

City News Briefs

SPEAKERS TO MEET

Capitol Toastmasters Club will hold its regular dinner meeting at the Hollywood Lions Den Thursday at 6:15 p.m. Toastmaster of the evening is to be Sam Samuel with table topics in charge of Dayle Jory. Speakers are E. A. Bradford, Robert Ramage, Harmon Garrett, Omar Halvorsen and Ed Whit. Standby speakers are Gene Morrison, Robert Forkner and Robert Baidorf.

Rummage over Greenbaum's Beaver Hall Thurs., 8:30 a.m.

CAR CATCHES FIRE

A car owned by Junior Little, 1175 S. 17th St., caught fire at the corner of 21st and Mill Streets Tuesday while the owner was away getting some gasoline for the vehicle. Firemen said they believed the blaze started from a cigarette. Damage was described as confined to the upholstery, ceiling and door panel.

ROCK MEET THURSDAY

The Salem Geological Society will hold its regular meeting Thursday at 8 p.m. in Collins Hall on the Willamette University campus. Dr. Hans Plambeck, professor of social science at Oregon State College, will give an illustrated lecture on New Zealand. The public is invited.

Read and Heed Want Ads daily, and problems are solved quickly, easily, economically! For advertising help call 2-2441.

AWARD NIGHT THURSDAY

The Future Farmers of America will hold Parent-Award night Thursday at the North Salem High School beginning at 8 p.m. Included in the award list will be an award for the most outstanding agriculture student, FFA Foundation awards, best project awards and awards to outstanding boys.

Learn Knitting, 1 to 4 p.m., 341 State St. Phone 3-5654.

TWO CARS CRASH

Cars driven by Frank David Reynolds, Willamina, and Jeanette Rae Hulser, Salem, Tuesday, May 25, sustained considerable damage Tuesday morning when they collided at North Capitol and D Streets. Neither driver was injured.

BOY HITS TRUCK

William Freeman, 11, of 3482 Williams St., ran into an extension of pipe protruding from the rear of a truck waiting for a stop light at Lana Avenue and Portland Road. He sustained a cut and bump on his head which was examined by Salem first aidmen.

BLM Plans Big Timber Sale June 8

The Bureau of Land Management's Salem Forest District will begin monthly timber sales at its new quarters at 215 N. Front St. with a record offering, according to the district forester.

Commencing at 9 a. m. June 8, the offerings will include 20 tracts having a total estimated volume of 19,308,000 board feet appraised at $323,762.

Estimated volumes on the 19 salvage tracts range from 17,000 board feet to 3,485,000 board feet. One of the salvage tracts is located in Clackamas county, four in Washington County, two in Yamhill County, one in Benton County, one in Lane County, three in Marion County, and seven in Linn County.

The one tract of green timber is located in Polk County and includes an estimated 6,978,000 board feet appraised at $100,758.65.

Bids may also be submitted for one other Clackamas County tract of 39,000 board feet of salvage timber from which no bids were received during or following the May 4, 1954 offering.

Further information concerning the location and character of the tracts to be offered may be obtained from the forester's Salem office.

Public Records

CIRCUIT COURT
Bernice Jean Jones vs James R. Jones: Suit for divorce alleges cruel and inhuman treatment asks for custody of two minors and $40 per month support for each. Married Sept. 6, 1950, at Salem.
Lawrence J. Larcom vs Inez M. Larcom: Suit for divorce alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. Married Sept. 1, 1934, at Seattle, Wash.

Keith Jacobson vs Ellora N. Jacobson: In cross-complaint for divorce defendant alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, asks for custody of three minors and $50 per month support for each.

PROBATE COURT
Luella Dicken estate: Order closes estate.

DISTRICT COURT
Vaughn Mose, 1935 N. Commercial St., charged with defrauding an apartment house keeper; continued to May 26 for sentencing following plea of guilty.

