

Tea to Honor Teachers

One of the outstanding social events of the 1934 Oregon Music Teachers Association convention which will be held in Salem June 24, 25, and 26 is the tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burlingham, when the Salem District teachers will entertain the out-of-town guests on Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Mrs. A. A. Segersten is chairman of the tea assisted by Mrs. Walter Weathers. Miss Dorothy Pearce has charge of the dining room and decorating will be Miss Margaret Hogg and Mrs. William Bush.

Introducing to the line will be Miss Ruth Bedford, Mrs. David Eason and Mrs. Ronald Craven will assist about the rooms.

Always a highlight of the convention is the banquet which will be held Friday night at the Marion Hotel. Dean Melvin Geist will be the toastmaster and the speaker of the evening will be Dr. Reginald Parker of the Willamette University College of Law, who will speak on "Disrespect for the Artist and the Intellectual".

Decorating for the banquet will be done by the Shu-I-Na-La Campfire group of Mrs. Carlisle Roberts as part of the fulfillment of rank of Firemaker and will follow a musical theme.

Following the banquet the group will attend the concert of Diana Steiner, violinist, at Waller Hall.

Unit to Install Officers

Salem Unit 136 American Legion Auxiliary will hold its last social meeting of the season Thursday evening at eight o'clock in the Salem Womens Club. Highlighting the evening will be installation of the junior officers and the senior officers. Ritual team from the Salem unit will install the juniors and the Ritual team from the past presidents of Capital Unit will install the senior officers.

Miss Shirley Blush, girl governor of Girls State and Miss Kay Ruberg who were both delegates to Girls State, will give their reports.

SHERIDAN — Miss Ann Beardlee was honor guest at a bridal shower given by Lorraine Glover, Barbara Ogilvie and Janice Garbrant. Refreshments were served to Miss Beardlee, Mrs. Margaret Beardlee, Mary Ann Mowery, Marjorie Williams, Bonnie Judd, Glenna Mars, Fern Eberhart, Frances Harrison, Marjorie Judd, Barbara Ogilvie, Lorraine Glover, Barbara Byrkit, Betty Graves and Joycelyn Judd.

High School Class Reunion Held

SILVERTON—A group of women who were graduated from the Silvertown High School in 1935 were entertained Saturday night by Mrs. Purl (Evelyn Steward) Bye at her home. Plans were made for a class reunion in the summer of 1935, the 30th anniversary since their graduation.

High school annuals and class pictures were the feature of the entertainment at the party which was attended by Lena Overland Froude of Tigard, Billie Johnson Cammeron of Salem, Thelma Henderson Johnson of Northfield, Minn., Janet Ballentyne of Seattle, Ines Reynolds Green of Portland, Caroline Bump Price of Brooks, Dorothy Nusswanger Price of Salem, and from Silvertown were Agnes Torvend Phillips, Thelka Brehrens McClure, Florence Furue Taylor, Lois Thornley Toft, Anna Larson Schwab, Ruth Simmons Schar and Mrs. Bye.

Dr. Jessica Small, a dietitian in Crooke County Hospital, Chicago, is now visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Small, but was unable to attend due to another engagement.

Recent Bride is Honor Guest

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Mrs. Mary Jane Beckon and Anthony Van Lydegraft, which was solemnized Friday, June 18, at the home of the bride's daughter, Mrs. H. L. Burch. The bride was surprised by a group of friends and neighbors at a party and shower at her home last week. Those present were Misses Be-

Donna Vogt Is Bride of Mr. Walker

Miss Donna Marie Vogt and Robert Walker exchanged their marriage vows at a quiet ceremony Saturday morning, June 19 at the First Christian Church before members of the two families and a few intimate friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Vogt and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Walker. The Rev. Wayne Greene officiated at the 10 o'clock rite.

For her wedding the bride chose a white knit suit with pink accessories and corsage of pink baby roses.

Miss Luella Carlisle was the bride's only attendant and she wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and corsage of yellow carnations. Elliott Backstrand was best man and ushers were Wallace Nelson and William Holland.

The newlyweds left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip along the Oregon coast. They will be at home in Salem at 400 N. 20th St. In the fall the couple will move to Corvallis, where Mr. Walker will continue with his studies at Oregon State College.
