Vacationists, Visitors of Interest

By B. NORBERG

Houseguests of the Neal Poveys are Mrs. Povey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Olinger, of Milton-Freewater. They arrived Thursday evening and will be here until June 14.

Away from Dallas for the summer are Mrs. Gladia Ferguson and daughter, Thelma Ruth, who are visiting relatives in the east. They will be enjoying stopovers in New York City, Washington, D.C., Pittsburgh, Chicago and Salt Lake City before returning around September 1.

Dr. John Campbell, former Dallas physician, now serving with the U.S. Navy, was married in Honolulu recently to Miss Ramona Drewelow, a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy Nurse Corps from Waterloo, Iowa. Dr. Campbell is now attached to the USS Princeton, based on the west coast. His wife will join him on the mainland next fall after receiving her discharge. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swenson and daughter, Peggy, left June 9 for San Diego to visit their son, Ted, who is in the Marine Corps. The

Shower Hohors Newlyweds

HOPEWELL — Mr. and Mrs. James L. LaFollette, whose marriage was an event of May 23, were honored at a bridal shower Tuesday evening at the Hopewell Evangelical United Brethren Church. A program was presented and consisted of solos by Jack Larson, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Toivo Bantsari; an original poem written by Mrs. H. E. Widmer to Colfax, Wash., and read by Mrs. John Widmer of Salem. Hostesses were Mrs. James Watts, Mrs. John Heffley and Mrs. Charles Stephens.

James LaFollette left for Bethesda, Maryland Wednesday by air to report for duty with the Naval Hospital Corps. Mrs. LaFollette, the former Aileen Allison, is attending business college in Salem and plans to join her husband in a few months. At present she is making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Allison.

Swensons will be gone a week. Newly returned to Dallas to make their home are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eakin Jr., and daughter, Tory Lee. They have been living in Southern California following discharge from Army service in Europe. Jack will be associated with his father in the Eakin Abstract office.

Barbara Hug Weds Navy Officer

MT. ANGEL — Simple, but impressive was the morning wedding of Miss Barbara Joyce Hug and Ensign Thomas A. O'Halloran Jr. Wednesday, June 9, at 10 o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic church at Mt. Angel. The Rev. Father Cyril Lebold officiated at the double ring rites and nuptial high mass.

Miss Helen Keber was organist and the soloists were Pat Anderson and Ruth Schermer. Altar boys were Raymond Predeck and Bridie Scharbach.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hug of Route 1, Mt. Angel, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. O'Halloran Sr. of Menlo Park, Calif.

The bride wore a white length gown fashioned of chantilly lace with fitted lace jacket and deep scalloped lace skirt with flounce of nylon tulle. Her lace edged veil of illusion was held by a bonnet of chantilly lace and she carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and Stephanotis.

Wearing a white length gown of nylon green net was her only attendant, Mrs. Chester Smith Jr. of Silverton. Her bouquet was of yellow Esther Reed daisies.

The best man was Dennis Spink of Lebanon and the ushers were Ken Goeden, Al de Grood and Duane Hug, brother of the bride.

Dinner, Reception Followed in St. Mary's dining hall.
