'Smarty' the Parrot Symbol of Bargain Event

"Smarty" the parrot, apparently cogitating a nip at a feminine finger, came to town this week to symbolize the "Fabulous Friday" merchandising event of 59 firms. Dick Schlup (right), president of the Downtown Salem Merchants' Association, says Smarty's theme is "It's smart to shop in Downtown Salem." Center is Maurie Blum, committee chairman of the promotion, and talking to Smarty is Peggy Hall of the Statesman staff.

New Program Of 'Fabulous Fridays' Set

First in a series of "Fabulous Fridays" has been announced for tomorrow by the Downtown Salem Merchants' Association, with 59 stores participating in the initial bargain event published elsewhere in today's Statesman.

Dick Schlup, president of the Downtown Merchants' Association, said Thursday "we are planning many such events on a sustained basis in the future, with even greater store participation as time goes on. Most downtown stores will remain open until 9 p. m. Friday to give everyone, including our out-of-town friends, sufficient time to take advantage of the special offerings."

Schlup said the nearly three-score participating stores comprise the largest number ever to band together for a single concentrated merchandising event in Salem... "or, so far as we know, anywhere else."

Chairman of the committee in charge of the continuing promotion is Maurie Blum.