TALLMAN PIANO STORES

395 S. 12th, Salem

State Hospital Project Given Green Light

(Story also on page 1.)
The state emergency board Tuesday voted to let contracts for a 670-bed addition to the Oregon State Hospital and will ask the 1955 Legislature to appropriate $283,000 additional to complete the 1 1/2 million dollar building.

The $283,000 will include equipment for the new building, plus construction of an outpatient clinic and installation of rubber tile. However, it won't include the $20,000 worth of brick that is needed to make it conform with other new state hospital buildings. Secretary of State Earl T. Newberry was sharply critical of the fact that the building will have a concrete face.

Rep. Henry Semon, Klamath Falls, said the legislature intended that the new building should have only 445 beds, or just enough to replace beds in an old building that the fire marshal has condemned as a fire trap.

Takes Care of Growth
Dr. C. E. Bates, hospital superintendent, answered that the new building would take care of those patients plus the normal growth that can be expected in the next two years.

When board members protested that the 3,460-patient capacity of the hospital on completion of the new building is too large for proper administration, Dr. Bates said the ideal size hospital has 2,000 patients.

Sen. Marsh, who is president of the senate, criticized the board of control for including the $100,000 outpatient clinic in its plans. He said the legislature didn't authorize it.

Board of control members pointed out that the 1953 Legislature voted to establish an outpatient clinic at the hospital, and that the board of control planned it for the new building in order to carry out the legislature's order.

While the $1,530,000 plan approved Tuesday is $30,000 more than the legislature's appropriation, the extra $30,000 is being taken from the hospital's capital outlay and betterment funds.

This drew fire from Sen. Angus Gibson, Junction City, who accused the board of control of using funds which had been designated by the legislature for other projects, and of using money designed for the betterment of the patients.

For that reason, Gibson cast the only negative vote.

Plan for Blood Replacement Unit Revealed

A blood replacement unit operating three mornings a week at Salem General Hospital will start June 1, according to the Marion County Chapter of the American Red Cross and the Marion-Polk County Medical Society.

This will be in addition to the regular monthly visits of the Red Cross bloodmobile.

The first civilian replacement unit on the West Coast, this will be watched with much interest by the Portland Regional Blood Center.

Set up primarily for the convenience of relatives and friends of patients who received blood while in hospitals in Marion County, the replacement unit will be under the supervision at all times by members of the county medical society. A registered nurse trained in the Portland Regional Blood Center will draw the blood. She will be assisted by Red Cross volunteers who will also recruit donors from both local hospitals.

The unit will be at the Salem General Hospital this year and at the Salem Memorial next.

DEMOLAY PICNIC SET
Chemeketa Chapter, Order of De Molay for boys scheduled their chapter picnic for June 20 at Mill Rick Park near Molalla during their regular meeting held this week. This was the last meeting until fall term this September.

Laehele's, 1348 Ferry St., have a beautiful line of fur scarfs and stoles. Complete fur service and cold storage on premises.

TRUCK HITS GIRL
Ramona Cupps, 9, of Salem Route 4, Box 3, was struck by a fuel truck while waiting for a school bus near her home on Airport Road. She suffered a minor cut on her arm which was cleaned and dressed by Salem First Aid.

Fresh killed broad breasted hen turkeys 35c lb. Orwig's Market, 3975 Silverton Rd. or Ph. 4-5742.

PHILPOTT A MEMBER
Lee F. Philpott, 1136 N. 15th St., an accountant associated in Salem with Bowers, Davis and Hoffman, has been elected a member of the American Institute of Accountants, a national professional society of CPAs.

For Memorial Day cut flowers and potted plants, Jay Morris, 135 E. Ewald at Liberty Road.

TRUMPET STOLEN
Nathan Timmons, Independence Route 1, reported to city police Tuesday that a $120 trumpet was stolen from his car sometime Friday night while the auto was parked in the 600 block of Chemeketa Street.

Marshall's—Open for lunch daily 11:30 a.m. Special Sunday dinners.

