Orange, Chocolate, Pineapple Give That Needed Oomph to Icebox Cakes

By MAXINE BUREN Statesman Woman's Editor

We recently wrote a story about icebox cakes and in looking over the recipes found too many to go into one story.

Try them over on your icebox, they are good for expected company, because the desserts can be made so far ahead.

ORANGE ICEBOX CAKE

1/2 cup sugar 1 cup butter
1/4 cup lemon juice 2 cups confectioner's sugar
4 eggs 1 cup orange pulp finely shredded and drained.
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Dissolve sugar in lemon juice, heat in double boiler until scalding. Beat yolks, add hot mixture gradually stirring. Put back in double boiler, cook thick and smooth. Cool. Cream butter and confectioner's sugar, add orange. Stir in egg mixture then beaten whites, vanilla and 2 tablespoons confectioner's sugar or more. Pour into pan lined with cookies or lady fingers and let season in refrigerator for several hours.

PINEAPPLE ICEBOX CAKE

1/2 cup sugar 2 cups confectioner's sugar
1/4 cup pineapple juice 1 cup drained crushed pineapple
4 eggs 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup butter Lady fingers
Melt sugar in pineapple juice, heat to scalding in double boiler, add beaten yolks to hot mixture, cook over water until thick and smooth. Cream butter, add confectioner's sugar and pineapple. Stir in cold egg mixture, fold in beaten whites, with vanilla and 2 more tablespoons confectioner's sugar. Pour into mold lined with lady fingers (or other cookies) and let stand in refrigerator.

CHOCOLATE ICEBOX CAKE

2 dozen lady fingers 4 egg yolks
1/2 pound sweet chocolate 1 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
4 tablespoons sugar 4 egg whites
4 tablespoons water 1 cup cream (whipped)
Line pan with lady fingers, melt chocolate in double boiler, add sugar, water and egg yolks, beaten light. Cook, stirring until smooth. Add vanilla when cooled and the egg whites beaten.

Mrs. Rilea to Head League

Mrs. Thomas E. Rilea of Clackamas, wife of Major General Rilea, is the new president of the Salem Women's Army-Navy League.

Officers were elected at the last meeting of the season of the league on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. William H. Hammond.

Other officers elected to serve with Mrs. Rilea are Mrs. Richard M. Chase, secretary; Mrs. Daniel Dilson, treasurer; and the following vice-presidents: army, Mrs. Maylon Scott; army reserve, Mrs. Andrew Baker; navy reserve, Mrs. George Sirnio; navy, Mrs. Walter Skinner; air force, Mrs. Max Denton; and national guard, Mrs. Marshall Wood.

Thirty attended the affair and Mrs. Rilea was down from Clackamas for the party.

Teachers to Learn Newer Sewing Trends

Oregon Homemaking teachers will convene in Salem for three days, beginning today at 9 a.m. at Collins Hall. This annual conference has attracted a registration of 75 teachers from over Oregon, and has been planned cooperatively by the Oregon Teachers and the Division of Vocational Education.

Highlight of the three-day session will be demonstrations on the Bishop Method of Precision Sewing, conducted by Mrs. Katherine Rotruck of Washington, D. C. What every good cook knows:

Just a little difference in ingredients makes a big difference in cooking results. Snowdrift is just a little lighter than any other shortening—and that can make the big difference in giving your family lighter, more digestible fried foods.

Snowdrift gives just a little more safety than ordinary shortenings, because it fries perfectly at correct high temperatures. That can make the big difference in digestibility of fried foods.

No other shortening at any price is so creamy, so digestible — and so light! Snowdrift 100% PURE • ALL-VISITABLE SHORTENING • MADE BY THE WESSON OIL PEOPLE
