Church Rites Unite Couple

Exchanging their vows at a quiet ceremony Friday night at the First Congregational Church were Miss Sharon May Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fleming, and Richard Frank Thurman, son of Mrs. Florence Thurman.

Dr. Julian J. Keiser officiated at the 8 o'clock nuptials before members of the immediate families.

For her wedding the bride chose a slate blue suit with white hat and navy blue accessories. She pinned a white orchid corsage to her outfit.

Miss Nancy Ladd was the bride's only attendant and she wore a pink suit with corsage of pink sweet peas. Donald Thurman served as best man.

A reception followed the rites at the home of the bride's parents on South 19th Street.

After their honeymoon the couple will be at home in Salem at 1254 Highland Avenue.

Jefferson - Friends are invited to call between the hours of 7 and 10 o'clock Thursday evening, June 24, at the Albert Meyers home on South Main street, where the Meyers' children, Delores and Claude, will hold an open house in honor of their parents' silver wedding anniversary. The Meyers, who were married June 25, 1929, at Elbow Lake, Minn., will leave Friday, on a vacation trip to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Evans Inglis (Helen Elizabeth Uebel) who were married June 12 at St. John the Evangelist Church in Rochester, N. Y. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alfred Uebel of Rochester and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Inglis of Dallas. The couple will spend the summer in Dallas, returning to Rochester in the fall.

Miss Lorna Riggs Is Bride of Thomas Nash at Church Rites

White gladioluses and delphinium combined with a few pink flowers decorated the altar of the First Evangelical United Brethren Church Friday night for the marriage of Miss Lorna Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle H. Riggs, and Thomas A. Nash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Nash of Juneau, Alaska.

The Rev. A. G. Jamieson and the Rev. Delbert Rice performed the 8 o'clock nuptials. Soloists were the Rev. Mr. Rice and Miss Pauline Petticoat with William Fawk the organist.

The bridegroom was in white slipper satin with Chantilly lace bodice enhanced with applied lace roses on the scalloped, rounded neckline and at the points of the long sleeves. The applied lace also formed scallops on the apron style overskirt, which ended in a court train. Her illusion veil was caught to a crown matching Chantilly lace. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid. The bride's party consisted of Miss Darlene Gortmaker as the honor maid and Miss Pamela Wilkenson, Portland, Miss Elaine Dodge, Seattle, and Mrs. Robert Madsen, Seattle, were the bridesmaids. They wore identical white length frocks of white taffeta shantung with full skirts and V necklines in front and back. The honor attendants wore violet linen pumps and the bridesmaids wore orchid pumps. In their hair were garlands of sweet peas and they carried nosegays of orchid and violet sweet peas with matching streamers. Kathy Diane Beach was the flower girl and wore an orchid organly frock.

Lee M. Nash of Portland, uncle of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert Riggs, the bride's brother, Kent Nash of Falls City, Wash., Gerald Welch, Seattle, and Patrick Masterson of Corvallis.

Mrs. Riggs chose a navy blue and white two-piece linen outfit with navy and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. The groom's parents were unable to be here for the ceremony and receiving with the bride party was the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Grace Nash, who wore a rose crepe gown with white accessories. Their corsages were carnations and pink roses.

Reception Follows . . . A reception followed in the church parlor. Pouring were Mrs. Henry Unruh, Mrs. Sol Taylor, Mrs. William Fawk and Mrs. L. R. Martin of The Dalles. Cutting the cake were Mrs. William English, the bride's grandmother, and Mrs. Lewis Bartlett. Assisting were Misses Susan Ann Bartlett, Sabra Blankenship, Polly Pennel, Phyllis LeRud, Lucile Hamner, Myrna Loy Mishke, Ann Clarke, Seattle, Gladys Ayers, Portland, Darlene Marzoff, Seattle, Lois Stevens, Carol Nash, sister of the groom from Juneau, and Carolyn Taylor.

The newlyweds will spend their honeymoon on the Oregon Coast and for going away the bride wore a pink summer suit with pink and white accessories. The couple will live in Salem, where the bride will resume her teaching at Washington School and the groom will attend Oregon State College.

Sigma Kappa alumnae were entertained Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Thomas G. Wright Jr. Officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. Earl Hampton. Mrs. Lynn Wallace will serve as president for 1954-55.

He Sleeps Like a Top

TUMS Quieted His Acid Stomach . . . No longer does he lie awake because of excess stomach acid. No longer does he toss and turn with that queasy, restless feeling. He just takes 1 or 2 Tums as a "night-cap" before he goes to bed. Then sleeps like a top—wakes up fresh and "rarin' to go." Always keep Tums handy to counteract gas, heartburn, acid indigestion. Get a roll to have on hand tonight.

Do you like good bread?

