

Missing Angler Found Safe

KLAMATH FALLS — A Medford fisherman, missing 24 hours in the Seven Mile Lake district, 45 miles north of here, was found safe Monday.

He was Gile Harnden, 21, who became separated from friends on a fishing trip Sunday. The Klamath Air Rescue Unit, members of the sheriff's posse, and volunteers took part in the successful search.

The great Rift Valley, an unexplained gash in the earth's surface, extends from Lake Victoria in Uganda, through Ethiopia to the Dead Sea and can be traced still farther north.

China Envoys In England

LONDON — A Communist China trade mission — the first to Britain since World War II — arrived Monday night from Geneva.

The party of 11 was greeted by representatives of 48 British firms who recently negotiated with Chinese Communists in Berlin. British businessmen are sponsoring the visit.

The Churchill government has given an official blessing to the efforts of businessmen at boosting trade of non-strategic items with the Peiping regime.

DEBT FUND URGED

HARTFORD, Conn. — A housewife sent $1 to Gov. John Lodge, saying she wanted it applied to the reduction of the national debt. A clergyman followed with a $100 contribution. Lodge forwarded both contributions to U. S. Treasurer Ivy Baker Priest together with the housewife's suggestion for an annual drive to reduce the debt through voluntary citizens' contributions.

Small Rattler Bites Small Boy at The Dalles

THE DALLES — An 18-month-old boy was reported recovering Monday from the bite of a small rattlesnake.

The snake, so small that some adults thought it was a harmless garter snake, bit the boy at a picnic near here Sunday. One adult, however, said it was a rattler, and the child was brought to a hospital at once. Later diagnosis confirmed it was a rattler, and that its bite was venomous.

The child was Mark Van Valkenburgh, son of the assistant Wasco County district attorney, Meredith D. Van Valkenburgh.
