 defeats to lead the third place Cardinals by a full game. The Cards lost their second straight to Cincinnati 13-6.

The victory moved the Redlegs into fifth place, a half game in front of the Philadelphia Phillies and only two percentage points behind the fourth place New York Giants. The Giants burst into the first division by walloping the Phillies 6-4.

Chicago's White Sox, which strengthened their third base situation by purchasing George Kell from Boston, displaced the New York Yankees as runner-ups to Cleveland edging out Detroit 4-3. The Yankees fell into third place; three and a half games behind the Indians, when they were outslugged by the Red Sox 10-9. Washington tied Baltimore for sixth place, defeating the Philadelphia Athletics

Feller Wins 250th

Bob Feller won his 250th game in the opener as his Cleveland mates made it easy for him with 16 hits. Rookie third baseman Rudy Regalado and outfielder Dave Philley batted in four Cleveland runs and Al Rosen drove in three. Righthander Art Houtteman won his own game in the nightcap with a 12th inning double that scored Bob Turley had a shutout until Rosen homered in the ninth to send the game into extra innings. Scoring seven runs in the last three innings, the Red Sox overcame a 7-3 deficit to nip the Yankees in a three hour and 19 minute game. A total of 36 players were used, 20 by the Yankees. Kell, playing his last game for Boston, drove in three runs with three singles. Ted Williams collected a pair of hits, walked three times and scored three times. Blanked by Steve Gromek for seven innings, the White Sox broke loose for four runs on three homers to sweep the three-game set with the Tigers. Minnie Minoso, whose three run homer beat Detroit Saturday, hit another one with one man on base. Cass Michaels and Sherm Lollar also homered.

Mickey Vernon blasted a home run and three doubles to help the Senators defeated the Athletics. Dean Stone, relieving Connie Marrero in the fifth, hurled runless hall for five innings to register his first major league triumph. Duke Snider clouted a pair of homers in the nightcap after Preacher Roe went the route for the first time this season in the Dodgers' double win. Roe, a notoriously weak hitter, doubled and singled and scored what proved to be the winning run in the opener. (Continued on Page 3)