CLUB MEETS TONIGHT
The North Salem Optimist Club will meet at 6:30 today at the China Cafe on Fairgrounds Road, leaders announced.

3 SHS Seniors Get Scholarships At Oregon State

CORVALLIS—Three graduating high school seniors from Salem have been awarded state scholarships for study next year at Oregon State college.

They are Judith Ann Jackson, who is interested in home economics, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Jackson, 1675 Berry St.; Judith Allen Bancroft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bancroft, 546 Statesman St., who plans to register in secretarial science, and James Stafford-Wood, interested in business administration and accounting, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Wood, 960 Broadway.

Births

BROWN—To Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Brown, 4705 Harcourt St., a daughter, Monday, May 24, at Salem Memorial Hospital.

REAL JR.—To Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Real Jr., 4320 Sunnyview Ave., a daughter, Tuesday, May 25, at Salem Memorial Hospital.

KAUFMAN—To Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Kaufman, Woodburn Route 1, a daughter, Tuesday, May 25, at Salem Memorial Hospital.

BOARDMAN—To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Boardman, 2340 W. Nob Hill St., a daughter, Tuesday, May 25, at the Salem Memorial Hospital.

RUSH—To Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rush, 829 Rosemont Ave., a daughter, Tuesday, May 25, at Salem General Hospital.

RAE—To Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rae, Salem Route 1, Box 488, a son, Tuesday, May 25, at Salem General Hospital.

A Tribute To Our Hospitals

Someone once said that all well people should visit a hospital occasionally to see how FORTUNATE they are! When a friend or loved one is being tenderly cared for in one of our hospitals, THEN we understand the great importance of these institutions. Staffed with doctors, nurses, internes and all manner of life-saving equipment, the hospital is mercy headquarters for all who are suffering. We never cease to wonder at the modern miracles performed in our hospitals. Their works go largely unheralded. But their eagerness to bind up wounds and make men whole again goes on forever. What would we do without these havens of healing?

We Salute Our Town!

Capital Drug Store

405 States St. - Corner of Liberty
WE GIVE GREEN STAMPS

Leaders

Dorothy Linden, valedictorian at State School for the Deaf.

Carol Bender, salutatorian at State School for the Deaf.

Deaf School To Graduate 7 on Monday

The Oregon State School for the Deaf will graduate seven students at commencement exercises in the school at 10:30 a. m. Monday.

Dr. Charles A. Howard, former president of the Oregon College of Education, will deliver the commencement address.

Dorothy Linden of Hillsboro is valedictorian of the class and Carol Bender of Portland is salutatorian.

Other members of the class are Larry Applebee, Roseburg; Janice Brekke, Silverton; David Maynard, Portland; Suzanne Templeton, Portland; and Thomas Whittle, Coos Bay.

A style show of garments made by the sewing department and demonstrations of other school activities as well as an Eagle Scout award to Thomas Whittle will be a part of the commencement program.

An exhibit of work done in the vocational department will be on display in the primary building and may be seen before and after the public program.

DR. MILLER APPOINTED

Dr. Jesse H. Miller Jr., Springfield, was appointed by Gov. Patterson Tuesday to the State Optometry Board. He succeeds Dr. August W. Glutsch, Medford, who declined reappointment.

Budget Board Cuts County Fund Pleas

Marion County budget committee, in a cutting mood Tuesday, slashed requested dollars from both the county district attorney's and health department's proposed 1954-55 budgets.

The commission, meeting at the new courthouse this week, hopes to complete major deliberations on the new budget today. Their avowed task is to hack off some $48,472 in surplus requests in order to streamline the budget to within the 6 per cent limitation.

The total levy, with the additional 6 per cent included, would then come to $1,363,393. Last year the total levy was $1,286,820.

Refused Request

Indicating it was not sure just how the additional money would be used the six-man committee refused District Attorney Kenneth Brown's overall request for a $6,390 increase in his office budget for the coming year. This would have brought the total budget for his office to $15,140.

