These are plain facts—

It's been a backward season—too much cool weather—not enough warm, sunny days to sell Summer wear rapidly. So we are overloaded. Stuck with the nicest line of the most beautiful cotton dresses and other Summer wear we have ever had.

A quick decision—a decision to clear all our racks—our entire store of seasonable merchandise at once. Prices no object. Everything must be sold.

We need the room for our Fall stock that is now rolling in every day.

We really believe this will be one of our greatest sales—all are invited to come—and inspect the wonderful bargains we are offering for this outstanding event. — FIELDS
