Bachmann-Goff Nuptials Held

McMINNVILLE—Miss Ann Got daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Anderson of Coos Bay, and Lester E. Bachmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alber Bachmann of McMinnville, were married June 13 at the home of the bridegroom. The Rev. E. L. Wood of Carlton performed the ceremony before members of the family and a few friends.

The bride wore a pale blue net over satin ballerina gown and carried a Bible topped with a white orchid. Miss Gwendolyn Bachmann, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and wore a ballerina gown of pale green net and carried a pink carnation nosegay.

George Bachmann, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Brenda Bachmann, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Don Bachmann, a nephew, was ring bearer, and the bridegroom's brothers, Alvin and George Bachmann, lighted the candles.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Alvin Bachmann cut the wedding cake, Mrs. Francis Laughlin, sister of the bridegroom, poured the punch, and Mrs. George Bachmann, who poured the coffee. Mrs. Donald

Mrs. Charles C. Campbell (Roberta Schmalz) who was married June 6 in Portland. The couple will live in Woodburn, where both are teachers.

Wright, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the gifts.

For their wedding trip, the bride wore a grey suit and an orchid corsage. They are now at home in Coos Bay.

TAKING THE ROMANTIC

Spotlight today is attractive, brunette Suzanne Barnes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Chester A. Downs whose engagement to Robert Deane Morrison is being revealed. The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mrs. John Salberg of Maywood, Calif. and O. F. Morrison of Vancouver, Wash. The young duo will be married on Saturday, September 18 at the First Methodist Church.

Sue, a popular member of the young set, is a graduate of the University of Washington and will receive her master's degree in library science from the University in August. She took her first two college years at Oregon State College and is a member of Pi Beta Phi and the Salem Spinners. Her fiancé graduated in June from the University of Washington and is a member of Alpha Delta Phi.

In the capital of the past fortnight have been Colonel Ira Wintermute and children, Sheryl and Randy, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Moore Hamilton. The air force colonel is leaving today to return to his base at Hamilton Field, Calif. and in July will depart for England on a special assignment. On his return to the states he will be transferred to Payne Air Base at Everett, Wash. His children will remain in Salem at the home of their grandparents for the summer. Mrs. Hamilton has been at Hamilton Field since last fall with her son-in-law and grandchildren.

A guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Campbell for several weeks is Barbara Leonard of Oakland, Calif., daughter of the W. B. Leonards. She returned north with the Campbells this weekend, who went south to meet their son, Tim, who is home from Culver Military Academy for the summer.

Entraining today for Midland, Mich. will be Mrs. Tyrone Gillespie and son, Tyrone Jr., who have been visiting in Salem the past month at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Johnson. Mr. Gillespie joined his family here for a week, returning east Monday. They came west for the wedding of Mrs. Gillespie's sister, Evelyn Johnson, and Richard M. Page on June 19.

A visitor in the capital from Pittsburg, Pa. is Mrs. John Clement, who is a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Schafer, at their home on Boone Road. She will be here until the first of July.

Weekend jottings. Governor and Mrs. Paul L. Patterson will be at Camp Clatsop Saturday for the annual governor's day review and will be guest at the luncheon and reception preceding and following the review. Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Jones will also be at Camp Clatsop Saturday for the review.

Spending the weekend in Longview will be Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hadley and children, Eileen, Allan, Bruce and Nancy, who will visit at the home of Mr. Hadley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hadley.