Brown said he needed the extra money to increase the salaries of two of his deputies and his office secretary and to hire an extra clerk. The committee granted the secretary a $10 per month raise.

Brown said his deputies, all law school graduates, were getting from $250 to $290 per month. They are entitled, he said, to outside practice but this has diminished since his staff moved into the new courthouse. He blamed the low salary base for the heavy turnover in his office and said the county would gain in the long run by "readjusting" its entire salary schedules regarding its women employees.

The committee also cut the health department's appropriation from the requested $68,412 to $53,000. Last year the county contributed $53,458 to the health department budget.

Seeks No Increase

County Clerk Henry Mattson, in seeking a no-increase $51,000 budget asked the committee to consider giving his office a male employe as chief deputy, at a slightly increased wage. Mattson said four of his women employes were leaving the office soon.

In other action Tuesday the committee approved the budget for the county court and commissioners, $22,000; courthouse, about $94,000; coroner, $1,610; district court, $21,260; constable, $13,316; cattle testing fees, $17,000; indemnity for slaughter of diseased cattle, $1,500; and insane examination fees, $1,300.

The committee will take up this morning at 11 a. m. and will consider the county jail budget among other items.

get for the coming year. This would have brought the total budget for his office to $15,140.

Brown said he needed the extra money to increase the salaries of two of his deputies and his office secretary and to hire an extra clerk. The committee granted the secretary a $10 per month raise.

Brown said his deputies, all law school graduates, were getting from $250 to $290 per month. They are entitled, he said, to outside practice but this has diminished since his staff moved into the new courthouse. He blamed the low salary base for the heavy turnover in his office and said the county would gain in the long run by "readjusting" its entire salary schedules regarding its women employees.

The committee also cut the health department's appropriation from the requested $68,412 to $53,000. Last year the county contributed $53,458 to the health department budget.

Indicating it was not sure just how the additional money would be used the six-man committee refused District Attorney Kenneth Brown's overall request for a $6,390 increase in his office budget for the coming year.

Brown said he needed the extra money to increase the salaries of two of his deputies and his office secretary and to hire an extra clerk. The committee granted the secretary a $10 per month raise.

Brown said his deputies, all law school graduates, were getting from $250 to $290 per month. They are entitled, he said, to outside practice but this has diminished since his staff moved into the new courthouse. He blamed the low salary base for the heavy turnover in his office and said the county would gain in the long run by "readjusting" its entire salary schedules regarding its women employees.

The committee also cut the health department's appropriation from the requested $68,412 to $53,000. Last year the county contributed $53,458 to the health department budget.

Indicating it was not sure just how the additional money would be used the six-man committee refused District Attorney Kenneth Brown's overall request for a $6,390 increase in his office budget for the coming year.

Brown said he needed the extra money to increase the salaries of two of his deputies and his office secretary and to hire an extra clerk. The committee granted the secretary a $10 per month raise.

Brown said his deputies, all law school graduates, were getting from $250 to $290 per month. They are entitled, he said, to outside practice but this has diminished since his staff moved into the new courthouse. He blamed the low salary base for the heavy turnover in his office and said the county would gain in the long run by "readjusting" its entire salary schedules regarding its women employees.

The committee also cut the health department's appropriation from the requested $68,412 to $53,000. Last year the county contributed $53,458 to the health department budget.

Indicating it was not sure just how the additional money would be used the six-man committee refused District Attorney Kenneth Brown's overall request for a $6,390 increase in his office budget for the coming year.

Brown said he needed the extra money to increase the salaries of two of his deputies and his office secretary and to hire an extra clerk. The committee granted the secretary a $10 per month raise.

Brown said his deputies, all law school graduates, were getting from $250 to $290 per month. They are entitled, he said, to outside practice but this has diminished since his staff moved into the new courthouse. He blamed the low salary base for the heavy turnover in his office and said the county would gain in the long run by "readjusting" its entire salary schedules regarding its women employees.

