

Salem Travelers Bound For A Summer In Europe...

Women's Section
SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC
Oregon Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Sunday, June 13, 1954

DEPARTING June 21 on a European trip will be Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Stewart and daughter, Bonnie Belle, above. They will fly to New York, where they will sail for England. The Stewarts will tour the major European countries and will visit relatives in England on the return trip, flying home in September from Scotland. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

SAILING for Europe the past week were Mrs. Elmer O. Berg and son, Jerry, who are arriving in Paris this weekend. They will spend most of the summer touring Spain and visiting with cousins in Northern Spain. They plan to join Dr. Marion Morgans and Dr. Gale A. Currey for a tour of Normandy and Brittany. The Bergs will also visit in London. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

DEAN Mark O. Hatfield of Willamette University will head a political science tour of Europe and England this summer under the auspices of the Student International Travel Association. Pictured above checking a map of France, left to right, Dean Hatfield, Bill Schantz, Judith Wood and Mrs. Thelma Mankertz.

Other members of the student tour pictured at the left include left to right, Harold Brock, Don Klindworth, Herbert Johnson, Walter Dauber and Martin Wolf. (Jessen-Miller Studio).

AT the right is Miss Beryl Holt out at McNary Field to check flight reservations for her European trip. She leaves by plane Wednesday for the Continent, flying directly to Paris. She will spend a month in Salzburg with her cousins, Colonel and Mrs. M. A. Anderson, where she will also attend the Mozart Festival. In Naples she will visit other cousins, Major and Mrs. Wilbert Campbell. Miss Holt will make the return trip by way of England and Scotland. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

CHECKING their itinerary with Palmer Sather, travel agent, prior to leaving a week ago for England and Europe were Mr. and Mrs. F. James Bradshaw, above. The Bradshaws sailed on the Queen Mary June 9. They will tour the British Isles by car and visit their former home in Birmingham, England. The travelers will also drive through France and Switzerland. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

BUSY packing for her European trip is Miss Antonette Kuzmanich, above, who leaves the end of June for a visit on the East Coast prior to sailing for the Continent. Her itinerary includes England and all the major European countries. In Paris she will meet her uncle, Mat Kuzmanich of Portland, and they will join her other uncle, Ivan Kuzmanich in Yugoslavia, who resides in the Island of Solta off the Dalmatian coast. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

