Indochina Fight Not Popular Salem Market In U. S., Legion Chief Believes Quotations

The American people would not favor sending troops into Ind china "in defense of French colonialism," the national commande of the American Legion said in Salem Friday.

Commander Arthur J. Connell added, however, that if the U.S. Congress and the United Nations declared war to fight communism there then, "the Legion would favor an all-out effort for victory." "If we do become involved in
