

Luncheon for Rotarian Women

The Rotarian Women were entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon Monday afternoon at the North Summer street home of Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley with members of the retiring board as hostesses. Over 60 attended the affair, which was the final event of the year for the group.

Guests were seated at individual tables centered with small bouquets of dainty spring garden flowers. The dining room table was covered with a pink satin cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink and red roses in a silver bowl. Gorgeous bouquets were used in the rooms including calla lilies on the piano, roses, violets, pinks, peonies, bleeding hearts and other pastel spring blooms.

During the afternoon Mrs. Frank Burlingham sang a group of numbers and Mrs. Josef Schnelker was the accompanist. Mrs. James T. Brand was a special guest.

A short business meeting was held with Mrs. Claude A. Miller, vice-president, presiding in the absence of the new president, Mrs. L. O. Arens.

Assisting Mrs. Cooley as hostesses were the retiring officers. They included Mrs. Millard A. Pekar, president, Mrs. Hugh Morrow, Mrs. Chester Pickens, Mrs. J. A. H. Doid, Mrs. Clay Cochran, Mrs. Floyd Bressler, Mrs. Harry Dorman and Mrs. Charles Fowler.

Events Planned For Teen-Agers

Among the events planned for teen-agers at the YWCA during the summer will be camp at Camp Silver Creek from June 20-26. This camp for older girls, 12-15, will have a special unit for younger girls 10-12. Registration is now being taken at the YW for summer camp.

Following camp at Silver Creek will be a girls day program for 3-6 graders at the YW. Activity will include crafts, recreation, tours and picnics on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10-3 p. m. starting July 12. Girls interested in a supervised program should sign up now at the Y.

During the summer months teen-agers will have Friday evening dances in the YW gym. On alternating weeks there will be dances for junior high and senior high youngsters. Junior high dances will be from 8-10 p. m. and senior high from 8-11 p. m. These dances will be non-date affairs with a small admission charge. The next in the series will be the junior high dance Friday, May 28.

Violin and Piano Recital Thursday

Dalbert and Elizabeth Jepsen will present violin and piano students in recital at Roberts Studio, 505 N. Summer St., on Thursday evening, May 27, at 7:45 p. m.

A string trio, which includes Dalbert Jepsen, violin; Elizabeth Jepsen, piano; and Irene McKenzie, cello, will be a special feature. The interested public is cordially invited to attend.

Students appearing are Kathy Turnidge, Ann and Marilee Watts, Charles McGee, Peter Jepsen, Susan Wing, Sharon and Sandra Obert, Stephen Chambers, Robert and Patricia Stevenson.

Word has been received from Elko, Nevada of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Deacon (Marilyn Kilber) of Salem, on May 23. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Deacon and Mrs. Minnie Kilber of Salem. Great-grandparents are Mrs. Winnie Hamman, Salem, and Mrs. Fannie Deacon of Portland.

Mrs. Fannie Mulkey and her daughter, Miss Margaret Mulkey, are arriving in the capital Saturday from San Francisco to spend the Memorial weekend visiting their longtime Salem friends. They formerly resided here.

TODAY-

Richfield Dedicates

The West's Most Advanced Refinery

Today, Richfield formally dedicates to the motorists of the West $40,000,000 worth of the most modern refining facilities known to science.

FROM THESE NEW FACILITIES SOON WILL COME THE MOST ADVANCED GASOLINE IN AMERICA!

We are intensely proud of our achievement in creating, by the addition of these facilities to our 540-acre main plant, the West's most advanced refinery; proud, too, that it is a product of Western planning and enterprise.

But this great refinery is more than an assemblage of the West's most advanced refining equipment—fractionation towers, vacuum stills and giant catalytic cracking units. It is a reassuring symbol that the ever-growing needs of the West for the finest in petroleum products will be met for years to come.

Watch for the announcement of a sensational new gasoline—coming soon to all Richfield stations. We promise you performance from your car you have never before experienced!
