Solons Split Pair, Home Tonight Ball Meeting 'Rock' Keeps Title 'Y' Family Night to Greet Club; Briggs Loses

Luby Assumes Managership

Roenspie to Hurl In 7:30 O'Clocker

The Salem Senators split a doublebeader last night at Yakima nad heded for home to open an ultra-important seven game home stand at Waters Field, starting with an opener tonight at 7:30 o'clock with the Wenatchee Chiefs.

It will be during this forthcoming home stand that a final decision is to be reached by the Senators board of directors. Attendance, especially on a mushrooming "Save Your Senators Night" next week, will determine the future of the club.

The annual "YMCA Family Night" will greet the club on its return tonight. A portion of the money taken in via the sale of game tickets at the YMCA or at the downtown sporting goods stores will go into the Y's build-

The usual "curb service" will be in effect at the YMCA also. Members of the Men's Club will be on hand to sell ducats at the curb in front of the Y building from 5 p.m. until game time:

Also in effect tonight will be the switch announced Wednesday night - Hugh Luby replacing Harvey Storey as club manager for purposes of economy. Since he isn't in good shape. Luby won't be playing for awhile. Chances are that newly secured Outfielder Jimmy Deyo won't either.

At any rate Gene Roenspie, who has been gradually getting into the fine hurling trim he was in a season ago, will face the Chiefs in tonight's game.

Last night's second game at Yakima was bad news. Young Johnny Briggs was finally defeated. 2-0 by the Bears, ending his victory string at seven in a row. He now has an 8-3 mark.

Briggs pitched a four-hitter, but walked, Herm Lewis blooped a double to left and Len Noren singled in both runners.

Salems to three hits, first of which was Connie Perez' blow in the fifth inning.

Briggs fanned six Yaks. all the way, checking the Bears with aix hits, fanning five and walking only four for his second straight win. Final score was 7-1. He was given a good start in the first inning when a single by Mel. Krause, three straight walks and a single by Lou Scrivens produced three runs of Starter Dick Young.

Salem Senators directors and numerous hand-picked leaders in the local business and civic setup will convene this morning at 7:30 o'clock at the Marion Hotel to establish final plans for the "Save Your Senaters" day at Waters Field next week.

It has been announced by the directors, who wish to learn once and for all if there is or isn't any interest in professional baseball here, that if 5,000 fans turn out for the specified night game with Tri-City, they will continue efforts to keep the Senators organization alive. But if only half that many show up, the baseball club will be closed down.

Charles Makes Great Showing In Torrid Mix

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK UP - Rocky Marciano, streaming blood from an eye cut, raised goose-egg lumps on Ezzard Charles' swollen face Thursday night but couln't knock down the courageous former champ while saving his world heavyweight title on a unanimous decision in

If ever there was any question about the ability of Charles to take bitter punishment and fight back gamely, it vanished in the chill night air at Yankee Stadium.

Time after time it seemed the 32-year-old Cincinnati Negro must sink to the canvas under the heavy bombs of the champ. Still at the end, Charles was on his feet, erect and willing to take more.

In the savage 15th, Marciano came out for a knockout but he couldn't dump battered Ezzy although he threw everything in the book from his left hook to his "Suzy Q" right. Charles grabbed and held, staggered and stumbled but remained up right. It was the toughest fight in Marciano's string of 46 straight vietories, with the possible exception of the first battle with Jersey Joe Walcot in Philadelphia in 1952. No doubt about the final verdict remained among the throbbing crowd as announcer John Addie revealed the score cards of the three officials.

It was all Charles in the first four rounds until Marciano began to come on in the fifth with a series of left hooks to the head.