The committee also cut the health department's appropriation from the requested $68,412 to $53,000. Last year the county contributed $53,458 to the health department budget.

Indicating it was not sure just how the additional money would be used the six-man committee refused District Attorney Kenneth Brown's overall request for a $6,390 increase in his office budget for the coming year.

Brown said he needed the extra money to increase the salaries of two of his deputies and his office secretary and to hire an extra clerk. The committee granted the secretary a $10 per month raise.

Brown said his deputies, all law school graduates, were getting from $250 to $290 per month. They are entitled, he said, to outside practice but this has diminished since his staff moved into the new courthouse. He blamed the low salary base for the heavy turnover in his office and said the county would gain in the long run by "readjusting" its entire salary schedules regarding its women employees.

The committee also cut the health department's appropriation from the requested $68,412 to $53,000. Last year the county contributed $53,458 to the health department budget.

Indicating it was not sure just how the additional money would be used the six-man committee refused District Attorney Kenneth Brown's overall request for a $6,390 increase in his office budget for the coming year.

Brown said he needed the extra money to increase the salaries of two of his deputies and his office secretary and to hire an extra clerk. The committee granted the secretary a $10 per month raise.

Brown said his deputies, all law school graduates, were getting from $250 to $290 per month. They are entitled, he said, to outside practice but this has diminished since his staff moved into the new courthouse. He blamed the low salary base for the heavy turnover in his office and said the county would gain in the long run by "readjusting" its entire salary schedules regarding its women employees.

The committee also cut the health department's appropriation from the requested $68,412 to $53,000. Last year the county contributed $53,458 to the health department budget.

Indicating it was not sure just how the additional money would be used the six-man committee refused District Attorney Kenneth Brown's overall request for a $6,390 increase in his office budget for the coming year.

Brown said he needed the extra money to increase the salaries of two of his deputies and his office secretary and to hire an extra clerk. The committee granted the secretary a $10 per month raise.

Brown said his deputies, all law school graduates, were getting from $250 to $290 per month. They are entitled, he said, to outside practice but this has diminished since his staff moved into the new courthouse. He blamed the low salary base for the heavy turnover in his office and said the county would gain in the long run by "readjusting" its entire salary schedules regarding its women employees.

The committee also cut the health department's appropriation from the requested $68,412 to $53,000. Last year the county contributed $53,458 to the health department budget.

Indicating it was not sure just how the additional money would be used the six-man committee refused District Attorney Kenneth Brown's overall request for a $6,390 increase in his office budget for the coming year.

Brown said he needed the extra money to increase the salaries of two of his deputies and his office secretary and to hire an extra clerk. The committee granted the secretary a $10 per month raise.

Brown said his deputies, all law school graduates, were getting from $250 to $290 per month. They are entitled, he said, to outside practice but this has diminished since his staff moved into the new courthouse. He blamed the low salary base for the heavy turnover in his office and said the county would gain in the long run by "readjusting" its entire salary schedules regarding its women employees.

The committee also cut the health department's appropriation from the requested $68,412 to $53,000. Last year the county contributed $53,458 to the health department budget.

Indicating it was not sure just how the additional money would be used the six-man committee refused District Attorney Kenneth Brown's overall request for a $6,390 increase in his office budget for the coming year.

Brown said he needed the extra money to increase the salaries of two of his deputies and his office secretary and to hire an extra clerk. The committee granted the secretary a $10 per month raise.

Brown said his deputies, all law school graduates, were getting from $250 to $290 per month. They are entitled, he said, to outside practice but this has diminished since his staff moved into the new courthouse. He blamed the low salary base for the heavy turnover in his office and said the county would gain in the long run by "readjusting" its entire salary schedules regarding its women employees.