You can EAT AND ENJOY VALLEY BREAD the answer to "diet blues." Low in calories (less than 50 to the slice) yet high in muscle building proteins. And flavor! —just try it toasted—it's a new taste. At your favorite food store.

Miss Dezotell Is Bride of Mr. Kinkaid

Baskets of pink roses and white peonies banked the altar of the First Christian Church Friday night for the marriage of Miss Margaret Avis Dezotell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Dezotell, and James Leonard Kinkaid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kinkaid.

The Rev. Wayne Greene performed the 8 o'clock nuptials and Mrs. Ben Gifford was the soloist. Mrs. J. M. Cracroft was the organist. Lighting the candles were Miss Sharon Kinkaid, the groom's sister, and William Dezotell, the bride's brother.

Of white satin with a court train was the bridal gown, fashioned with a lace bodice with nylon yoke and long lace sleeves. For "something old" the bride wore a cameo locket which belonged to her maternal grandmother. Her fingertip veil was edged in lace and gathered to a pleated nylon net crown edged with satin and seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid marker.

Miss Lois Dezotell was her sister's honor maid and she wore a green dotted nylon gown with scalloped yoke and gathered skirt. Miss Velma Dyer of Dallas and Mrs. James Pulsifer of Toledo were the bridesmaids and they wore similar frocks, only of pink dotted nylon. They all carried colonial nosegays of white and pink roses. Joyce Kinkaid and Doris Dezotell, sisters of the bride couple, were flower girls.

Brother is Best Man . . . Charles Kinkaid stood with his brother as best man and ushers were Roger King of Hebo, Loren Mills of Cornelius, Douglas Van Dyke, Jack Utterback of Salem, Robert Hurd and Roger Detering of Harrisburg.

A powder blue nylon gown with black frosted design and corsage of pink roses was chosen by the bride's mother for the wedding. The groom's mother wore a white nylon flower-print gown and corsage of pink roses.

A reception followed in the church parlor. Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Ed Eldridge of Eugene poured and Mrs. Fred Roberts cut the cake. Assisting were Misses Eileen King, Idyl Bales, Donna Vogt, Ramona Powers, Lois Ann Harold of Toledo, Mrs. Jack Utterback and Mrs. Lloyd Harold. For going away the new Mrs. Kinkaid changed to a two-piece dress of orchid nylon with white shortie coat and white accessories. The newlyweds will live in Salem.

Strawberries a la Berries Combine With Other Fruits for Interesting Flavors

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman, Woman's Editor

We have already given several recipes for strawberry preserves and jam in these columns, but are now offering some fascinating combinations of fruit with the berries. Rhubarb has long been a favorite partner for strawberries, and other flavors go well too.

Gooseberries provide contrast in texture and flavor to the berries in this recipe:

STRAWBERRY GOOSEBERRY JAM
4 cups strawberries 2 pounds sugar
5 cups (1½ lbs.) gooseberries
Slice strawberries, cover with sugar and let stand 1 hour. Add gooseberries and cook slowly until mixture thick, about 20 minutes. Seal. Makes 7 glasses.
Pineapple will give a bright sparkle and interesting flavor to the berries in

STRAWBERRY PINEAPPLE JAM
6 cups strawberries 2¼ cups sugar
1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple
Slice berries and cover with sugar, let stand until latter dissolves. Add pineapple and cook about ½ hour until thick. Seal immediately. This is not a very sweet jam, so a bit more sugar may be added if liked.

A woman from Port Orchard, Wash., gave us this recipe for an unusual combination.

STRAWBERRY BANANA JAM
Use 1 cup sugar and one mashed banana to each cup of crushed strawberries. Cook over a low fire until scalding and keep at this temperature, under simmering, until thickened. Seal in small hot jars.

If your strawberries are still available when the cherries and raspberries come along, here is another flavor to try:

RASPBERRY - STRAWBERRY - CHERRY PRESERVES
1 quart raspberries 1½ pounds cherries
1 quart strawberries Sugar
Weigh combined fruit and add equal weight of sugar. Boil 25 minutes, add ½ cup lemon juice and cook 2 minutes more. Remove from heat and allow to cool. When cold pour into sterilized jars and seal with paraffin. When this preserve is done it looks too thin, but thickens upon standing.

Then there is the strawberry-rhubarb combination:

STRAWBERRY-RHUBARB PRESERVES
4 cups rhubarb 4½ cups sugar
2 cups strawberries
Cut rhubarb in small pieces, add berries and sugar and heat slowly until juices are released. Cook in a shallow pan until thick.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When a man is in an elevator in an office building, and a woman acquaintance enters, should he remove his hat?

A. He should lift his hat in greeting, but it is not necessary for him to remove it in an office elevator.

Q. Is a man ever privileged to remain seated while being introduced?

A. No; he should always rise, regardless of whether the other person is a man or a woman.
