Ex-Follies Star Graduates at Willamette U.

Mrs. Doris George Hale, a Ziegfeld Follies star in the 1920's and now a grandmother, was graduated from Willamette University this week.

The wife of Paul Hale, Salem accountant, the still beautiful singer and dancer will go on to the University of Southern California next year for her master's degree.

Mrs. Hale majored in piano and plans to teach.

She and her sister, Phyllis, were billed as the George Sisters, a song and dance team. They appeared both in the George White scandals and the Ziegfeld follies. Mrs. Hale met Florenz Ziegfeld after winning a prize in a beauty contest in the Atlantic City pageant in 1923. She had extensive piano instruction before going on the stage.

She is the mother of triplets, and has two grandchildren.

17-Year-Old Boy Faces Charge of Pilfering Wallets

A 17-year-old Salem boy was arrested by city police Wednesday on a charge of larceny of money allegedly involving wallet pilfering in the Salem High School locker room.

Detectives said the boy told them he had taken a total of about $13 over a period of time and had purchased 25 chickens and some chicken feed with the money. He said he took the chickens to an uncle in the Keizer district.

The boy was certified to the Marion County juvenile court on the charge.