Sons of Union Veterans End 2-Day Meet

S. P. Olin, Portland, was installed commander and Eugene Prescott, Salem, senior vice commander Tuesday at the Oregon-Washington department of Sons of Union Veterans completed a two-day convention in Salem.

Nearly 100 members of the organization and its auxiliary attended meetings at the Senator Hotel. All are from families of Civil War veterans.

Other officers elected: Carl Shetterly, Portland, junior vice commander; Austin McReynolds, Eugene, C. O. Gosney, Olympia, and W. Mark Simpson, Portland, council members; Spencer Leonard, Portland, secretary-treasurer; Dr. L. L. Baker, Eugene, patriotic instructor; John Starr, Eugene, chaplain; Edward J. Jones, Portland, color bearer; James Reynolds, Eugene, guide. Auxiliary officers elected: Mae Washburn, Eugene, president; Leila Reynolds, Seattle, vice president; Hester Cook and Margaret Burton, Portland, and Blanche Stuart, Salem, council; Francis Smith, Eugene, secretary; Zella Lindgren, treasurer; Lulu Boring, Salem, chaplain; Cliff Kern, Seattle, patriotic instructor; Lois Hueston, Portland, inspector; Dae Stafford, Salem, I I officer.

Salem Students in OSC Honor Groups

CORVALLIS—Seven students at Oregon State College from Salem were recently chosen for membership in honor organizations. Janice Coffel, Nancy Moorefield, and Doris Starret, were among 30 women to become members of Alpha Lambda Delta, national scholastic honor society for freshmen women.

Robert Barnes, John Clayton, Rudolph Henry, and Raymond Terhune were chosen for membership in Thanes, sophomore men's service honorary.

Portland, color bearer: James Reynolds, Eugene, guide. Auxiliary officers elected: Mae Washburn, Eugene, president; Leila Reynolds, Seattle, vice president; Hester Cook and Margaret Burton, Portland, and Blanche Stuart, Salem, council; Francis Smith, Eugene, secretary; Zella Lindgren, treasurer; Lulu Boring, Salem, chaplain; Cliff Kern, Seattle, patriotic instructor; Lois Hueston, Portland, inspector; Dae Stafford, Salem, I I officer.

PAINT SALE!

Discontinued Colors at GREAT SAVINGS!!

Nason Enamel
	Reg.	Sale
1/4 pt.	44c	33c
1/2 pt.	69c	49c
1 pt.	1.15	87c
1 qt.	2.19	1.65

Available in 12 Beautiful Colors!

Nason Semi-Gloss
	Reg.	Sale
Gallon	6.10	4.27
Quart	1.59	1.25

Available in Several Colors

Open Wed., Thurs., Fri. Nights 'til 9

Gil Ward

450 CENTER ST.

DOUBLE GREEN STAMPS
WEDNESDAY, MAY 26th

CAPITAL DRUG STORE

405 State St. — Corner of Liberty
We Give GREEN STAMPS

Enjoy every fragrant drop of famous
COTY Toilet Water

"LOCK" ATOMIZER
Seals Fragrance In Until You Release It!

Right now is the time to buy COTY TOILET WATER... and lots of it! Because right now COTY brings you a wonderful fragrance bonus in the form of a generous special-size Toilet Water—plus their unique new "LOCK" Atomizer.

The "LOCK" guarantees that you'll enjoy every single fragrant drop of your favorite COTY TOILET WATER. For this ingenious atomizer will never leak or spill... never let fragrance escape by evaporation! Tuck it in your suitcase, leave it on your dresser—the new "LOCK" Atomizer can't waste a drop of these beloved COTY fragrances.

SPECIAL OFFER!
COTY Toilet Water
with "LOCK" ATOMIZER
and travel container.
1 1/2 oz.—Greatest fragrance value 2.00 plus tax

Your choice of eight World-Famous Fragrances:

L'ORIGAN • L'AIMANT • EMERAUDE • PARIS • MUSE • METEOR • A SUMA • STYX